The combined funeral services were held on February 16, 1952, in Cadman's Funeral Home, Alma Street, Moncton.

The bodies were placed in the vault in Elmwood Cemetery for burial in the spring.

The number of floral tributes, messages and telegrams of sympathy received testified to the high esteem in which the late Mrs Ripley and her father were held.

Those attending the funeral from a distance were Percy Ripley and daughter, Cornwall, Ont.; Mr and Mrs. Harrison Crossman and Brenda Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walsh, Fred Crossman, Frank Crossman, Harold Crossman, Elmer Walsh, Prince Edward Island.

Pastoral Letter Read In Catholic Churches Sunday

The following Lenten regulations are contained in a pastoral letter from His Excellency Bishop Boyle, which was read yesterday in all Roman Catholic churches in the Diocese of Charlottetown:

"Everyone seven years of age and over is bound to observe the law of abstinence.

"Complete abstinence is to be observed on Fridays, Ash Wednesday and on Holy Saturday morning. On days of complete abstinence meat and soup or gravy made from meat may not be used at all.

"Partial abstinence is to be observed on Ember Wednesday and Saturday. On days of partial abstinence meat and soup or gravy made from meat may be taken only once a day at the principal meal. This obliges even those between the ages of 7 and 20

On Fast

"Everyone between the ages of 21 and 59 is also bound to observe the law of fast.

"All the week days of Lent are fast days.

"On days of fast only one full meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs; but together they should not equal another full meal.

"Meat may be taken at the principal meal on a day of fast except on Fridays and Ash Wednesday.

"Eating between meals is not permitted; but liquids, including milk and fruit juice are allowed.

"When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. In doubt concerning fast or abstinence, a parish priest or confessor should be consulted.

"We earnestly exhort the faithful during the holy season of Lent to attend daily Mass; to receive Holy Communion often; to take part more frequently in exercises of piety; to be faithful to their Family Rosary pledge; to give generously to charity; to perform acts of kindness toward the sick, the aged, and the poor; to practice voluntary self-denial especially regarding alcoholic drink and worldly amusements; and to pray more fervently, particularly for the intentions of the Holy Father.

"On all days in Lent the use of eggs, milk, butter, cheese and seasonings made of animal fat is permitted.

"The time for complying with the precept of Easter Communion is from Ash Wednesday to Trinity Sunday.

"The days of fast and abstinence outside the season of Lent are given below. They should be announced to the faithful on the Sunday of the week in which the day or days occur.

"Complete abstinence is to be observed not only on Fridays but on the Vigils of the Assumption and Christmas.

"Partial abstinence is to be observed on Ember Wednesdays and Saturdays and on the Vigils of Pentecost and All Saints

Days Of Fast

"Ember days, the Vigils of Pentecost, the Assumption, All Saints and Christmas, are days of fast.

"During Lent Holy Mother Church asks each of us to look into his heart more closely in order to detect his enemy No. One, some passion or habit that separates us from God. It may be worldiness, drunkenness, impurity, neglect of religious duties, secret sins known only to God, pride, or, in the case of married persons, it may be the desecration of marriage or neglect on the part of parents to guard the innocence of their children. No matter how sinful we are, God can transform us into saints as He did in the case of the Publican in the Gospel, who, feeling miserable in his sins, turned to God for help, and without self-decention cried out, "O Lord be merciful to me a sinner".

"There can be no sincere observance of Lent unless the sinner removes the stain of serious sin by a good confession, and endeavors to make reparation and satisfaction to God for all sins through the virtue of penance or voluntary mortification. Without mortification there can be no spiritual life at all. There is no sincere observance of Lent for us, the friends and brethern of Christ, unless we hearken to the words of His prophet Joel: Now therefore saith the Lord: Be converted to Me with all your heart, in fasting and in weeping, and in mourning. And rend your hearts—and turn to the Lord your God' (Joel II. 12, 13). The modern world outside the Church scoffs at the notion of penance, but we Catholics accept the words of Christ literally: 'Unless you do penance you shall all likewise perish'; and, 'if any man would be my disciple let him take up his cross daily and follow Me.'

Minimum Penance

"Lent will begin on Wednesday of this week. The fast, imposed by law, is a minimum penance. Perhaps fathers of families could begin the custom by reading the Epistle and Gospel of the Lenten Mass every day at the principal meal. Let us offer our Lenten program in reparation for the sins committed during the last year. Offer it, too, for a lasting and just peace. The observance of Lent is no easy task. Generous souls will see their Lenten exercises through to the end. Lent means more than running into church for ashes on Ash Wednesday, for a piece of blessed palm on Palm Sunday, and to kiss the Cross on Good Friday. 'Behold now is the acceptable time, behold now is the day of salvation'.

