A TRIP TO COONTOWN.—Messrs Cole & Johnson, the popular colored comedians, will again present their brilliant success of last season, with many new and novel features, including all new songs, which these clever song writers, as well as comedians have written for the piece. They are the authors of the well known song hits "The Wedding of the Chinese and the Coon," "4-11-44," "The Black Four Hundred's Ball," etc. It is the only organization on the road presenting a comedy with a cast composed entirely of colored talent. That the company is fully competent is no longer a question, having been endorsed by the press of the country in the most flattering terms. The New York Sun devoted a column to review this show, and said "A 'trip to Coontown' is the most artistic farce, comedy show seen in New York for a long time; it would be interesting from the mere fact of its being done by negroes, but the excellence of the performance raises it far above the level of the average farce comedy show. They are such delicious dancers and fine actors, the performance is one rollicking frolic." The same cast has been retained which met with such distinction last year, including Tom Brown, the Protean artist, R A Kelly, J A Shipp and Lloyd G Gibbs, the greatest living black tenor, Miss Julia Roane, a young lady of pleasing presence, and a sweet voice, Miss Vincent Bradley, who distinguishes herself with her impersonation of an old refined negro lady and an efficient chorus.

No other preparation has ever done so many people so much good as Hood's Sarsaparilla, America's Greatest Medicine.
