

Winter Carnival '77

ARM WRESTLING COMPETITION

As part of UPEI's Winter Carnival '77 on Fashion Frolic, and Foam Friday, the Winter Carnival will present our first ARM Wrestling Competition.

This event will take place following the chugging contest in the gymnasium. Women contestants are welcome.

Weight classes for the competition are as follows:

- 0-135 lbs.
- 135-155 lbs.
- 156- 175 lbs.
- 175-195 lbs.
- 196-up lbs.

The actual competition will be directed under the "Carling O'Keefe World Wristwrestling Championship Rules" which are as follows.

Contest should be performed on a table 43" to 45" high.

Contestants, facing each other, grasp the base of each others thumb, with wrists exactly perpendicular.

The left hand will grasp the peg.

The referee will place the wrists and forearms in an upright position an equal distance from each contestants shoulders.

The signal to start is 2 count- ready- go-.

Elbows must remain static withing the liner marked on table.

Default consits of failing to keep your elbow withing the lines or losing grasp of the peg.

One default constitutes a defeat (judges decision).

One fall determines a winner.

A winner is declared when one contestants arm in forced to tough the "gotcha" bar.

This event should prove to be the most exciting and enjoyable event for both contestants and spectators so try to keep Friday, Feb. 11th, at approx. 4 PM open.

Entry forms available from Marcell Dupuis and S. U. Office.

WINTER CARNIVAL BUTTONS

Winter Carnival Buttons will be on sale at the door of the cafeteria, in room 419 Bernadine, and at the pubs at the Barn Monday through Wednesday. They are only 50¢ and will get you into the disco-pub Wednesday, Feb. 9th. So be sure and get your memento of Winter Carnival '77 when "The Pink Panther Strikes Again!"

Buy Now, Avoid Lineups

PRE-SALE OF TICKETS:

If you want to be sure of getting into a terrible line-up for what seems like hours in the freezing cold, (we hate to keep harping on the Liverpool Affair but why repeat last year's mistakes?) don't pick up your tickets in advance. Any UPEI student with a university I.D. may purchase a ticket at the Student Union Office in the basement of Memorial Hall from Mariella the secretary. The tickets have been on sale since February 1st and they are going fast! If you find it just too much of a hassle to wlk over to Memorial Hall for your ticket, you will miss out on the added benefit of getting into the side door of the Gymnasium if you arrive before 9:30 PM.

WINTER CARNIVAL QUEEN

This year the judging of the Winter Carnival Queen contestants will be kicked off Monday, Feb. 7 with a dinner for the five judges and four girls, donated by the Showboat.

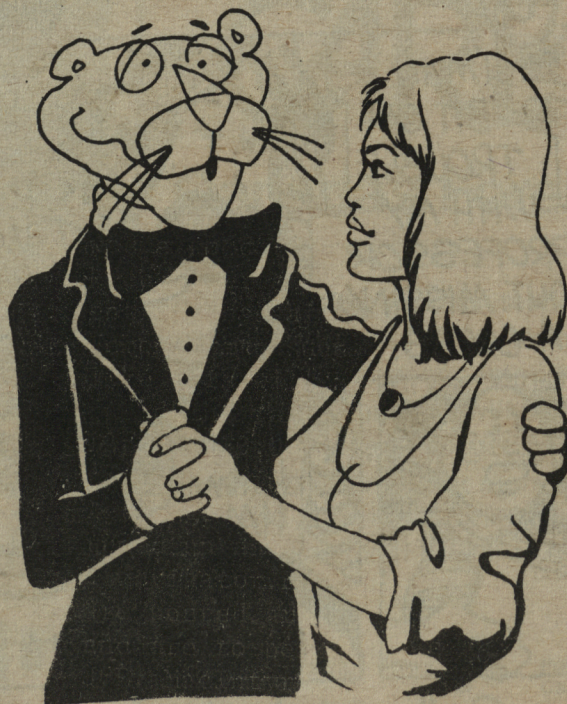

The judges and girls will have a second get together Thursday Feb. 10 at an afternoon tea in Dalton Hall. After this tea the judges will make their final decision, which will be a secret until the Carnival Ball.

The judges have not been picked as yet but we hope to have two students and three other people associated with the university community. The student judges will also be asked to keep track of the participation of the girls in the various events during the carnival.

The Queen will be crowned Sat. Feb. 12, at the Carnival Ball.

Have you asked that special someone to the Carnival Ball

yet?!

SNOW SCULPTURE CONTEST

Applications available at the Student Union office will be passed in by Tuesday Feb. 8th at the Student Union Office.

There will be prizes for the biggest snowman.

Rules:

1. Maximum of eight to one group
2. Location: anywhere on campus

Judging will take place on Saturday Feb. 12th.

For more information contact Betty Brown or Calire Currie-Bernadine.

If there is no snow there will be a shipment of snow imported from Iceland, free of charge.
