USE THE PEN.

BY J. E. CARPENTER.

Use the pen ! there's magic in it.
  Never let it lag behind ;
Write the thought, the pen can win it
  From the chaos of the mind;
Many a gem is lost for ever,
  By a careless passer by,
But the gems of thought should never
  On the mental pathway lie.

Use the pen ! reck not that others
  Take a higher flight than thine;
Many an ocean wave still smothers
  Pearls of price beneath the brine;
But the diver finds the treasure,
  And the gem of light is brought!
So thy minds' unbounded measure
  May give up some pearl of thought.

Use the pen ! the day's departed
  When the sword alone held sway,
Wielded by the lion hearted.
  Strong in battle ! Where are they?
All unknown the deeds of glory,
  Done of old by mighty men—
Save the few who live in story.
  Chronicled by sage's pen.

Use the pen ! the sun above us,
  By whose light the chemist's art
Stamps the forms of those who love us,
  Showing us their counterpart—
Cannot hold so high a power
  As within the pen's enshrined,
When with genius for its dower.
  It daguerreotypes the mind.

Use the pen ! but let it never
  Slander write, with death-black ink!
Let it be thy best endeavour
  But to pen what good men think;
So thy words and thoughts securing
  Honest praise from wisdom's tongue,
May, in time, be as enduring
  As the strains which Homer sung.

VARIETIES.

Smiles.—How often the world mistakes smiles for positive indications of happiness. It looks upon the glittering sunshine dancing upon the surface of the waves and heeds not the deep, dark waters beneath ! Many a fair and laughing face conceals a breaking heart. By-the-bye, some people are inclined to believe there is no such thing as a breaking heart. Mr. Pick does not agree with them; he is confident that hundreds of young creatures go down to the grave, their minds unstrung, their heartstrings riven by the world's neglect and unkindness.

There are many bright and seemingly flourishing rosebuds that bear, concealed amidst their fragrant leaves a hideous worm, a worm that, ceaselessly gnawing night and day, soon ends their lives away.

Thus it is with many, many human hearts; the lips may wear a bright bewitching smile, and yet in the lone bosom lurks the canker-worm whose presence bringeth death.

Aristocracy.—Ten or twenty years ago, this one butchered ; that one made candles ; another one sold butter and cheese ; and a fourth one carried on a distillery; another one was a canal contractor; others were merchants or mechanics.—They were acquainted with both ends of society—as their children will be after them, though it would not do to say it out loud. For often you shall find that these toiling worms hatch butterflies, and they live about a year. In many instances, the father grubs and grows rich; his children strut and use the money; their children inherit their pride and go to shiftless poverty; and their children reinvigorated by fresh plebian blood, and a smell of cold, come up again. Thus society, like a tree, draws its sap from the earth, changes leaves and blossoms, spreads them abroad in great glory, sheds them to the earth again to mix with the soil, and at length to re-appear in new trees and fresh garniture.

Hint.—At a camp-meeting a number of ladies continued standing on the benches, notwithstanding frequent hints from the ministers to sit down. A reverend old gentleman, noted for his good humour, rose and said—I think if those ladies standing on the benches knew they had holes in their stockings, they would sit down. This address had the desired effect—there was an immediate sinking in the seats. A young minister standing behind him, and blushing to the temples, said: 'Oh, brother, how could you say that.' 'Say that,'' said the old gentleman, 'It's a fact ; if they hadn't holes in their stockings, I'd like to know how they could get them on ?

Genius and Mediocrity.—Corneille did not speak correctly the language of which he was such a master. Descartes was silent in mixed society. Themistocles when asked to play on a lute, said, 'I cannot fiddle but I can make a little village into a great city.' Virgil was heavy, colloquially. Addison was unable to converse in company. La Fontaine was coarse and stupid when surrounded by men. The Countess of Pembroke said of Chaucer that his silence was more agreeable to her than his conversation. Socrates, celebrated for his written orations, was so timid that he never ventured to speak in public. Dryden said that he was unfit for company. Hence it has been remarked, "Mediocrity can talk ; it is for genius to observe."

