The members of the Islanders Hockey Club executive met with Dr. F. C. Dougan last night to see if the Doctor would again assume the responsibilities of club president. However, the Doctor, who resigned from the presidency a year ago is not ready to act at the moment, at least not until a few matters concerning the finances have been certified. Another meeting is to be held on Sunday and until that time the Islanders will be without a president, Dr. Dougan may consent to act at that time.

* * *

In the meanwhile the Islanders will carry on. The responsibilities of the Club now rest on the shoulders of about half a dozen men and it is quite a burden for them to carry. The lack of even fair-sized attendances at the games this year have created almost insurmountable financial problems. On the best night this season the Islanders were only able to collect about $1,000.

* * *

Those nights were very few. On Monday night for example the Islanders' take was just a little over $700. There was a crowd of 1250 on hand and the total gate amounted to something around $1600. How the Islanders have been able to survive this season is in itself something of a miracle. A rapid calculation of operating expenses compared with income would show that the Islanders must have dropped close to $3,000 already.

* * *

Over the week-end Maritime Central Airways were contacted to see if they would take over the club. Two years ago M.C.A. were interested in such a proposal but according to reports lost interest when they were unable to rent the Forum on a per game basis instead of a cut of the gate as is now the case. It doesn't seem likely that they will adopt the team now.

* * *

Friday night's game here against the Halifax Atlantics may well tell the tale of whether or not the Islanders will be able to continue under present conditions. A big crowd would take care of things for this week but a small turnout of fans could be the straw that broke the camel's back. The Islanders have the hockey players and the color. The fans will now decide whether or not they wish to retain Major Series hockey.

Welshmen, Saints Enter Sixth Game Of Series Today At Memorial Field

Two College football teams, mindful of the fact that Robert Bruce tried six time before he succeeded, will attempt once more this afternoon to declare a winner of the Provincial Intermediate championship.

This will be the sixth meeting of the Intermediate Saints and the Prince of Wales College teams in a series that began as a three game affair. The game today will be played on Memorial Field and will commence at three o'clock.

Saint Dunstan's will definitely be minus Jerry Johnston and John F. MacDonald. MacDonald fractured his ankle last week in the fourth game and Johnston also suffered an ankle injury in the same contest.

Coach Gordon Bennett of Prince of Wales College may be sending his squad onto the field without forwards Briar Chandler and Bob Hutcheson. Chandler injured his leg playing for the Abbies in Saint John a week and a half ago while Hutcheson has a cold.

The series has gripped the imagination of most sport fans such as few other football play-offs in recent years. The teams have been so evenly matched three of the games have ended in tie scores.

Although the series has been keenly contested it has not been a bitterly fought affair. In five games there has not been one punch thrown and there have been few if any arguments on the field. The high degree of sportsmanship displayed has been a credit to both Colleges teams and coaches Bennett and John Eldon Green.

Believeau Tries Out On Skates

MONTREAL, (CP)—Jean Believeau, Montreal Canadiens' prized rookie centre, skated Tuesday for the first time since he suffered a broken ankle bone Oct. 23 in a game at Chicago.

When he will return to National Hockey League action is still problematical-likely a week or more Believeau took it easy skating for 50 minutes without any ill effects to the ankle.

WINNIPEG — (CP) — Daniel Juba won by 312 to 311 over Mayor Stan Bowers in the Brooklands village municipal election. One of the votes for the winner was cast by his brother Stephen Juba, who had won a seat in the provincial legislature last June.

LONDON, ((CP)—Anna Neagle's play "The Glorious Days," about to end an eighth-months run, was described by the Daily Sketch critic Kenneth Tynan as "one of the most sinister recrudescences of Edwardian middle-class taste to be visited on London audiences in years."

Mt. A. Will Not Challenge For McCurdy Cup

SACKVILLE, N.B., (CP)—Mount Allison University will not challenge Glace Bay Caledonians for the McCurdy Cup nor St. Francis Xavier University for the Mactier cup.

The university rugby team voted 10-6 against a trip to Glace Bay and also decided to refrain from seeking the Maritime intercollegiate English rugby title.

A team spokesman blamed pressure of studies.

"Football is over. From now on it's the books only," he said.

TOKYO, (AP)—About 1,000 leftist-led student demonstrators marched in a drizzle through a Tokyo street Tuesday swinging placards saying "Go home Nixon. merchant of death." Vice-President Richard Nixon of the United States arrived Sunday on a goodwill visit. No violence was reported.

Harper Wins Title From Yvon Durelle

CALGARY, (CP) — Negro Doug Harper of Calgary tonight won the Canadian light heavyweight boxing title with a split 12-round decision over defending champion Yvon Durelle, 23-year-old former New Brunswick lobster fisherman. About 2,300 spectators saw Calgary's first Canadian championship bout.

Both fighters were reported in top condition, the challenger having just returned from training in Alberta's north woods.

The scrappy Durelle, formerly of Baie Ste. Anne, N. B., was trying for his 17th consecutive ring victory and his 13th by a knock out.

Harper, a native of Saskatchewan, had the edge in reach and height over his opponent. In his last ring appearance he lost an unpopular decision to heavyweight Jim Byrne of Seattle, to whom he gave away about 40 pounds.

Durelle, one of three fighting brothers from the Miramichi fishing village and one of four brothers in hte Canadian Army, also is a former holder of the Canadian middleweight crown.

Atlantics Go On Scoring Spree In Third To Defeat Glace Bay Miners 7-4

HALIFAX, (CP)—Halifax Atlantics went on a five-goal third period scoring spree to defeat Glace Bay Miners 7-4 in a Maritime Major Hockey game Tuesday night.

The win left Atlantics deadlocked with Sydney Millionaires for first place in the standing.

Glace Bay matched Halifax goals in the first and second periods but were outscored 5-2 in the final.

Big Bill Ford accounted for three Halifax goals. Ross Watson, Bob Bowness, Jackie Hollett and John Morrow scored the others. Kervin Rochford and Hugh Campbell each got a pair for Glace Bay.

After a wild first period in which referee Laurie Power handed out six penalties the clubs stuck to hockey. Only three penalties were called in the last two periods.

Young Dick Dion was outstanding in the Glace Bay net, especially in the third when Halifax bottled up Miners in their own end on numerous occasions Dion made 32 stops, 16 in the third period. Roy McMeekin made 28.

Would Separate Students By Sexes

WINNIPEG, (CP)—Dean Neville Scarfe of the University of Manitoba thinks boys and girls of adolescent age should be taught in separate classrooms.

Speaking at a home and school association meeting, the dean said separate classes would remove much of the distractions caused by having the two sexes together.

Separate classes would allow instruction tailored to the interests of the class. Where girls might be interested in the effect of various climates on dress, boys would like to learn about mining, the dean said.

He said boys are more affected than girls by natural stimuli. It had been proved that boys, at the girl-conscious stage, work better in separate classrooms. It apparently did not make much difference to girls.
