St. Louis Cardinals Lead National League After 5-2 Win Over Braves

Six-hit pitching by rookie right-hander Tommy Poholsky put St. Louis Cardinals atop the National League today.

The 5-2 victory last night broke the Cards' first-place tie with the Braves. Stan Musial and Steve Bilko each homered to ruin Boston's 1951 floodlight inaugural. Johnny Sain got off to a wobbly start for the Braves by issuing a pair of walks and a double to Joe Garagiola, good for two runs in his first inning. Bilko four-bagger came in the fourth and Musial's in the sixth after Sain walked Cnos Slauter.

Alvin Dark's grand-slam home run in the sixth inning gave New York Giants a 5-3 victory over Chicago Cubs in another night game. It was the Giants' second straight triumph after 11 consecutive setbacks.

The game was marked by a clash between the Cubs bench and plate umpire Frank Dascoli. The umpire finally cleared the dugout of all 11 Chicago players in the last of the fourth, leaving only manager Frank Frisch and three coaches. The Cubs had been riding Dascoli after he called a balk on Paul Minner in the third.

In the third National League night contest Robin Roberts survived a five-run eighth inning to chalk up his third pitching victory of the season as Philadelphia Phillies nosed out Cincinnati Reds 6-5. The big blow was Joe Adcock's third homer of the season for the Reds, accounting for three runs.

Del Ennis, paced the Phils 12-11 attack with three hits, including a double. Grant Hamner and Dick Sisler homered, each with a man on base.

Bob Feller Wins

Bob Feller, who couldn't beat Boston Red Sox last season, did last night for Cleveland 7-1 before 53,462 American League fans—the biggest major-league crowd of the season. It was his third straight victory. He held the Sox scoreless until the eighth. Dom DiMaggio spoiled his shutout bid by opening the eighth with a double, taking third on a ground out and scoring on Billy Goodman's fly.

In another American night game St. Louis Browns and Washington Senators were tied 8-8 at the end of eight innings.

Athletics Win

In day games the Philadelphia Athletics' victory famine ended at 10 games as the A's erupted for eight runs in the 11th inning to crush the Detroit Tigers, 9-1.

Pinch-hitter Lou Limmer started the winning rally with a three-run double off starter and loser Disney Trout. Dave Philley, recently acquired from Chicago, climaxed the uprising with a two-run triple.

Carl Scheib started for the A's and had the Tigers blanked until the ninth when he gave way to Hank Wyse as the Tigers tied the score. Wyse checked the Tigers on one hit the rest of the way to pick up his first victory.

In the only other day game in the American League, the New York Yankees opened their first tour of the west with an 8-3 victory over the White Sox in Chicago.

Vito Raschi, with help from Tom Ferrick in the eighth, gained credit for his third triumph of the season against a single setback. The Yanks cuffed Bobby Cain, who beat them four times last year, and two relief pitchers for nine hits, including homers by Yogi Berra and Mickey Mantle.

The Pittsburgh Pirates turned back the Brooklyn Dodgers, 6-2, in the National League's only day activity. Lefty Cliff Chambers limited the Dodgers to six hits while his mates clubbed out 15 off four Dodger pitchers.

Ralph Kiner started the Pirates rolling with a two-run homer in the first inning off Evr Falca.

Doe Reported Alive On St. Peter's Island

The doe deer, imported into the Province from the Ontario Government last fall, is alive and in good shape on St. Peter's Island, it has been learned from a Guardian correspondent in Nine Mile Creek.

The correspondent states that she received the information about the doe from men who are hauling hay and feed from the island. These men have reported feeding the deer with cabbage recently.

The body of another deer was found on the shore near Nine Mile Creek this spring writes the correspondent. This brings to four the number of deer bodies reported this year already.

British Tennis Tournery Underway

BOURNEMOUTH, May 1 (AP)—Doris Hart, the Jacksonville, Fla. blonde who is seeking her seventh straight tournament championship abroad, reached the third round of the British hard courts tennis championships today.

The willowy Floridian, ranked second in the United States, easily eliminated Mrs. Peggy Dawson-Swit of England, 6-2, 6-0.

Two other American entrants, Beverly Baker and Shirley Fry, moved up with Miss Hart. Miss Baker, fourth-ranking American from Beverly Hills, Calif., eliminated Sheila Speight of England, 6-3, 6-3. Miss Fry of Akron, O., who is rated No. 8 in the U. S., ousted Susan Partridge, one of Britain's best youngsters, 6-2, 6-2.

The men's play was highlighted by the five-set victory of Henri Cochet, the French Davis Cup star of the golden twenties. The famous French veteran was forced to go two hours and 40 minutes to defeat Leon Norgarb, a young South African unknown, 8-6, 6-1, 1-6, 9-11, 7-5.

