

ANNEAR—MacDONALD; ANNEAR—SCRIMGEOUR

Lower Montague Sisters in Double Ring Ceremony

A lovely autumn double wedding was solemnized in the United Church, Lower Montague, P. E. I., on Saturday, September 13th, at 2:30 p.m., when the two elder daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Chesapeake Annear were married by Rev. W. Fraser. Shirley Irene was united in marriage with William L. MacDonald of Sydney Mines, and Elaine with Ian Neilson of Mr. L.D. Scrimgeour of Newcastle, N.B. and the late Mrs. Scrimgeour, in an impressive double ring ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with fall flowers arranged in a very colorful and artistic manner by Mr. Howard Annear. The brides were charming in their floor-length gowns of white brocaded taffeta, fitted bodice, pointed neck and long sleeves tapering to a point over the hands. Their hair was styled in soft waves with tulle veils of tulle illusion from a tiny cap of pearls and ribbons. The carried bouquets of white and pink gadioli. They wore pearls, gifts from the groom.

The bride, Shirley, was given away by her father, and the groom by her brother Monty Annear. Shirley was attended by her sister Norma as maid of honor, and Elizabeth Annear, cousin of the bride, as junior bridesmaid. The bridesmaids wore similar dresses of seafoam green. They carried white accessories and carried nosegays of yellow gladioli.

The happy couples received many telegrams expressing good wishes, which were read at the reception. Misses Eileen and Marilyn Annear were in charge of the guest books. Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald left on a motor trip through Gaspé and other points of interest. For travelling the bride chose a suit of aqua linen with beige accessories and a corsage of tulleman roses. On return from their honeymoon the young couple will take up residence in Glace Bay, C.B. where Mr. MacDonald is on the official staff of the Dominion Coal Company, Limited.

Mr. and Mrs. Scrimgeour left for a trip through New Brunswick and will reside in Fredericton, where the groom is a student of engineering at the University of New Brunswick. For travelling the bride chose a suit of rose linen with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Prior to their marriage both brides were honoured with showers in Lower Montague, Charlottetown and Edmonton.

Many of the guests present were from Charlottetown, Souris, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and the United States. Mrs. Ewen Lamont invited the members to her home in Charlottetown if roads are good for next meeting. Meeting adjourned and a dainty lunch was served by hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Thompson and Mrs. Dan McPhee. A sale of cotton took place with Mrs. Duncan McIntosh as auctioneer. $4.80 was realized.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Trinity United Church MacKenzie Hall, Lower Montague. Receiving with the bride and groom were the parents of the brides and grooms. The brides' mothers chose a dress of beige lace over taffeta, with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. MacDonald wore beige lace over silk tulle, dusky rose accessories, a corsage of yellow roses, and wore a grey cape. Mrs. Scrimgeour wore a dress of navy pink tulle with navy accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. D. Scrimgeour, mother of the second

SEVEN MILE BAY C.W.L.

St. Peter's sub-division of the C.W.L. met in the baby room of the church on Tuesday evening, October 21st, for their monthly meeting with an attendance of 17 members. In the absence of the Rev. Director, the president, Mrs. Jas. Murphy opened the meeting with the League Prayer. There was no meeting in September. The minutes of August meeting were read and approved. Correspondence was read from Mrs. Basil McDonald, corresponding secretary, also convention report. The Treasurer gave her report and presented a bill of $38.37 for items purchased to provide lunches for church dedication. This bill was carried over till next meeting.

Different conveners were heard from. Mrs. Layton Green was appointed Social Welfare Convener instead of Red Cross. It was moved by Mrs. Robert Carmichael and seconded by Mrs. Walter Noonan that we pay balance due on Sanctuary carpet. Discussion took place on working for our Catholic Welfare of Prince County and was decided to keep a box in the vestry for donations to be packed at the next meeting.

Collection was taken. Meeting closed with Act of Consecration to the B.V. Mary by the President.

SPRINGTON W.I.

The Springton W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Duncan McIntosh on October 1st. The meeting opened with the president, Mrs. Ralph Thompson in the chair, by singing the Ode and repeating the Mary Stewart collect in unison. Minutes of last meeting were read, approved and signed, roll call was responded to by seven members. One visitor was present. Correspondence was read. It was moved and seconded to send $2.00 to the cancer fund and league of Mercy tea. A discussion on getting the First Aid Kit followed.

