

MR. AND MRS. R. J. Mac INNIS AND ATTENDANTS

Beautiful Double Ring Ceremony Held At Lot 65

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Ann's Church, Lot 65, Saturday August 31st, 1957, when Mary Patricia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McGinn of Lot 65, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Russell Julian MacInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. MacInnis of Earncliffe, P.E.I.

Rev. Mr. L. P. Callaghan, uncle of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony and Rev. Charles MacCarthy celebrated the nuptial mass.

The sanctuary was tastefully decorated with mixed flowers, fern, and violet lights. The guest pews were marked with white bows and florettes of roses.

During the nuptial mass appropriate hymns were sung by Mrs. Amos Callaghan, Mr. Eugene Mooney and Misses Donald and Eta MacDonald.

The bride, given in marriage by her father was lovely in a floor length gown of nylon tulle with lace appliques. The tight fitting bodice was fashioned of nylon with bateau neckline.

Long sleeves tapered over the fingers. Her tulle illusion finger-tip veil was held in place with a crown of iridescent sequins. She carried a white lace covered prayer book topped with a corsage of red roses.

Two sisters of the bride, Miss Marion McGinn as maid of honor and Miss Catherine McGinn as bridesmaid, were gowned identically in waltz-length dresses of red velvet fashioned on princess lines. They wore white feather bands and elbow-length gloves. They carried nosegays of white mums.

Miss Mae MacInnis, niece of the groom as flower girl was attired in red velvet with a white coronet and carried a basket of red and white carnations.

The groom was attended by Mr. Urban MacLellan of Winnipeg as groomsman with Mr. Brendan McGinn and Mr. Richard Wedge as ushers.

Mrs. McGinn, mother of the bride, chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of dusty rose with black accessories. Her corsage was white mums.

The groom's mother was attired in navy crepe dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white mums.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Queen Hotel for eighty guests. The bride's table was decorated with mixed summer flowers and centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mr. James Callaghan, uncle of the bride, capably acted as master of ceremonies. Rev. Charles MacCarthy proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom fittingly responded. Miss Shirley McGinn was in charge of the guest book.

For travelling the bride chose a sheath dress of blue and white silk taffeta with matching duster. She wore blue accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Out of town guests were Mr. Urban MacLellan of Winnipeg, Mr. Louis McGinn of Halifax, and Mrs. MacCormack of Boston, Mass.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

Never wring out glass fiber or acetate taffeta materials after laundering. These fabrics, whether curtains or a fluffy petticoat, should be washed without scrubbing, hung up to drip dry.

COOK'S CORNER

CUCUMBERS SLICED
2 doz. cucumbers
6 small onions
1 qt. vinegar
1 gill olive oil
1 tablespoon celery seed
6 tablespoons salt
Method: Peel cucumbers and slice, also onions. Let stand in salt for 2 hours, then add celery seed, olive oil and mix all together. Bottle in sterilized bottles.

Wife Preservers

When you are freezing meats and poultry or other foods, separate small pieces with a double layer of freezer paper. This method simplifies defrosting, and makes it easier to select as much of the food as you need.

Mrs. James Coldwell, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a light green suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

William Hughes, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Mike Murphy and Frank Shepherd.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN

TRY THE SIMPLE LIFE
Mary Elnau in Listen

In search of better health, many people are turning to the simple life, with simple needs and foods, in this way finding abounding health and vitality. They begin with a change in their food habits, eliminating many stimulating and highly seasoned foods and elaborate cooking. Next they eliminate time-consuming but meaningless habits of entertainment. This allows them time to do the things they really want to do. Gradually they find they are transforming their lives. Life takes on more meaning and interest.

In this type of life, tobacco and alcohol seem superfluous. I myself was overweight and a nervous chain smoker. My health was not good, but I didn't know the cause. When I was complaining to a friend one day she said to me, "I lost fifteen pounds merely by going on a juice diet three days a week."

That day was a Thursday, so Thursday, Friday and Saturday became my "juice" days. I drank fruit juice, vegetable juice and pure spring water, which in itself cleanses the system of poisons. Making up your mind to try this program is the most difficult of the whole process. After a glass of warm water, which I always drink first thing in the morning, I sipped drinking grape juice, a six-ounce glass, for breakfast.

Surprisingly that was all I wanted. An hour later, feeling a little hungry, I had another glass of grape juice. I repeated this every hour. To my amazement, I noticed I wasn't smoking! I tried a cigarette, but it didn't taste right. I didn't need the weed!

One who drinks heavily can find the same escape from liquor. The alcohol doesn't give you the lift you have expected from it. Before you were so low you felt you needed a lift. Now, returning to our natural state of well-being, artificial things such as alcoholic beverages are no longer craved.
