

THE EASTERN GUARDIAN

AGENTS—MONTAGUE: Harold F. Landry, Mrs. Byron Stewart, Mrs. Bruce MacPhee, Miss Joyce Wigginton, Miss Joan Johnston. AGENT GEORGETOWN: Waldon Lavers.

The Guardian may be bought at the following places in Montague: Blue Dome Restaurant, and Guardian Office; in Georgetown: The Post Office; in Souris: The Snack Bar and H. Richards & Son.

CHILD HEALTH CONFERENCE, Souris, Friday, August 17th.

Mrs. Lemuel Hicken, Pembroke, was a recent visitor to Montague, guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Richard Llewellyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shanno and young son of Saint John, N.B. were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Clow, Montague.

ASTRAL REFRIGERATORS, $179.95. Also standard size Kelvinators, at Stewart and Beck.

Mrs. Horace Hyde, Murray Harbour, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur MacNeil, Montague.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Myers and their three children of Medford, Mass., are guests at Lane's cabins, Montague. They are also being entertained at the home of Mrs. Myers' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Myers, Montague.

Miss Selma Llewellyn, Halifax, spent the weekend in Montague, guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. B. Lucas and Mr. Lucas.

Miss M. Feehan, Mount Stewart, spent a few days in Montague, guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Collings.

Mr. Stewart Vickers, Halifax, N.S., spent the week-end in Montague, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Stewart.

Mr. Norman Nicholson, Summerside, spent a few days in Montague with his mother, Mrs. Harold Nicholson.

Miss Verna Johnston, Murray Harbour North, is spending a few days in Montague, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Currie, Charlottetown, spent the week-end in Montague, guests of Mrs. Currie's mother, Mrs. J. W. Caruthers.

Miss Marjorie Clarey, Whim Road, is spending several days in Montague with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Allen.

Mr. John Clarey, Whim Road, is spending several days in Sturgeon with Mr. William Johnston.

Mr. Gerald Murphy, R.C.N., Victoria, B.C., is spending a thirty days leave in Montague at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Murphy.

Rev. F. N. Young, Mrs. Young and son have returned from Camp Keir, French River, where Mr. Young was director of the Presbyterian Boys' Camp.

Mrs. Charlotte Beaton and her daughter, Anna, returned to Toronto.

Mr. John J. Somers, St. Georges, was in Charlottetown recently shipping two registered cows to N. B. They were from the same dam whose "hogs" received honours in the swine show at last year's Royal Winter Fair in the Brethour Challenge Trophy competition.

Her friends are sorry to learn that Mrs. William VanDerstine, Montague, is ill at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. George MacKenzie and son George of Roxbury, Mass., returned to their home after spending several weeks vacation at the home of Mrs. MacKenzie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kennedy, Murray Harbour North.

A dance held at the Whim Road hall Thursday night was very well attended. Lunches were provided by the Women's Institute members. Messrs. Archie Stewart, Leslie Stuart and Emerson O'Connor provided the music for dancing.

Miss Anna MacLaren, Montague, was a recent visitor to Murray Harbour North.

Miss Faye MacInnis, Murray River, is vacationing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard MacLure.

Miss Lulu Graham, Montague, is vacationing at Gaspereaux, with her parents Mr. and Mrs. William Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Condon had as their guests recently, Mrs. Basil MacLeod and three children of Stellarton, N. S.

Mr. Stuart Reid, R.C.N., who is stationed at Shearwater, Dartmouth, was a recent visitor to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Graham, and young daughter, Carol are now residing in New Glasgow, N. S., where Mr. Graham has obtained employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward MacPhee, New Glasgow, N. S., were recent visitors to Murray Harbour North, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Craswell.

Mr. and Mrs. Fanny Fisher, Boston, Mass., and Mrs. Reuben Machon, who has been residing in Boston for several months, are visiting at Murray Harbour North, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Senebaugh.

Messrs. James MacLure and Garmes Reid have recently been employed in hauling quahaugs for Mr. Wendell Graham's factory in Gaspereaux. They have made several trips to Yegucan, N. B., and were accompanied by Mrs. James MacLure on one of their recent trips.

Mrs. John Pouhy, Somerville, Mass., and family are holidaying in Little Pond, Montague, recently.

Miss Madeline MacCormac, Boston, Mass., is spending the summer months with her brother, Mr. Nell MacCormac.

Miss Kathleen MacDonald, formerly of Little Pond, is visiting her father and other members of the family.