Cochet's triumph moved him into the fourth round, along with Felicimo Ampon of the Philippines. The favored Jaroslav Drobný gained the third round along with his teammate, Vladimir Cernik.

Tennis Ch'ships May Be At Windsor, Ont.

EDMONTON, May 1 (CP)—The 1951 Canadian tennis championships probably will be held in Windsor, Ont., Jim McAvity of Montreal, president of the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association, said last night.

McAvity reported that three members of Canada's 1950 Davis Cup team will leave for England May 25 to compete in four tournaments, including the Wimbledon. The players are Brendon Macken, national singles champion, Lorne Main of Vancouver and Henry Rochon of Montreal.

Two Big Bouts Lined Up If Joe Louis Wins Tonight

DETROIT, May 1 (AP) — If Joe Louis gobbles his Cuban opponent, Omelio Agramonte, here tomorrow in a fight-for-peanuts, the International Boxing Club plans to match the old former heavyweight champ in two summertime, big-dough shows.

Nick Londres, I.B.C. promoter, said he hopes to pair off Louis and Lee Savold in Briggs Stadium here in June or July, and heavyweight king Ezzard Charles outdoors in September, possibly in Chicago.

Jim Norris, I.B.C. president, has a Thursday date with Louis.

Joe says he is "dead serious" about regaining the crown from Charles, something he failed to do last September after a series of "comeback" bouts with the likes of Agramonte. Charles picked up the crown by whipping Joe Walcott in 1949 after Louis voluntarily abandoned it.

The need for ready cash, which Uncle Sam says Joe owes in a bunch of income taxes, drove Joe back to the ring. So naturally he'll be thinking of Savold and Charles and money, possibly more than Agramonte, Wednesday night.

For one thing, Joe will be fighting for a $6 pot. For another, there's a city-wide strike of bus and streetcar operators, and Londres doesn't expect more than 10,000, even if the weather is good. The fighters will pick up the customary $1,000 each for permitting their fight to be televised. It also will be broadcast.

Louis, who has been training strenuously and is down to about 210 pounds, is a prohibitive favorite. He has defeated Agramonte three times previously, twice in Cuban exhibitions and again in Miami last winter.

Joe DiMaggio On Visit To Hospital

CHICAGO, May 1 (AP) — A backache forced Joe DiMaggio to miss his first game this season and sent him to hospital today for a brief visit.

The 36-year old Yankee Clipper had X-rays taken.

This is the first time the star centerfielder has been sidelined by a back ailment. Spurs on his heels, shoulder injuries and pneumonia have kept him out in previous years.

Chicago Cubs' Players Ejected From Ball Field

NEW YORK, May 1 (AP)—The entire Cubs' bench of 11 players was ejected from the field by umpire Frank Dascoli during the fourth inning of the game between Chicago and New York Giants at the Polo Grounds tonight.

The Cubs dugout had been riding the umpire since the previous inning when he called a balk on pitcher Paul Minner, which advanced Eddie Stanley from second to third and put him in position to score a run for the Giants.

With the first Giant batter, Al Dark, up in the fourth, Dascoli walked to the Chicago bench and with a wave of his hand, ordered them all out of the game.

It is reported that one of the players shouted "Dascoli!"

"You wouldn't have the guts to call it in Brooklyn."

Apparently that remark prompted the umpire's action.

The only members of the club permitted to remain in the dugout were manager Frank Frisch and his coaches, Spud Davis, Roy Johnson and Charley Root. However, the C. had seven players sitting in the visitors' bullpen in left field. They were not included.

It was the second time this year that Dascoli cleared an entire bench. He did it to Philadelphia Athletics during a spring training exhibition game.

Sport Briefs

BOSTON, May 1 (AP) — Marty Marion, St. Louis Cardinal manager, was stricken last night with influenza and ordered to bed for at least 24 hours.

PARIS, April 30 (AP) — Laurent Dauthuille, French welterweight king, knocked out Bobby Dawson of New York after one minute and 28 seconds of the first round tonight. The bout was scheduled for 10 rounds. Dauthuille weighed 160, Dawson 157.

NELSON, B. C., May 1 (CP)—The Western International Senior Hockey League may fold next season unless a wealthy benefactor can be found. Two clubs in the league—Nelson Maple Leafs and Kimberley Dynamiters—hope the benefactor will be Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company at nearby Trail.

BOSTON, April 30 (AP) — Gene (Silent) Halstrom, deaf mute New York middleweight, knocked out Paul Pender of Brookline, Mass., in 2:55 of the third round of their scheduled 10-round feature boxing bout tonight at the Boston Garden. Halstrom weighed 165 and Pender 163. A crowd of 9,235 paid a gate of $24,965.
