Lakeburn And Senator Cragmyle Triple Heat Winners On Race Cards Yesterday

Lakeburn, a bay horse driven by Dr. Aitkens of Fredericton, raced to a straight heat win in the C. Trot at the Driving Park yesterday afternoon clipping 5 1/5 seconds off his old mark in the first heat and lowered again by another fifth of a second in the last heat.

Lakeburn had far too much speed for the rest of the field and had little trouble in any of the dashes and was barred from the betting in the last heat.

April Bud chased him to the wire to place in all three heats with Joandale third in the first heat and Muriel E. in the last two.

Most of the good-sized crowd were betting their money on Jollity's Girl in the feature B-B Pace but Jet Master, a beautiful black horse owned by P. J. Cadegan of Glace Bay, upset the dopesters by taking the first two heats and in the first clocked the fastest time of the afternoon at 2.10.3.

Jollity's Girl placed second in both of first two dashes and won the last heat with Jet Master trailing by a nose. Esso picked up third in the second and third heats and Queen Primrose came home in the show position in the first.

Jimmy Flood in the D-D Pace was another double heat winner and finished second in the third behind Col. Budlong.

Claude O'Brien drove Jimmy Flood to a new mark in the first trip around in 2.17 1 and chopped another fifth off the mark in the second go.

With a great burst of speed in the stretch Yankee Joan romped home second behind Jimmy Flood in the first dash of the D-D Pace to give the biggest pay of the afternoon — $44.80 — and the second biggest pay — $15.30— to show.

On the whole it was a day for favorites and the only other good pays were Jet Master—$8.30 to win; Col. Budlong $14.60 to win and $8.40 to place.

Lusty's Lass, with Roach MacGregor up, took a spill at the starting wire in the second heat of the D-D Pace but was not hurt and able to walk off the track to the stables and come back for the last heat.

The Quinella on Lakeburn and April Bud in the fifth race paid only $5.65 and the Daily Double on Lakeburn and Jet Master paid $96.05.

LUSTY'S LASS TAKES SPILL

Lusty's Lass is seen above lying on the ground after taking a spill just at the beginning of the second heat in the DD pace on the afternoon card at the Driving Park yesterday. Driver Roach MacGregor and some helpers are trying desperately to loosen the bay mare from her harness while the other horses are pounding down the stretch to complete the first half mile. Lusty's Lass emerged uninjured from the fall and came back for the last dash.

PRINCE BUDLONG WINS A CLOSE ONE

Prince Budlong, with Harold Cudmore at the reins, is seen above winning by a neck over Eva Budlong in the final heat of the A pace at the Driving Park last night. No. 7 Sleepy Sam is running third and Grey Eagle fourth in what was one of the most exciting races on the evening's card.

More of the same will be seen at the track this afternoon and evening when eighteen more dashes will be run off.

The feature event of the afternoon's card will be the B pace with eight starters including America's Ace, Miss Donna Mae, Annuncio, Money Royal and four other great pacers.

In the evening the pacers will again hold the spotlight with Laurel Chief, Suffolk Chief, Billy Budlong, among five others, going to the gate to start the second division of the B pace, at $275 per dash.

The afternoon program will start at 2.30 daylight time and the night card begins at 8.45 daylight time.

Another terrific crowd braved threatening weather to attend last night's card at the Driving Park and they were well rewarded with exciting finishes and upsets the order of the evening and hardly a race went by that the favorites weren't given a pretty hard time by the underdogs.

Senator Cragmyle was an underdog in the first heat of the CC Pace but he came racing home ahead of Lilly Bell Lee, another upset artist, to pay $10.10 to win. The favorite Flax Scott managed to pick up a third.

The Senator continued his winning ways in the second and third heats also to make a clean sweep of the pace. Col. Dan MacKinnon driving Feather Duster finished second and Flax Scott again took third in the second heat and Celia Sharon was second and Feather Duster third in the third heat.

Prince Budlong was another surprise winner taking the last two heats of the BB Pace and paying $26.20 to win in the second. The Prince placed second in the first heat behind Mr. Jollscott while Lahey's Dream took third. Mr. Jollscott took the show position in the second heat and Grey Eagle placed. In the third heat Eva Budlong placed and Sleepy Sam showed.