In Fits.—If a person fall in one, let him remain on the ground, provided his face be pale, for should it be fainting or temporary suspension of the heart's action, you may cause death by raising him upright or bleeding ; but if the face be red or dark-coloured, raise him on his seat immediately, and send for a surgeon and get a vein opened, or fatal pressure on the brain may ensue.

The Marriage Relation.—Addison has left on record the following important sentence: "Two persons who have chosen each other out of all the species, with the design to be each other's mutual comfort and entertainment, to be good humoured and affable, with respect to each other's frailties and imperfections.

Water Drinking.—Professor Silliman closed a recent Smithsonian lecture in Washington, by giving the following sensible advice to young, men:—"If, therefore you wish for a clear mind strong muscles, and quiet nerves and long life and power prolonged into old age, permit me to say although I am not giving a temperance lecture, avoid all drinks but water, and mild infusions of that fluid; shun tobacco and opium, and every thing else that disturbs the normal state of the system ; rely upon nutritious food and mild diluent drinks of which water is the basis; and you will need nothing beyond these things except rest, and due moral regulation of all your powers, to give you long, happy and useful lives, and a serene evening at the close.'

The Lover's Grave.—Man celebrates a more beautiful festival for the dead when he dries the tears of others, than when he sheds his own ; and the most beautiful flower and cypress garland which we can hang upon loved monuments, is a fruit garland of good deeds.

MRS. WINSLOW TO THE LADIES.

MRS. WINSLOW, an old an experienced nurse and Female Physician, would call the attention of the Ladies to her Soothing Syrup for childern teething. It will immediately relieve them from pain, allay all spasmodic action, soften the gums, reduce inflammation, and is sure to regulate the Bowels. Depend upon it Mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and relief and health to you, children.

Price, 25 cents per bottle.

We have sold very large quantities of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup during the past six years, several thousand the last year. We believe, it the best medicine in the world for children teething or for the cure of Dysentry and Diarrhea in Children, whether it arises from teething or any other cause. It gives universal satisfaction—never never heard a complaint from any one using it, never sold a medicine so universally successful in relieving pain and effecting cures—relief is a bsolutely sure.

WONDER OF THE WORLD.

Gravel Cured of five years standing.

Messrs. Curtis & Perkins, Bangor, Me.

Gentlemen,—I have been entirely cured of the Gravel, by the us of your Cramp and Pain Killer. I commenced taking the Cramp and Pain Killer in the Spring of 1847. I had been a great sufferer for ten years previous; some four or five years of the time I suffered beyond all my powers to describe.

During this time, I have had medical aid, and tried various spe- cifics, but found very little relief until I obtained your Cramp and Pain Killer. In one month after I commenced using it, I began to grow better. I continued to use it for a year, all the time improving until I was entirely cured. Miles Staples.

Prospect. Me., Jan. 29, 1851.

We, the undersigned, are well acquainted with the above case, and certify to the above statement of facts.

Charles Clifford,
Hannah Clifford,
Stanton Ellis.

Doctor Toby, a regular practising Physician, of East Machias, writes us under date of March20, 1847:

"Please send me half a gallon of your Cramp and Pain Killer—it is the best medicine to cure what it is represented to, that I everused."

The Doctor first made use of it in his own case, for a severe sprain in the shoulder, caused by the upsetting of a stage, and found immediate relief, and since has used it in his practice.

Read the following. It speaks for itself.

RHEUMATISM CURED.