Special blessings will be given you this Lent. Will this be your last Lent on earth? "Now is the acceptable time." "And he arose, and ate and drank and walked in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights unto the Mount of God" (Second Epistle in Ember Wednesday of Lent). Daily Holy Communion will give us strength to walk to the Mount of God during these days of Lent. "The bread which I will give is My Flesh for the life of the world". (Communion anthem Thursday of the first week of Lent). St. Joseph was the spouse of Mary and the guardian of Christ. To you, fathers and mothers, is committed the guardianship of your family. Go to Joseph in trials and uncertainties, in doubt and sorrow. He will be your powerful protector.

Vocations To The Priesthood

"On Sunday March 16th all pastors are asked to preach on vocations. Beginning March 17th there will be a vocation triduum in honor of St. Joseph in all churches and chapels wherever possible, for the intention of many and fervent vocations to the priesthood and sisterhoods. It was once the pious ambition or hope of every family to give a boy to the priesthood and a girl to the sisterhood. True, the world is more worldly now than then and pleasures more alluring and the need of making a living is more pressing on all. But our Catholic spirit should be of such a calibre as to keep pace and ahead of the opposition, and where evil may abound, let grace still more abound."

Damaged Diesel Towed To Tignish

One diesel with a damaged gear-box was towed to Tignish for repair as a result of last Friday night's derailment between Harper's and DeBlois Stations near Tignish.

The accident occurred when a wing plow extra of the Canadian National Railway, jumped the track near Tignish derailing two diesels and a van attached while it was en route to Tignish widening the cuttings caused by last week's snow-storm.

Although it was not considered a serious accident some difficulty was encountered while replacing the cars on the track, but with the aid of approximately 30 men and a crane the difficulty was soon overcome and the cars with the exception of the one damaged, were soon en route for Charlottetown.

By 6:30 P. M. Saturday night the track crew from Tignish had repaired the rails which had been torn up and cleared the line.

Although the cause of the accident has not been determined it is believed that a low joint in the track may have caused it.

Little difficulty is expected in repairing the damaged engine.

P.W.C. News & Views

Saturday night the college basketball team was defeated again, but the hopes of the team members are still high and they are looking forward to the time when they will win. Many of the boys wish that a larger crowd would attend the games and give them more support when they need it.

In the first quarter the "Y" gained so much ground that the Welchmen were unable to overtake them. Later in the second half the P.W.C. team seemed invigorated with a new spirit and it almost seemed as if they would be able to overtake their opponents. Many of the team members had been at the late dance the night before which caused them to be thrown off stride somewhat from lack of sleep.

The Valentine Formal was a complete success last Monday night. The auditorium was filled with a capacity crowd. It was decorated ably by Jill MacKay and her associates on the Social Committee. At the far end was a large red heart in which the Downtowners orchestra was located, and in each of the windows was a large red heart trimmed in white. This formal which was started only a couple of years ago has proved such a success that the college year would not be complete without it.

The exibition game between King's and P.W.C. last Friday night was even better than it was hoped. There was a large crowd on hand to cheer the home team on. Many who had not attended, when they heard of the crowd appeal which the game created, wished they had gone. This just goes to show that sports appeal has lost considerable ground at P.W.C., but after this game the students will take more interest in what goes on about them.

The game itself went better even than the students had hoped, the Welshmen were only defeated two to one. It is the opinion of many that P.W.C. had the better team and that a little more practice on the basic points would have given them a sure victory over the other team. The boys will, no doubt, put up a very good showing against the Rothesay team next Saturday.

Heavy Earthquake In Germany

LUDWIGSHAFEN, Germany, Feb. 24 —(AP) — An earthquake shook the Ludwigshafen area tonight as gases were being released skyward from the huge Badische chemical works, and the city panicked in fear an explosion had occurred.

Thousands of workers rushed to the plant to give emergency aid, remembering the tragic blast which killed 207 there in 1948.

But at the gates of the plant, the managers told the excited crowds there had been no new disaser.

Y.P.U. Service

Trinity Young People's Union held their regular Sunday Song Service in the Social Hall last evening.

