S. Merchant Marine Gradually Shrinking

By BEN PRICE
WASHINGTON (AP)—The number of men who go down to the sea in American ships is shrinking year by year. So is the number of ships.
The flag of the great tradeliner on earth is flying from a station which once made fortunes by sending lone-stemmed clippers circling around the world for Cathay. It is becoming increasingly rare in the world's ports.

The U.S. maritime industry is sick, say records of Congress. Maritime education is being cut, the federal maritime commission and shipping leaders.
A report of the House of Representatives anti-trust subcommittee, headed by Representative Emanuel Celler (DEM., N.Y.), declares that "American trade routes are permeated by abuses of all sorts."
Among these abuses the subcommittee listed competition-sufficing agreements, anti-American trade discrimination and "predatory practices."
A top item is the high cost of American ships and labor. U.S. firms have registered 400 ships including 264 tankers under the flags of Panama, Honduras and Liberia.

By maritime administration figures, the U.S. merchant fleet consists of 313 active ships, 1,418 in 1953. By way of comparison, the Soviet Union has 1,450 ships.
If fleet capacity is excluded, only 8.9 per cent of the tonnage of the world's 300,000,000 tons of shipping is carried in U.S. bottoms each year. Ten years ago the figure was close to 30 per cent.

MILITARY CARGOES
Even if military cargoes are included, the percentage of total American trade carried in U.S. vessels is only 8.2. British ships, shipping 35 per cent of world trade, carry 82 per cent of U.S. military cargo.

In the nine major commercial shippings with U.S. only 46 per cent of the tonnage, are on order or under construction.

Japanese shipyards have ordered for 119 ships totaling 1,588,000 gross tons, Britain has orders for 153 ships of 1,450,000 gross tons.

A ship that costs $10,000,000 to build in an American yard costs $5,000,000 in a Japanese yard. It is a U.S. ship operator.

Opening lead—five of spades. To play first and think afterwards is surely a bad habit, but by no means an unusual one. Some situations in bridge are made to order for thoughtless play, and it is quite easy to fall for a trap on such occasions.
For example, look at the following hand. South is in three no trump and West led a spade. Declare played from dummy my, losing to the king, and played low again when East returned a heart.
West won the queen and continued with the ace and another club, forcing out South's king. Declarer then entered dummy with a spade and took a diamond finesse, losing to the

Long Negotiations Expected In Russian-Chinese Quarrel

MOSCOW (Reuters)—The secret soundings going on in Moscow in more than 10 months between Chinese and Russian leaders to see whether they can patch up their 20-year differences could go for years, diplomatic experts said here.
Chinese Premier Chou En-lai, heading the strongest delegation in Moscow, is probably engaged in taking soundings of the new Kremlin leadership and little more, the diplomats said.

They said the removal of Soviet leader Nikita Khrushchev has opened the way for talks. Such a shift might be furthered by a significant shift in the leadership of the Chinese Communist Party, headed by Mao Tse-tung and Liu Shao-chi.

Finally, the joint congressional economic committee came up with figures which indicate at the very least—that the foreign lines which dominate U.S. trade routes are squeezing U.S. exporters for every nickel they can get.
One example: The rate on the shipment of steep pipe from Rotterdam to New York is $18.75. The rate from New York to Rotterdam is $56.75.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

— Here's how to work it:
A X Y D B L A A X E
L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE MAJOR HOOPLE

THAT DREADED CHICKLE BOOBY-TRAPPED THE REFRIGERATOR, THEN PERSEVERED TO SEEK A MIDNIGHT SNACK READ, THUS GETTING INTO THE DEPRIVATION OF HIS PRACTICAL SENSE AND MUST LATER SEEK PROTECTION TO MOVE HIM OUT.

IF South had followed the simple rule of first planning the play of the hand before playing from dummy, he would surely have decided that a spade finesse would jeopardize the contract without increasing the chances of making it. So-called automatic play is times when you're in doubt, but they cannot be allowed to take the place of a solid thinking.
