In re James Alexander McCallum and William Muir McCallum, Insolvent Debtors.

WHEREAS, at a meeting of the creditors of the said Insolvent Debtors', held on the seventh day of July, instant, the application of the said Insolvent Debtors' was dismissed for want of their appearance. And, whereas, James Alexander McCallum, one of the said Insolvent Debtors', did this day appear in open Court, and did file an affidavit setting forth good and sufficient reasons why no appearance was made, and did move for a Rule nisi to show cause why the entry in the Records of this Honorable Court for dismissal of their application for relief, for the reason above stated, should not be erased and cancelled; and why the application of the said Insolvent Debtors' should not be heard upon its merits. It was ordered, that a meeting of the said creditors of the said Insolvent Debtors', be held in the Court House, in Charlottetown, on Tuesday, the Third day of August next, at noon, for the purposes aforesaid, unless cause to the contrary be shown by any of the said creditoos on that day.

Dated the 8th day of July, A. D. 1869.