The guest artists for the evening were Miss Marilyn Baggs and Mr. Henry Hargreaves Jr., from Mt. Allison University, who sang "Heather On The Hill" and by special request "Love Divine, All Love Excelling". They were accompanied on the piano by Mr. Raymond Player.

These selections were thoroughly enjoyed by the group.

A very hearty sing-song was led by Gurney Trites and Leith Stetson, assisted by Mary Morrison at the piano.

The service was brought to a close by singing "Climbing Jacob's Ladder."

Enjoy Rest Camp In Korea

INCHON, Korea, Feb. 22 — (Reuters) — A hangman's tree stands in front of a house in the British rest camp here, stark memorial to an atrocity.

But the 2,500 Commonwealth soldiers who have passed through to lose their battle fatigue are more interested in a cup of tea in bed in the morning, hot showers, fishing through the ice and playing football.

Chinese Communist soldiers last year dragged four wounded United States soldiers and a Korean doctor out of the house to bayonet and shoot them beneath the tree.

They hanged the doctor from a branch above the bodies.

United Nations infantrymen found evidence of the atrocity later as they pursued the retreating Communist forces.

Today, the tree is in a camp where 200 British and Commonwealth troops live. One man in the camp knows its story, but he never mentions it.

The reason Capt. Robert Jenkins keeps the secret is that the men in the camp are battle veterans, there to relax and to forget war.

Jenkins is commanding officer of the first Commonwealth division rest centre. Troops come here from foxholes and bunkers for five days of complete rest. Discipline is eased and the men can sleep or lie on their beds all day. They do not have to shave or parade. And they get "a good cuppa" in bed every morning.

The site was formerly a luxury resort for high-ranking officers of the Japanese occupation force in Korea.

Bombing and shelling from the sea by United Nations planes and ships demolished the original buildings. Men in the camp now live in comfortable "winterized" tents.

There are recreation rooms, a good library and reading room, a brightly-decorated dining room and theatre, a barber's shop and the "tavern".

The camp's latest acquisitions are two members of the women's voluntry service, the first British servicewomen stationed in Korea. They have already begun to add some feminine touches.

PLAN TO COST

There is opposition from the French and, to a lesser extent, from Britain.

From Bonn came word that the occupation powers are sending to Lisbon a request from Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Government for a slight reduction in the proposed 11,250,000,000 mark ($2,670,000,000) defence budget for West Germany.

Tomorrow, foreign ministers are to sit in executive session to work on the problem of whether N.A.T.O. headquarters will be in Paris or London and who will be its secretary-general. The latter post is to be created in a proposed N.A.T.O. reorganization.

(The Associated Press said Saturday that L.B. Pearson, Canada's external affairs minister is slated to be N.A.T.O.'s first permanent secretary-general. Earlier last week Pearson merely parried reporters' questions when they asked him whether he would accept the job.)

After the secretary-general problem is cleared up the ministers will meet with defence and finance ministers to adopt an airfield construction program and choose the place and date for their next meeting. This probably will be next May in Copenhagen.

The master plan is the result of months of compromise and argument between civil and military leaders of the alliance.

It deals only with the men, money and machines to be provided by the original twelve N.A.T.O. countries—the United States, Canada, Iceland, Britain, Norway, Denmark, the Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg, France, Italy and Portugal.

Greece and Turkey, attending their first council session as new members, are to add their contributions after a N.A.T.O. committee makes such a study of their capabilities.

The report made no mention of West German contribution to Western defences. This is a separate matter that must be delayed until the occupying powers change occupation laws to a peace contract with the federal republic.

Tentatively, however, West Germany is expected to add nearly $3,000,000,000 to the common defence fund, and put about 400,000 men into the uniform of a yet-to-be-formed European army.

General Drive "Y" Campaign Opens Tonight

Generous contributions to the Y.M.C.A. Maintenance Campaign have been a source of gratification to the Special Names Committee.

Pleased as are officials with results to date, they are quick to point out that the success of the campaign depends largely on the general drive which opens tonight.

A supper meeting will be held at the "Y" tonight when 150 enthusiastic workers under the co-chairmanship of Messrs Earl Taylor and James MacLean will receive their final instructions. A few of the larger donations received over the week-end follow. Horne Motors $135, Atlantic Wholesalers $250, Michael Bros. $100, The Pure Milk Co. $100, Maritime Central Airways $110, Woolworth Co. Ltd., $100, Carvell Bros. $100, G.H. Taylors $200, Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Cotton $100, P.W. Turner $100, A. Pickard $100.

