Murray Hbr. North Man Celebrates 92nd Birthday

Mr. Benjamin Clow of Murray Harbor North celebrated his 92nd birthday yesterday. A son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Clow, he was born on the homestead in Murray Harbor North in 1859.

His wife, the former Kate MacLean, passed away some years ago. Two sons, James and George, and two daughters, Stella, Mrs. Laurie Murdoch, and Jean, live on the old homestead.

In his youth Mr. Clow owned and operated the only general store in the district. The business is now carried on by the sons. He also owned and operated a lobster factory known as Clow's Factory. It has since ceased operations.

Despite his advanced years Mr. Clow is very active and enjoys good health.

During the past hockey season he was a very ardent hockey fan and a great supporter of the Charlottetown Islanders.

On this happy occasion the Guardian joins with many friends in extending congratulations to Mr. Clow.

church, doing the walls, seats and floors. This has been a big job but with the continued cooperation of all they expect to have the work completed for service on Sunday, May 20th. The work has been under the supervision of their pastor, Rev. W. B. J. Corckum.

St. Mary's Baseball Club was the name chosen by the boys at a meeting held recently to organize for the coming summer. There was a good attendance and the following officers were elected for the year: President, Warren Cheverie; vice-president, Mayor C. E. Lavis; secretary-treasurer, Rev. P. A. Murnaghan; executive committee, Ivan Cheverie, Stuart MacAulay, Omar Cheverie, James Bernhan and Isaac Cheverie.

The regular monthly meeting of the Town Council was held on Friday night, May 11, with Mayor Lavis in the chair. The following Council members were present: J. A. Peters, Andrew Meurant, Stirling Gillespie, and Alex Mooney. Routine bills and the police report were read and passed. In support of the move made by the Board of Trade the Council has declared that May 21st until May 26th will be clean-up week in the town. In connection with this Mr. M. J. McQuaid, Town Clerk, was instructed to write to the Island Telephone Co. and the Maritime Electric Co., asking them to have their poles painted on Main Street.