Belle Banks, Peter Clegg and Moriell Woody split the heats of the A. Pace, with Belle Banks winning the first by a nose over Peter Clegg. The Clegg horse was an easy winner of the second and Moriell Woody came home in a blaze of speed to take the third and give another big pay.

The daily double on Senator Cragmyle and Belle Banks paid $11.75 and the quinella on Prince Budlong and Grey Eagle paid the tidy sum of $175.10.

Maritime Amateur Golf Ch'ship On Line Today

FREDERICTON (CP) — Ralph Harley of Moncton and H. E. (Gene) Mealey of Fredericton meet today in the 36-hole final for the Maritime amateur golf title. Neither has been a previous Maritime champ.

Fay went off as scheduled Wednesday, despite several brief showers that forced the players to seek shelter under umbrellas.

Harley, a former New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island champion, reached the finals when he knocked off Dr. R. A. MacIntosh of Fredericton, one-up.

In the other semi-final, Mealey defeated John Sears of Fredericton, three and one. Mealey, the darkhorse of the tournament, scored a major upset in the quarter-finals when he defeated Joe Streeter of Saint John, N. B. Riverside, three and one.

Harley defeated Bill Hutchinson of Riverside six and five in his quarter-final match. In the other quarter-finals Dr. MacIntosh defeated R. H. Bagnell of Fredericton, one up, and Sears downed Adrien Knight of Aroostock, N.B on the 19.

In a continuation of a match halted by rain Tuesday, Sears defeated Lt.-Col. J. G. Lamb of Ottawa, one-up.

First Open Final Decided In Junior Tennis Play

OTTAWA (CP)—The first open final was decided Wednesday and play reached the final round in three other events at the Canadian junior tennis championships.

Warren Daene of Shaker Heights Ohio, found the clay courts of the Rideau Lkwn Tennis club to his liking as he defeated Fred Drilling of Hamtramck, Mich., 4-6, 6-4, 6-2 to win the open juvenile boy's singles.

Three championships will be decided today and play should reach the quarter-final or semi-final stage in the other two open classes.

FAVORITES PROGRESS

The top Canadian and American seeded players continued to breeze along as close to 100 matches were run off.

Eleanor Dodge of Montreal and Phyllis Saganski of Hamtramck Mich., reached the finals of the open junior women's singles with well-earned victories in the semi-finals.

Miss Dodge, the No. 1 Canadian, defeated Georgette Delacretaz of Cornwal, Ont., 6-1, 6-3 while Miss Saganski downed the second-seeded Canadian, Ann Barclay of Vancouver, 7-5, 9-7 in one of the day's closest matches.

GODBOUT ADVANCES

Francois Godbout of Quebec City upset the No. 3 foreign seeded player, Gerald Dubie of Hamtramck, 7-5, 6-3, to enter the semi-finals of the junior men's singles with Smith Chapman of Montreal and top-seeded American David Breckner of Baltimore. The other semi-finalist will be decided today.

Two Americans from Hamtramck, Gerald Dubie and Ray Senkowski, will meet today in the finals of the open boy's singles.

Virginnia Hesse of Hamtramck will be out to retain her open juvenile girl's singles championships today when she takes on Judy Heldman, also of Hamtramck, in the final.

Play reached the quarter-final stage in the boy's and girl's doubles and also the junior men's doubles.

Boston, Detroit, Giants Garner Wins Yesterday

BOSTON, (AP) — The resilient Boston Red Sox cut the New York Yankees' American League lead to 1 game Wednesday night with a 7-1 victory on Ike Delock's five-hit pitching and stand-up triples by Grady Hatton and Jim Piersall which opened the gates for a five-run inning.

The triumph stopped a Yank winning streak at seven games and chopped their lead to one game over the idle Chicago White Sox. Boston's win pulled them back within 3 1-2 games of first place.

DETROIT, (AP)—Detroit Tigers, led by outfielders Al Kaline and Bill Tuttle, punished Cleveland's crumbling pitching staff for 14 hits Wednesday and handed the Indians their third straight loss, 9-5.

Kaline and Tuttle collected three hits apiece.

