sea within the last two or three days. As far as we can judge, the prospect is a favourable one—appearances at present indicating an early spring. The number of vessels from St. John's was an extraordinary amount, that of last year, though from the island altogether; we believe there will be little difference in the number of arrivals in the next year. We are heartily wish the fleet the amplest success.

LECTURE AT TEMPERANCE HALL.—REV. W. Snodgrass will lecture to-morrow evening (Thursday) on the "Creation of Spirits" in relation to Total Abstinence and a Prohibitory Law. The chair will be taken at 8 o'clock.

The Temperance Societies of Pussia continue to present Petitions to the Legislative Chambers, praying for the suppression of Distilleries, and the interdiction of the sale of Spirits, except for medical purposes. To one petition there were 11,833 signatures.

The Annual Meeting of the Missionary, Bible and Educational Society of this island, at a public congregation was held in Lot 16 Church, on Tuesday the 11th March, and in Lot 14 on Wednesday the 12th March, at an appropriate Sermon by Rev. All. Fraser, from Col. 3: 17. For Zion's sake I will not hold my peace, &c. The following appropriation was made of the funds of the Society collected during the past year:—

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Items include: Bible Mission, Foreign Missions, Domestic Missions, and Society for Propagation of Gospel.

Total, £55 5 7. The Society would embrace this opportunity of gratefully acknowledging the handsome donation of £5 to their funds by some unknown benefactor. May He who is secret reward the donor openly.—Cam.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY. The House of Assembly has been engaged in receiving the reports of Road Committees and on the public accounts. The question of a Model farm and Agricultural College, was before the House in Committee last evening; the Committee reported progress and asked for leave to sit again.

The Mail.—The British mails brought only a Colonial Mail last night. The British Mail had not arrived at Halifax when the Mail left on Thursday morning. The only news we have from the West Indies is that the Colonial Ministry have been sustained by a majority of 32: 72 against 40. The British Mail may be looked for to-morrow.

CADAM'S LEGISLATION. On the 13th, a motion to reconsider the vote for the address relative to Judge Durn's charge, was made by attorney General Drummond; whereupon the Hon. J. S. McDonald moved the previous question. After a long debate the House divided on the "previous question" your, 40; nays, 72. Mr. Atty. General Drummond afterwards stated that the Ministry, being now assured that they possessed the confidence of the House, were prepared to carry the address to the Government, and that he thought it would not be proper to comply with the motion.

POLICE COURT. About 8 o'clock, on Saturday night last, a number of people were entering on the ice at the west end of Richmond Street, a disturbance commenced, and was kept up but for the timely interference of Policeman No. 3, assisted by a young man named O'Brian, and was promptly aided by the Mayor, who may have turned out to be of a very serious nature. Two of the parties were arrested and committed to the Police office where they were committed to await their appearance to-day, when an investigation into this disagreeable matter will be made. O'Brian has received the thanks of his fellow-citizens in this and several other instances of his good citizenship in aiding the Police on emergencies.

A POLITICAL PORTENT. NO II. "Nair their meathen th'rod their tentagen no ed!" Old Pever.

Who is this silt next for fame, SIXATONAWA? From the East he comes, as came Wisner men before him. One of "Sawar's Hope Iotian" is one of ancient renown. He has on his name the name of a hero. He has on his name the name of a hero. He has on his name the name of a hero.

Time, that still with great and small Casseles warfars wages, Lays heavy hand on the world, Spices not even Sages Shrinken up by Nature's laws, In his built and un-built, Be the land of what he was, Hunts the Legislature.

Yet he saw a better day; Ewe the fountain Of his river d'royd of his fund. For alleged SCAUTION Words admit of light and shade; Ewe would stop to see the world, Ewe would stop to see the world, Ewe would stop to see the world.

So the House in three-time (Does well after in honey) Paid the premiums for the cones, Forking out the money. When the clinking shins bright Shows effect had on the world, Thee doest d' with ray delight, Wasting TALEGHEUR; As in days long past and gone, Sacrilege and fury.

Hunted Fast and John By a Geographers Jury, Lucke then and looks still! Ewe all the P. E. Island, By the badge of his skill, SIXATONAWA.

HE MAKES A SPEECH ON THE GARIBDI PITCHES. My charlatans, we this night, Need not talk of tinsios; But I'm not convince a manio; For all their reason, For I've seen it all, After of "back-stair-latches" I shall vote the other way. On these "Hour of Disturbance," All my Constituents true, Need not care a feather For despatches cut in two (Like a lisp of my dear, Therefore fear not to be clear, Calls upon my vote, Sir, That the people all may hear, What Sir George has wear, Sir.

THE NEWFOUNDLAND SEAL FISHERY.—The Sealers had all left St. John's harbor on this morning but hopeful entrance prior to the departure of M. J. M. D. for Halifax. A gentleman who came passenger by the steamer states the number of vessels engaged the present season in this branch of industry to be much fewer than usual. The total from St. John's is probably less than fifty, and for Carleton Place probably not more than twenty.

The Newfoundlanders of March 3, says—Preparations for our Seal Fishery have been going forward with unusual activity for some time past, and several vessels have gone to