Mrs. Matilda Dingwell has returned from P. E. Island Hospital where she was receiving treatment.

Miss Lorraine Roach, Glenfanning was a welcome visitor to Little Pond last week.

Mr. John MacIntyre, District Attorney, Attleboro, Mass., accompanied by his wife and two sons visited Little Pond recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hurley and son, Albert Junior, Montreal, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacDonald, Cape Spry.

Miss Rosalie MacDonald, Charlottetown spent several days at her home in Little Pond last week.

Messrs Robert and Gene MacDonald have returned to Hamilton, Ont., after spending their vacation at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Vincent MacDonald.

Messrs Clement George and Norbert MacDonald arrived last week by car from Hamilton, Ont., and are spending their holidays at their respective homes in Howe Bay and Little Pond.

Mrs. Chas. S. MacDonald has returned to her home in Little Pond. Mrs. MacDonald was a patient in Charlottetown Hospital and her many friends are pleased she is much improved in health.

Miss Mary C. Macdonald, New York is the welcome guest of her sister, Mrs. Alex Fisher, Bay Fortune, and brother J. Raymond MacDonald, Howe Bay.

Mrs. Margaret Jenkins accompanied by her daughter Mrs. Stavert and two children, Charlottetown, are spending their holidays at their former home in Annandale.

A large crowd patronized the chicken supper, despite the rain, which was held in Little Pond Hall Wednesday evening sponsored by C. W. L.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Francis, also Mrs. Molly Brooks are spending their annual holiday at their summer home in Annandale and are being warmly welcomed.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. MacDonald

Georgetown and Vicinity

Mrs. N. W. Hansen was a visitor to the City recently.

Mr. A. E. Jenkins was a recent business visitor to Charlottetown.

Mrs. J. A. B. MacConnell was a visitor to Charlottetown recently.

Master Billy Miller of East Royalty is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. L. H. Douglas.

Miss Helen Goteil of Charlottetown spent the weekend in Georgetown the guest of relatives.

Miss Martha King of Amherst, N.S., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel King.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Collings of Lower Montague motored to Georgetown recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boudreault of Newport were visitors to Georgetown recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wright of Lower Montague visited friends and relatives in Georgetown recently.

Miss Mary Roach, student nurse at the Prince County Hospital in Summerside, is visiting her home in Georgetown.

Mr. Rodney Bruce of Montreal arrived in Georgetown last week, where he joined Mrs. Bruce and family, who are summering here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Fraser of North Lake motored to Georgetown recently, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Walker.

Mr. William Buffett and his daughter, Mrs. Percy O'Hanley, both of Souris, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Walker.

Dr. and Mrs. D. D. Scannell of Jamaica Plains, Mass., arrived in Georgetown a few days ago and are vacationing at their summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman Wight of Boston, Mass., are holidaying in Georgetown, where they are the guests of Mr. Wight's mother, Mrs. William Wight.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Plum and two children, of Ontario, visited Georgetown last week, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hemphill.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Gaudet and daughter Connie, of Charlottetown, were recent guests of friends and relatives in Georgetown.

Mr. Harry MacConnell, employee of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Springfield, visited his home in Georgetown recently.

Miss Marion Morrison, who is employed at Southport, was a weekend guest at the home of her grandfather, Mr. Michael Burke Sr.

Miss Mary Goteil, employee of the Metropolitan Store in Charlottetown, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Goteil, Richmond Street.

Mrs. William Simmonds left recently to return to her home in Sea View, after visiting with her sister-in-law, Mrs. N. W. Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Stewart, who have been holidaying at their summer home on Water Street, left recently for their home in New Glasgow, N. S.

Mrs. Harry Craig and little daughter of Boston, Mass., are guests of Mrs. Craig's mother, Mrs. William Wight, and her sister, Mrs. Lawrence Batchelder.

Mr. John Wallace, Canadian National Railway section foreman is at present on his annual holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace left recently on a visit to Montreal.

Rev. Father Howard Wight, Padre in the Royal Canadian Air Force, stationed at Clinton, Ontario, is visiting his mother, Mrs. William White.

Miss Elsie Prosper who is employed at the King's County Memorial Hospital in Montague, spent a recent weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Prosper.

Richard and Cullen DeLory, officer cadets in the Royal Canadian Navy, stationed at H.M.C.S. Sisdacora in Halifax, N.S., spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. DeLory.