Of four Cleveland pitchers, only Art Houtteman, who worked the eighth inning, escaped untouched.

The Tigers clubbed starter Bob Lemon for six hits and five runs in three innings, and continued to hammer away at Bob Feller and Ray Narleski.

Kaline, the league's top hitter since early in the season, pushed his average to an even .350 with a pair of singles and a two-run triple. Frank House chipped in with his 11th homer.

Larry Doby, Bobby Avila and Gene Woodling hit home runs for the Tribe, but all came with the bases empty.

Babe Birrer, who replaced starter Jim Bunning in the fifth, gained the victory.

NEW YORK (AP)—Young Ramon Monzant, in his second major league season, hurled his first complete game Wednesday night, limiting Brooklyn Dodgers to eight hits and striking out eight as New York Giants won 5-1 for their second straight triumph over the National League leaders.

Willie Mays, who had a triple, two singles and a walk, figured in all of the New York runs as rookie Roger Craig took his third defeat against the same number of victories.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pitcher Roy Face gave up three runs to Philadelphia Phillies in the first inning Wednesday night, then settled down to pitch great ball. His Pittsburgh Pirate mates backed him with a 16-hit attack which gave the Pirates a 6-4 victory.

Phillies' star outfielder Richie Ashburn had to leave the game in the second inning. He pulled a back muscle trying to beat out a hit.

LIVERPOOL, N. S. (CP) — A scheduled Halifax an District baseball doubleheader between Kentville Wildcats and Liverpool Larrupers was rained out Wednesday.

STELLARTON, N. S. (CP)— Halifax Cardinals bunched all their runs in the first two innings here Wednesday night to edge Stellarton Albions 3-2 in a Halifax and District ball game.

Winner Harley Fatsinger gave up eight hits. Lefty Jim Kennedy was the loser although he yielded only six hits.

TRURO (CP)—Successive home runs by Bob Scariato and Colin Gracie gave Dartmouth Arrows a 3-2 victory over Truro Bearcats here Wednesday night in a Halifax and District senior ball game.

Scariato's booming circuit clout came in the fifth inning and Gracie's in the sixth. Truro's Charlie Sticka got one in the second inning. Bob Corcoran was the winner on a six-hit performance. The Arrows got to loser George Payer for nine hits.

Terry Sawchuk Receives U.S. Army Draft Notice

WINNIPEG (CP) — Goalkeeper Terry Sawchuk may be wearing a United States Army uniform next year instead of a Boston Bruins hockey sweater.

Sawchuk, 25, of Winnipeg was traded to the Bruins about two months ago by Detroit Red Wings. He captured the Vezina Trophy last season while playing goal for the Stanley Cup-winning Wings and was a five-time member of the National Hockey League all-star team.

He said Wednesday he recently received a U.S. draft board form to fill out, but he tore it up, believing it a mistake as he was still a Canadian citizen. The same thing happened to a second form he received. When a third form arrived, Sawchuk visited the U.S. consul here.

They both agreed it was no mistake. If Sawchuk is to make his living in the U.S. he becomes subject to its draft laws. He apparently can escape the draft laws by remaining in Canada.

Sawchuk is eligible for draft until he reaches his 26th birthday because he earns his living in the United States.

If the goalie is to be drafted, the U.S. draft board has until Dec. 28 to induct him. His 26th birthday falls on that date.

Sawchuk was unavailable for further comment. He left Wednesday for two weeks' holiday in Manitoba's Whiteshell forest reserve.

Clarence Campbell, president of the NHL, said in Montreal the general subject of the draft was discussed earlier with U.S. authorities.

Campbell said the Winnipeg report is the first he heard of the Sawchuk matter, which he described as "obviously still in the preliminary stages. Just because a man receives a draft board form doesn't mean he will be called up.

"No favors will be asked for any of our players," Campbell said.

Satterfield Wins Decision

CHICAGO, (AP) —Bob Satterfield, giving up 32 pounds in weight and a half foot in height, blasted giant Nino Valdes to the floor in a savage last round Wednesday night but could not keep the Cuban there and settled for a unanimous 10-round decision.

Satterfield weighed 183, Valdes 215.