Mrs. Herbert Thompson was asked to attend to this. A pantry sale is to be held at Ellis Bros., Hunter River. It was moved and seconded that all bills be paid. Motion carried. There was $1.95 paid on cards. $4.76 on socks $13.00 on premium blankets, and a donation of $2.36. Collection amounted to 50 cents.

Mrs. Ewen Lamont invited the members to her home in Charlottetown if roads are good for next meeting. Meeting adjourned and a dainty lunch was served by hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Thompson and Mrs. Dan McPhee. A sale of cotton took place with Mrs. Duncan McIntosh as auctioneer. $4.80 was realized.

Bulger on Tuesday, November 18th. The meeting adjourned followed by the Rev. director's blessing and the act of consecration. A delicious lunch was served by hostess and refreshment committee.

CONFIDENTIALLY YOURS

—by Byrne Hope Sanders MONTREAL, Oct. 30th—Resolved to give my family really interesting meals this winter—without breaking the bank. That's why I'm delighted with ROYAL INSTANT PUDDINGS. Creamy-smooth, delicious and very easy on the budget! You see, they're the puddings you can make with inexpensive, calorie-low skim milk. You'll see from the instruction on the Royal Instant package that you can use skim milk in either liquid or powder form. Royal Instant Puddings turn out perfectly either way, every time. Add skim milk to any of the seven Royal Instant Pudding flavours for delicious, decidedly interesting Desserts!

IT'S A PLEASURE MA'AM... to share such a wonderful recipe as this, with you—another taste-delight made with BORDEN'S EAGLE BRAND Sweetened Condensed Milk. I know you'll find it a pleasure when you make them! Rainbow Chees Blend 2/3 cup (half 15 oz. can) Eagle Brand Sweetened Condensed Milk, 1/2 cup each of finely chopped raisins, coconut, finely chopped nuts, and chopped cherries; also 1/4 lb. marshmallows, quartered, 1 cup Graham Water crumbs and 1 tsp. lemon juice. Shape in round balls and roll in additional 1/4 cup of Graham Water crumbs. Makes 2 1/2 doz.

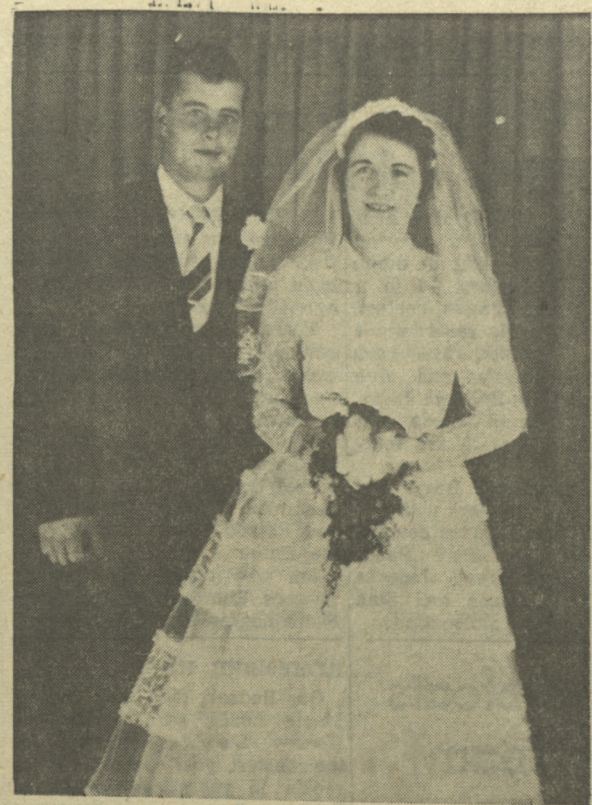

MAKE THOSE LONG-DELAYED HOME IMPROVEMENTS... and save money! At this time of year, with construction activity slackening, it's easier to find skilled workmen to turn those plans for indoor home improvements into a practical reality. Yes, and you can save money by paying for the labour and materials all at once with an inexpensive BANK OF MONTREAL Home Improvement Loan. You can repay your loan in equal monthly instalments, plus interest at only 6% per annum. SOME PREFER CHEESE SLICES... and others prefer cheese spread—but all of us enjoy a true, velvety cheese flavor. Seems to me you can't beat MAPLE LEAF PROCESS CHEESE either in slices, or spread. It's made with an exclusive, new process, "Flav-arrest", which locks in the zesty cheddar flavor. You'll find a host of uses for Maple Leaf Processed Cheese—I enjoy it with fruit, for one thing. Ideal for sandwiches—or for new flavor with potatoes; rice; cauliflower. In slices, interleaved and vacuum-packed, and in 1/2 lb. cartons. Also you'll relish delicious Ched-R-Spread in re-usable tumblers and refrigerator jars.

