ADJUDICATOR

Continued from page 1 Mayor J. D. Stewart and Mrs. Stewart and the Lieut. Governor's Aide, Lieut. Col. A. W. Rogers and Mrs. Rogers. Regret was expressed that Premier J. Walter Jones was absent from the Province at this time.

At the conclusion of the performance the entire cast gathered on stage and the chairman introduced Mr. Wetmore, who is the Director of Dramatics of the Department of Education of Nova Scotia.

In his kindly and competent manner Mr. Wetmore congratulated the cast on getting all the comedy possible out of the play, and on their good voices and well-planned movements. He pointed out that the performance might have been improved if cues had been picked up faster and the general tempo of the performance increased.

He continued by saying it was the aim of an adjudicator to offer help wherever possible, and of the cast to make their characterizations as believable as possible.

Following his adjudication he named four members of the cast whom he suggested might be kept in mind for acting awards. These were Mrs. M. Birt as "Tessie," J. MacDonald as "Timothy," J. D. McIntyre as "Fred," and D. Mooney as "Slade."

Other members of the enthusiastic cast were J. McLellan as "Kathleen," C. Paquet as "Nora," W. E. Pierce as "Jimmie," M. J. McQuaid as "Patrick," Mrs. C. Campbell as "Daphney," and F. McIntyre as "Yonnie." Two charming little girls whose names were not shown on the program played the parts of Yennie and Yannie.

At the close of the evening the distinguished guests and the members of the play were invited to partake of light refreshments with the Executive of the Festival Association, through the co-operation of the ladies of Parkdale.

While lunch was being served Mrs. Wetmore met with the members of the cast and was able to offer many instructive and encouraging suggestions to them.

Featured between acts were a number of very well received specialties which were as follows: Vocal duets by Mrs. Carrie Madore and Mrs. Florence Grant; vocal solos by Mr. Cyril Gallant and Mr. Marcus Mooney, and instrumental music by the Clifford Peters orchestra. Accompanist for the vocal numbers was Miss Helen Marie McCormack.

The Festival will continue this evening with three entries in the junior class, and the only entry in the senior one-act class.

The junior plays are "The Shock of his Life" and "Stubborn Elf," both by Kinkora Convent pupils, and "The Pampered Pupils," by the Glenaldale School. The senior one act play is "Merry Molly Malone" by the Irishtown Women's Institute.