Miss Margaret Senebaugh of Jamaica Plains, Mass., is visiting in Georgetown, where she is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. D. D. Scannell. Miss Scannell, a former Georgetownian, has a host of friends who each year welcome her to their midst.

and little daughter left on return to Ontario recently after spending a week in Howe Bay, guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Raymond MacDonald.

FAMOUS FORT SACKVILLE, N. B.—(CP)—About 10,000 persons visited famous Fort Beausejour during the first three months it was open this season. The fort was built by the French in 1751 but was abandoned as a fortification by the British after the war of 1812.

PROUD RELICS YARMOUTH, N. S.—(CP)—Out-moded fire equipment dating from 1840 is the pride and glory of the Yarmouth Fire Department, which keeps it in perfect condition. A horse-drawn steam pumper is one of the show pieces.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Francis, also Mrs. Molly Brooks are spending their annual holiday at their summer home in Annandale and are being warmly welcomed.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. MacDonald

Whim Road And Vicinity

Mr. Kenny MacDonald, Whim Road, is visiting at the home of his grandfather in Lewes.

Mr. Harold King, potato inspector, Montague, recently inspected seed potato fields in the district.

Miss Mary Katherine Munro, Whim Road, has returned home after visiting in Bellevue.

Miss Laurie MacDonald, Killmuir, spent several days in Lower Montague visiting her grandmother, Mrs. D. P. Ross.

Miss Anne Beaton, Toronto, who is vacationing here spent several days at Whim Road renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. Garth Gillis, Forest Hill, is spending several days at Whim Road, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moore.

Mrs. Albert MacDonald and daughters Mary and Thelma, Flat River, were recent visitors to Mr. and Mrs. Norman MacDonald, Whim Road.

Miss Jean Ann Munro, returned to Whim Road after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bears in Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Murdock MacDonald, Whim Road, were recent visitors to Lower Montague, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Robertson.

LAC. Stuart Campbell, R. C. A. F., returned to his base at Clinton, Ont., after spending his leave at Whim Road with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. George MacLeod, Ottawa, are visiting at Whim Road, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Murdock MacDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Todd, and grandson, Raymond Sutton, all of Lawrence, Mass., are spending several weeks at Whim Road, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell, daughter Carolyn, Whim Road, Miss Marjorie Campbell, R. N., of Montague and Mr. Dick Campbell, Commercial Cross, motored to Stanhope recently, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lawson.

Miss Norma Campbell, Charlottetown, recently returned from Fredericton to spend the remainder of her vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Campbell.

Mr. Robert Turnbull, Brooklyn, Mass., spent several days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Norman MacDonald at Whim Road. He was accompanied by his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Kirkpatrick, and their son George, Jr.

Mrs. Colin MacDonald, Killmuir, accompanied by her daughter, Laurie, recently motored to Wood Islands to meet her mother, Mrs. D. P. Ross, who was returning to her home in Lower Montague, after spending several weeks visiting in Sydney.

A number of ladies from Whim Road, Commercial Cross and Killmuir gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Farquharson, Killmuir, for a social evening. Mrs. Percy Myers of Montague, was present to demonstrate a line of products to the guests. A door prize was won by Mrs. George Kirkpatrick, Burpoints of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Moore, Whim Road, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Sorrey, Milltown, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Molyneux, Southport, recently motored to Cavendish where they visited Green Gables and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. O'Brien, life long residents of this vicinity will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next month. Old friends and relatives of half a century ago are expected to attend. Both were born in this vicinity and both were O'Briens before their marriage. Mrs. O'Brien is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is a retired C.N.R. section foreman serving all his time on his home section. They have two daughters and one son whom they expect to attend the celebration. They are all in other parts of the world, the son with the R.C.A.F. in the frozen north-west.

lington, Mass., who is visiting at Whim Road. An enjoyable luncheon was served to all by the hostess, assisted by several of the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Moore, Whim Road, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Sorrey, Milltown, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Molyneux, Southport, recently motored to Cavendish where they visited Green Gables and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. O'Brien, life long residents of this vicinity will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next month. Old friends and relatives of half a century ago are expected to attend. Both were born in this vicinity and both were O'Briens before their marriage. Mrs. O'Brien is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is a retired C.N.R. section foreman serving all his time on his home section. They have two daughters and one son whom they expect to attend the celebration. They are all in other parts of the world, the son with the R.C.A.F. in the frozen north-west.

