

Ambulance Unit Holds Exercises

A successful exercise of No. 21 Field Ambulance was held recently in the vicinity of Montague and emphasis was placed on training unit drivers in convoy and road discipline as well as other phases of Field Ambulance training. Driver training was under the supervision of the unit T.O., Lieut. O. W. Lockyer assisted by CSM. H. L. Archer.

Another scheme is scheduled in the near future at which time the evacuation of battle casualties will be stressed. "Token" casualties will be collected, "treated", and evacuated through a regimental aid post and a casualty clearing station.

A special course in Battle First Aid will be held for all ranks during November. A detailed syllabus will be followed and the course will be conducted every night commencing on Monday, November 3rd followed by an indoor scheme. Examinations will be held on November 17th and 18th and certificates will be awarded to those successful. Capt. W. T. Hooper will be officer in charge of the course and he will be assisted in the lectures and demonstrations by Lt.-Col. J. K. L. Irwin, Capt. A. A. Macvicar, Capt. J. F. McCarville, RSM. E. H. Tombs, RQMS. H. G. Cantwell and Sgt. J. H. Dougal of the I & A Cadre.

Leaves For Course At Camp Borden, Ont.

Officer Cadet Gordon J. Trainor, who is attached to No. 21 Field Ambulance, RCAMC(RF), leaves this morning for Camp Borden, Ontario, to take a six weeks course at the Officer Candidate School there, it was learned last night.

On completion of the course, Officer Cadet Trainor will proceed to Kingston to take a four months course at the Royal Canadian Army Pay Corps School and following completion of the course will be appointed Paymaster of the local Field Ambulance Unit.

Officer Cadet Trainor is on a six months leave of absence from his position as Chief Steward at the Charlottetown Hotel. Mrs. Trainor, the former Velma Howatt, of the Island Telephone Company will visit her parents in Toronto while her husband is on course.

Square Dancing Contest Featured At Trade Fair

In the square dancing contest, featured at the Exhibition grounds last night, top honours went to the Senior Set, led by Dr. J. A. MacMillan and Mrs. J. H. Maloney consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McIsaac, Mr. and Mrs. Boudria and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bradley.

The junior event was won by the group under the leadership of David MacDonald and Naida Rogerson with Allan MacLeod and Ann Cery, Alex Horne and Elizabeth Atkinson, Allan MacKenzie and Connie Rogers. Seven sets participated in the dancing which provided keen competition and deep interest on the part of both contestants and spectators. The judges were Wilbur Trainor, George Andrew.

Considerable interest was manifested particularly by the boys and girls in a number of live animals

TO COLLECT TAX ARREARS—Poll tax arrears are receiving special attention at City Hall this week following the advertisement by the City Clerk, admonishing delinquents to avoid prosecution in the courts by making a prompt settlement. Mr. George Abbott the city collector has no alternative but to take court action, according to J. A. Fullerton, city clerk, "and while we are reluctant to see additional expense accrue to anyone, it has become obvious that many continue to disregard the notice already given." "Mr. Abbott," he said, "is completing the necessary forms to have the defaulters dealt with next week."

POLICE COURT—In the City Police Court before Magistrate K. M. Martin yesterday morning, a man charged with theft from a car parked near the Queen Hotel was remanded until Friday. A resident of Tyrone, found guilty of speeding on Grafton St., was fined $10 and costs or 10 days and a city resident with defective brakes was fined a similar amount. A resident of Belle River, charged with driving a motor vehicle while his faculties were impaired by alcohol, was remanded for a week in custody. A drunk and incapable was sentenced to ten days in jail without option and for a similar offence another was fined $10 or 10 days. On Wednesday a man apprehended near Borden for receiving goods under false pretences by presenting a worthless cheque, was sentenced to two months in jail. The good were recovered.

SERVICES CONTINUE—Another challenging message was delivered last evening by Rev. L. R. Atkinson in the Evangelistic campaign being held in the Baptist Church, continuing in the theme "Christian Discipleship." Mr. Atkinson spoke on a subject "No Room for Neutrality." Rev. George Bell made a stirring presentation of a message in song, a solo "I Dreamed That The Great Judgment Morning Had Dawned." Many attending brought friends as guests. Rev. J. D. Davison, pastor of the church, had charge of the service with Robert A. Crooks continuing as organist, and Royton F. Mufford at the piano. Though there is no meeting this evening, services continue through Sunday and the first part of the coming week.

Persons

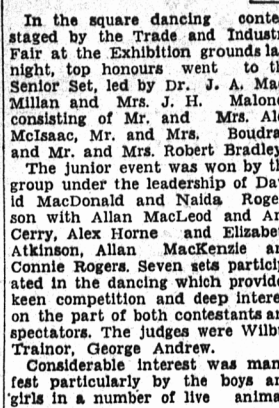

Messrs Henry and Milton Burgoyne, North Granville, were in the city on business yesterday.

Mrs. R. J. MacDonald returned Thursday evening from a pleasant visit with members of her family and other friends in Toronto and Montreal.

Miss Lily Dewar, Charlottetown, returned home this week from Boston, where she spent a very pleasant three weeks visiting with her sister and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Carmody, Central Royalty, received a message yesterday from their son LAC. E. W. Carmody, R.C.A.F., announcing his arrival at the Langar Air base in Nottinghamshire, where a large number of Canadian airmen are located.

Mr. Murray Creed of CBC, Halifax, arrived in the city yesterday evening and is staying with his parents on Malpeque Road. Mr. Keith Morrow, CBC, Toronto, also arrived in the city yesterday evening and is staying with his sister, Mrs. George Johnston, North River Road.

Children At Orphanage Are Entertained

On Thursday evening the Protestant Orphanage was visited by members of the Irwin Christian Fellowship Group of Trinity United Church with the intention of entertaining the kiddies. It was not long however before the kiddies took over and were entertaining their visitors.

The I. C. F. G. commenced the evening's entertainment with Jack Richards acting very capably as Master of Ceremonies and he kept his youthful audience in gay spirits during the evening with his remarks and antics, especially when he demonstrated how a plane would take off from an aircraft carrier. He was forced to take to the air a number of times as the kiddies called for more.

Before the children took over the show a film on Donald Duck was shown by Kelvin Johnston, the pianist for the evening and this was thoroughly enjoyed, as was a film later shown by Jack Richards in manoeuvres of the Magni-