IS YOUR BABY READY FOR WINTER? He'll glow through the chilliest weather if you keep him healthy (now and later) with one of the four famous FARMER'S WIFE Infant Formula Milks, in the easy-opening cans. Ask your doctor which one of the four is exactly right for your baby—Whole Milk, Skimmed Milk or the Partly Skimmed Milk. Ask him, too, about the new Farmer's Wife PREPARED FORMULA with the baby sugar already added. All four of the FARMER'S WIFE Infant Formula Milks are prescribed by doctors and approved by mothers... they are truly, "Canada's Finest!"

MY SON leaves very early for his job—but he wants his RED RIVER CEREAL every morning. When I'm up myself, it's easy to cook it for him in just a few minutes; when I want to sleep in, I make it the night before, and he heats it up in a jiffy in the morning! Red River, with its delicious blending of cracked wheat, rye and flax, keeps its pleasant consistency over-night, beautifully. It has energy values that youngsters, and active workers, need; and at the same time it's excellent for sedentary workers, and older people, as they find it guards regularity. Give Red River a try, will you?

A HEALTHY CAT IS A PROUD AND PLAYFUL BEAUTY—a real pleasure as a pet. That's why I recommend DR. BALLARD'S CHAMPION WHOLE FISH CAT FOOD to all cat owners. You see, this new Dr. Ballard's Cat Food furnishes the high-quality protein found in fresh, whole fish... and it has Vitamin B1 added. It's truly something to purr about! All cats and kittens love fish and Dr. Ballard's is a "balanced nutrition" formula which will assure your treasure glowing health and high spirits. Pamper your proud beauty! Treat her to Dr. Ballard's Champion Whole Fish Cat Food... it's made for her!

STEAD—FOSTER WEDDING

Double-Ring Ceremony Unites Happy Couple

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at Park Royal United Church, on Sept. 11th., at 2.30 p.m. when Rena Elaine, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Foster of Dunstaffnage, became the bride of William Bruce, son of Mrs. Brenton Stead and the late Brenton Stead of Bay Fortune.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in her ballerina length dress of nylon net, and lace over satin, with finger tip veil, and carried a cascade bouquet of red roses. The bride's only attendant, Miss Isabel Stead, sister of the groom, wore a dress of powdered blue nylon-net over taffeta, with matching bolero and headress, and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations. The groom was ably supported by the bride's brother, Mr. Keith Foster.

The Rev. F. H. Littlejohns performed the double-ring ceremony, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends. The wedding party motored to Cavendish, where the reception was held at the "Shining Water Lodge." The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom. The toast, proposed by Mr. Fred Clark, a friend of the bride, was fittingly responded to by the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Stead will reside in Fortune.

the Maritimes, the bride wore a beige-wool suit with matching accessories, and a corsage of roses. Previous to her marriage the popular bride-to-be was entertained at three miscellaneous showers at the homes of: Mrs. Clarence Stevenson and Miss Mary Farquharson, Charlottetown and Mr. Arne Matheson, Dunstaffnage; where many useful and valuable gifts were received. Following their honeymoon, the bride and groom were tendered a miscellaneous shower in Fortune Bridge Hall, which was largely attended by many friends and neighbours. The gifts were many and beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Stead will reside in Fortune.

CHOOSE WOMAN GOVERNOR NEW YORK (AP)—The American Stock Exchange Tuesday named Mrs. Mary G. Roebling, New Jersey banker, as a governor. She is the first woman to hold a top policy-making position on a major American stock exchange. And is also the only woman in the U.S. to head a major banking institution. The widow of Sigfried Roebling, she assumed her husband's post as director of the Trenton Trust Co., Trenton, N.J., in 1936. She be-