lington, Mass., who is visiting at Whim Road. An enjoyable luncheon was served to all by the hostess, assisted by several of the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Moore, Whim Road, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Sorrey, Milltown, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Molyneux, Southport, recently motored to Cavendish where they visited Green Gables and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. O'Brien, life long residents of this vicinity will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next month. Old friends and relatives of half a century ago are expected to attend. Both were born in this vicinity and both were O'Briens before their marriage. Mrs. O'Brien is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is a retired C.N.R. section foreman serving all his time on his home section. They have two daughters and one son whom they expect to attend the celebration. They are all in other parts of the world, the son with the R.C.A.F. in the frozen north-west.

lington, Mass., who is visiting at Whim Road. An enjoyable luncheon was served to all by the hostess, assisted by several of the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Moore, Whim Road, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Sorrey, Milltown, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Molyneux, Southport, recently motored to Cavendish where they visited Green Gables and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. O'Brien, life long residents of this vicinity will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next month. Old friends and relatives of half a century ago are expected to attend. Both were born in this vicinity and both were O'Briens before their marriage. Mrs. O'Brien is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is a retired C.N.R. section foreman serving all his time on his home section. They have two daughters and one son whom they expect to attend the celebration. They are all in other parts of the world, the son with the R.C.A.F. in the frozen north-west.

Bristol and Vicinity

A number of cars of valuable pulp wood were loaded here last week.

Miss Imelda Rossiter has taken a position in the Dingwell and Rossiter store replacing Miss Helena Rossiter who has gone on vacation.

Mrs. Vincent Coffin, a bride of a few weeks is being welcomed to this community. Mr. Coffin is at present employed on one of the dredges in Rustico.

Mr. Charlie Deveaux, local pot-mender and repair man for clocks and sewing machines has started out on his rounds through the country again.

Mrs. P. R. Sinnott and Mrs. Margaret Villard are both confined to their homes. Mrs. Sinnott is unable to leave her bed, and although Mrs. Villard is having trouble with her legs she is able to move around.

Miss G. R. Hughes, Arlington, Mass., is expected here this week to spend a vacation with her uncle and cousin, Mr. John T. and Mabel O'Brien. Mrs. Hughes was born in Arlington but is a regular visitor to this Province.

Blueberries and raspberries are reported a complete failure this season. June frost is reported to have killed the blueberries while raspberries were such a heavy crop last year a small yield is found this year. The latter bears every other year.

Word has been received from Lottie Hughes, South Boston, Mass., that she will arrive here soon for her summer vacation. Those looking after her house have it all in readiness for her arrival and report her car will be moved to the garage for a check-up and will be registered before she comes.

Miss Bernice Rodgers of the staff of the Windmill Lodge and Cabins was an overnight guest recently with her friend, Miss Erna MacDonald at the home of Miss MacDonald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew MacDonald. Miss MacDonald and a sister, Bernice, are both employed at the Provincial Sanatorium.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. O'Brien, life long residents of this vicinity will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next month. Old friends and relatives of half a century ago are expected to attend. Both were born in this vicinity and both were O'Briens before their marriage. Mrs. O'Brien is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is a retired C.N.R. section foreman serving all his time on his home section. They have two daughters and one son whom they expect to attend the celebration. They are all in other parts of the world, the son with the R.C.A.F. in the frozen north-west.

lington, Mass., who is visiting at Whim Road. An enjoyable luncheon was served to all by the hostess, assisted by several of the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Moore, Whim Road, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Sorrey, Milltown, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Molyneux, Southport, recently motored to Cavendish where they visited Green Gables and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. O'Brien, life long residents of this vicinity will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next month. Old friends and relatives of half a century ago are expected to attend. Both were born in this vicinity and both were O'Briens before their marriage. Mrs. O'Brien is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is a retired C.N.R. section foreman serving all his time on his home section. They have two daughters and one son whom they expect to attend the celebration. They are all in other parts of the world, the son with the R.C.A.F. in the frozen north-west.

lington, Mass., who is visiting at Whim Road. An enjoyable luncheon was served to all by the hostess, assisted by several of the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Moore, Whim Road, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Sorrey, Milltown, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Molyneux, Southport, recently motored to Cavendish where they visited Green Gables and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. O'Brien, life long residents of this vicinity will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next month. Old friends and relatives of half a century ago are expected to attend. Both were born in this vicinity and both were O'Briens before their marriage. Mrs. O'Brien is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is a retired C.N.R. section foreman serving all his time on his home section. They have two daughters and one son whom they expect to attend the celebration. They are all in other parts of the world, the son with the R.C.A.F. in the frozen north-west.