Cominform Believed Washed Up As Soviet Policy Instrument

BERLIN, Feb. 23 — (Reuters)— After more than two years of apparent inactivity by the Cominform, many Berlin observers are ready to speculate that this once powerful organization has been discarded as a major instrument of Soviet policy.

Its last official meeting took place in Hungary in November, 1949.

Since then a large headquarters in Bucharest has continued to operate. But there have been no meetings similar to previous ones which got big headlines all over the world. If meetings have taken place, they have not been disclosed, contrary to Cominform' custom.

From being Stalin's mouthpiece, the Cominform has lansed into an office headquarters where pronaganda is prepared and minor officials are trained, according to east European press reports reaching Berlin.

The creator and first chief of the Cominform short for Communist Information Bureau, was Zhdanov. His death not only robbed the Soviet Union of a leader but also seemed to leave the Cominform without its former aim and skill.

Even if Zhdanov had not died, the general opinion among students of east European affairs here is that the Cominform had begun to outlive its usefulness in 1949.

It failed in its two main post-war tasks—to wreck the Marshall plan and eradicate nationalism from Communist countries in east Europe.

Its lack of success against east Europe nationalism can be estimated from the number of east European purges and trials since 1947.

The resounding pronaganda defeat for Moscow in the defection of Premier Tito of Yugoslavia, it is believed, led to Russian doubts about the usefulness of the Cominform.

Since then many leading members of the Cominform have lapsed into the Communist twilight and in recent months first Vladyslav Gomulka, of Poland, and then Rudolf Slansky, of Czechoslovakia—both Cominform-founder members—have been arraigned in their own countries for treason.

Gomulka and Slansky, who sat at table together when the Cominform was born, epitomize the failures which have dogged the organization since Tito broke away.

The central office of the Cominform moved from Belgrade to Bucharest after the Tito break Seven hundred officials work in its five-storey headquarters.

Journalists who have visited the buildings say it is closely guarded by conspicuous police patrols. They say, too, that the Cominform's chief purpose now is to amass world statistics and prepare material for delegates in the Soviet groups of countries.

The more important policy-forming functions of the Cominform now are probably being exercised by the new "global" institutions which, Allied and German experts believe, have risen to supplant it.

Chief among these is the World Peace Council, which is said to draw heavily on the resources of Cominform headquarters to supply its delegates' meetings with translators and material. Others are the World Federation of Democratic Youth and the International Federation of Democratic Women.

HOLMAN STORE NEWS
— G. H. M. —

There are big-big profits to be made in the Poultry Business . . . . And now is the time to get going with day-old Chicks, because the earlier you start, the earlier you'll be reaping these big-big profits. To do things right you'll want one of the new Queen Automatic Oil Burning Brooder Stoves. These give chicks a real chance to grow and thrive. They provide clean, even heat in all kinds of weather. The Queen Brooder Stove, No 652 has 1,000 chick chapacity under its heavy galvanized hover. The maximum fuel consumption is only 5 gallons in 24 hours and there is an automatic draft regulator, so you see it is dependable, and economical. The Queen Brooder Stove has a triple combustion pot type burner, the same as used in the range burners and the price is just 34.95 in the Hardware Departments of both the Charlottetown and the Summerside Holman Stores.

Something new in the Home Permanent field! It's the Prom Home Permanent Refill and it is easy as ABC to give yourself the softest, most natural permanent yet because no neutralizer is needed with Prom! Your Prom Wave neutralizes itself automatically as your hair dries. The price of Prom is just 1.75 and you can buy it at the Cosmetic Section of the Accessory Department.

It's a wonderful idea to have a bit of knitting on hand to pick up when you have an idle moment or two . . . . that's the reason I'm telling you about the Paton and Baldwin "Atlantic" Fingering Yarn — it's only 33 cents for the 1 ounce ball in the 5 and 10 Department. "Atlantic" Fingering is a 4-ply yarn and it comes in a gorgeous array of shades. Dig out those needles and get purling with "Atlantic" Fingering from the 5 and 10 Department.

A must for the new wide skirts! . . . . a smart flouncing Petticoat of crisp, rustling Taffeta. I noticed these in the Sportswear Department this morning in a lovely Fuschia and Dark Colors. These have a deep ruffle around the hemline and elastic waist bands. The price is 4.98 in the Sportswear Department.