I certify, that I was afflicted with a violent Rheumatic pain in the small of my back, which entirely disabled me, so that I could not get up without the greatest pain and effort; nor could I walk without a cane, and but very little with. I applied Doctor Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, or Liquid Opodeldoc, and several other remedies, without any relief. After suffering in this way about a week, I purchased a bottle of Cramp and Pain Killer, prepared by Curtis & Perkins, Bangor, and after three applications was entirely relieved and free from pain, and am now entirely well. I also cured a friend of mine, who had been suffering for a long time with a lame side, with the same bottle. I believe it the best medicine in the world, and am happy to add my testimony in its favor

Improvement of HASZARD'S GAZETTE.

TWICE A WEEK ! IMPORTANT TO TOWN and COUNTRY SUBSCRIBERS

THE management of the Newspaper which, for the last 30 years, has been successfully conducted by J. D. Haszard, Esq., is now transferred to the Subscriber, who will assume all the responsibilities thereof after the publication of the present number.

The circulation of Haszard's Gazette is, at present, and has always been, greater than that of any other newspaper in this Colony; and—availing himself of some of the greatest recent improvements which have been made in the art and machinery of the Printer,—its new proprietor and publisher hopes he shall be able still to secure for it the first place in the public estimation.

To this end, he has, at a considerable outlay, purchased a Power Press; and, on his premises, made the alterations and additions which were requisite for its proper erection. About the beginning of February, he expects to have it in perfect working order; and—that being accomplished—he will, afterwards, issue Haszard's Gazette TWICE a week, of the same size as that in which it is at present published, and, to Subscribers, at the same price. The advantages which, from this liberal arrangement, will accrue to Subscribers and Advertisers, are so apparent, that they require no comment, and a due appreciation of it, by the public, will, it is hoped, appear in the increased patronage bestowed upon the Paper.

The Editorial Department will be entrusted to the management of a gentleman, whose ability and experience as a writer for the newspaper press, combined with the liberality and moderation of his political sentiments, are such as to afford a good guarantee for the future utility and popularity of the Paper.

By copious extracts from English Papers ; by approved and well-written Tales; by articles on Agriculture and Gardening, so timed as to have direct relation to the immediate objects of the farmer's skill and labor; by moral and religious matter, free from sectarian bias; and by comprehensive notices of Social and Political Reformations, now happily in progress amongst all the civilized nations of the earth, there will always be manifest in the management of Haszard's Gazette, an earnest desire to provide valuable and acceptable instruction and entertainment for all classes amongst its readers.

And, further,—that the patrons of Haszard's Gazette may be duly apprised of all Public Notices proceeding from the Government,—they will regularly appear in it—gratuitously published—under one general head.

For the transmission of Important News, by means of the Electric Telegraph, the subscriber has also made arrangements with Correspondents in Halifax, St. John, and Boston.

Communications directly bearing on the general interests and well-being of the community, will always be thankfully received.

Never Failing Remedy !

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A CRIPPLE SETS ASIDE HIS CRUTCHES AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About 10 years ago, Mr. W. Cummins, of Saltney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries; he had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his hip, which so completely crippled him, that he could not move without crutches for nearly 10 years; recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigor. (Signed) J. THOMPSON.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE, WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Hird, Draper, of Keady, near Gainsbro', dated March 1st, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, the effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines, she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer.

(Signed) J. HIRD, Draper.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF ULCERATED BAD LEGS, DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL HEALTH.

Copy of a Letter, from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, dated September 20th, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibbon, of 31, Bailey Street, in this town, to inform you, that for a considerable period she had been a sufferer from debility, and general ill health, accompanied by a disordered stomach, and great derangement of the system. In addition to this, she was terribly afflicted with ulcerated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally incapable of doing her usual work. In this distressing condition she adopted the use of your Pills and Ointment, and she states that in a wonderful short time, they effected a perfect cure of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength; and that she is now enabled to walk about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extraordinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

I remain dear Sir, yours faithfully,

(Signed) JOHN MORTON CLENNELL.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS—AND AN ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG.

Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker and Co., Chemists, Bath.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years, and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies; her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above 70 years of age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise. We remain, Dear Sir,

Your's faithfully,

(Signed) WALKER & Co.