lington, Mass., who is visiting at Whim Road. An enjoyable luncheon was served to all by the hostess, assisted by several of the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Moore, Whim Road, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Sorrey, Milltown, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Molyneux, Southport, recently motored to Cavendish where they visited Green Gables and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. O'Brien, life long residents of this vicinity will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next month. Old friends and relatives of half a century ago are expected to attend. Both were born in this vicinity and both were O'Briens before their marriage. Mrs. O'Brien is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is a retired C.N.R. section foreman serving all his time on his home section. They have two daughters and one son whom they expect to attend the celebration. They are all in other parts of the world, the son with the R.C.A.F. in the frozen north-west.

lington, Mass., who is visiting at Whim Road. An enjoyable luncheon was served to all by the hostess, assisted by several of the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Moore, Whim Road, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Sorrey, Milltown, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Molyneux, Southport, recently motored to Cavendish where they visited Green Gables and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. O'Brien, life long residents of this vicinity will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next month. Old friends and relatives of half a century ago are expected to attend. Both were born in this vicinity and both were O'Briens before their marriage. Mrs. O'Brien is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is a retired C.N.R. section foreman serving all his time on his home section. They have two daughters and one son whom they expect to attend the celebration. They are all in other parts of the world, the son with the R.C.A.F. in the frozen north-west.

lington, Mass., who is visiting at Whim Road. An enjoyable luncheon was served to all by the hostess, assisted by several of the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Moore, Whim Road, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Sorrey, Milltown, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Molyneux, Southport, recently motored to Cavendish where they visited Green Gables and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. O'Brien, life long residents of this vicinity will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next month. Old friends and relatives of half a century ago are expected to attend. Both were born in this vicinity and both were O'Briens before their marriage. Mrs. O'Brien is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter O'Brien. Mr. O'Brien is a retired C.N.R. section foreman serving all his time on his home section. They have two daughters and one son whom they expect to attend the celebration. They are all in other parts of the world, the son with the R.C.A.F. in the frozen north-west.

lington, Mass., who is visiting at Whim Road. An enjoyable luncheon was served to all by the hostess, assisted by several of the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Moore, Whim Road, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Sorrey, Milltown, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Molyneux, Southport, recently motored to Cavendish where they visited Green Gables and other points of interest.

Murray River and Vicinity

Mrs. James Dewar, Oshawa, Ont., is at present spending a few weeks vacation in Murray River, guest of Mrs. Minnie MacDonald.

Mrs. Minnie MacDonald, Charlottetown, is spending a few weeks in Murray River, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Johnston.

Mr. Nathan Acorn, Glace Bay, N. S., is at present spending a few weeks vacation in Murray River, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Acorn.

Mr. John Murchison, Glen William, has returned to his home after spending some time in New Glasgow, N. S., visiting friends.

Mr. David Johnston, Charlottetown, is spending a few weeks vacation at his home in Murray River, with his grand mother, Mrs. Minnie MacDonald.

Mr. MacDonald Johnston, Charlottetown, is spending a few weeks in Murray River visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James MacInnis, Glen William, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lester MacInnis, and Mr. John D. MacLeod, have returned to their homes after spending a few days in Antigonish, visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. Edwin Acorn, Saint John, N. B., is spending a few days in Glen William, guest of her mother and father-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Acorn and Mr. Acorn.

Mr. John D. MacLeod, Charlottetown, has returned to his home after spending a few days in Glen William, guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Colin MacInnis.

Mrs. Bennie Herring and sister Janette, are at present spending a few weeks in Murray River, guest of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Herring.

Miss Hanna Acorn, Montague, is spending a few days in Glen William, guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Acorn.

ROOM TO LET Only 15 of a cluster of 100 islands which make up the Bermuda group are inhabited.

H. J. MABON OPTOMETRIST Fitting and Supplying Glasses Etc. MONTAGUE, P. E. I. Office Hours: 10 to 12 A. M. 2 to 5 P. M. by appointment. Office Connected with Drug Store.

POULTRY WANTED Buying daily Live or Dressed Poultry EASTERN PACKING CO., LTD. Souris

TO-DAY - Tue. - Wed.

LAUGHS! Paul's the love-shy, gun-shy King of Mugs of a Roaring Era... with the characters who made it roar with laughter! Paul DOUGLAS-PETERS Jean DOUGLAS-PETERS Love That DOUGLAS! It's the Love Story of a Beauty and The