Active Year Reported By Catholic Women's League

The following annual report for 1954-55 of the Catholic Women's League of Prince Edward Island was submitted by the recording secretary at the League's annual convention this week. The report covers the activities of the thirty-eight subdivisions throughout the Island.

During the year Masses numbering 169 were offered for living and deceased members and approximately 30 per cent of our Sub-divisions were represented at daily mass.

226 members made retreats during the year, 26 of whom attended the Annual Retreat held at Notre Dame Academy, Charlottetown, sponsored by the Provincial Council and preached by Reverend Father Gallagher, C.S.S.R.

All sub-divisions report a large number of members recite the family rosary, attend monthly communion and approximately 70 per cent of our members attend on First Fridays and First Saturdays. Several sub-divisions report supplying adorners "to watch and pray" before the Blessed Sacrament exposed on First Fridays.

Three sub-divisions report having a Mass offered each month for living members and a large number have Mass offered on the death of a member and for deceased relatives of members. A number of sub-divisions report meetings at the home of a deceased member where the Rosary is recited in unison.

Four sub-divisions report having the "Blessing of Babies" and many members have erected shrines in their homes.

Financial assistance was given the Sisters of Martha $125. Precious Blood Sisters $125. Our Ladies Missionaries $199. Prizes for Christian Doctrine amounting to $120.00 were also donated by the Sub-divisions.

EDUCATION

The total amount reported as having been spent on Education during the past year was $1,392. Of this amount $900 was donated to Catholic Girl's Scholarship Association, $242 for prizes at schools and colleges, $55 to Music Festival Association and $125 towards the Gravelly Students Fund.

The study club movement has shown some improvement over last year but much remains to be done. One of the Sub-divisions reporting on this has 10 groups consisting of 119 members while another has 8 groups with 64 members.

Another Sub-division reports a marriage course given by the Director to those contemplating marriage. The crusade for decent literature is supported by almost all Sub-divisions. The members realize their responsibility to watch and keep wide awake as to the kind of literature appearing on the news-stands in their community. Several sub-divisions report having indecent literature removed from news-stands and other sponsored book displays. Two sub-divisions have prepared a list of suitable books which they have erected in the vestibule of their respective churches. It is also reported that 20 books were donated to the Public Library which is most cooperative and will upon request secure any books which are not on their shelves.

LEGISLATURE AND CITIZENSHIP

All sub-divisions take an active part in citizenship work and are represented on civic and welfare boards.

Two of our members attended courses in Civil Defence and six new Canadians were assisted in applying for Citizenship.

During the year 425 members assisted at Cancer Clinics, Social Service, Red Cross, Polio, Free Dispensary and Poppy Day drives. Remembrance Day and Citizenship Day were fittingly observed by many sub-divisions. Masses being offered for the repose of the soul of our war dead and for world peace. Wreaths were laid at the Cenotaph on Remembrance Day.

Consideration is given bills before the Legislature and out entire membership urged to use their franchise and vote.

3,413 inches of space were utilized in our newspapers and 470 pulp announcements made. 379 Catholic papers and magazines are reported as coming to our members in addition to the subscriptions to the Canadian League which total 179 copies. Some of these subscriptions were obtained by grouping the members, thus bringing the magazine within the reach of a greater number.

In May our province was featured in the League Magazine and our thanks go to all who contributed adds and news articles to make this issue so interesting.

SOCIAL WORK

Our Institutions were assisted by the members in a great many ways, 977 visitors were made to hospitalized and shut-ins and treated sent to 278 persons. 1,162 articles of clothing were donated to poor and needy families, as well as monetary assistance of $120 given to the Catholic Welfare Bureau. The orphanage was visited by many members and received boxes of food and clothing which together with cash donations are valued at $165.

One sub-division reports holding a Sanatorium Day when books, fruit, candy and flowers were collected and distributed to each patient. 18 children were dressed for First Holy Communion and 24 Rosaries given.

Several sub-divisions distributed cod-liver oil capsules to school children which are available through the Red Cross at cost price. Clothing, milk and groceries were supplied to the needy in many cases. Several sub-divisions helped Convents and Hospitals in their own communities.

All sub-divisions gave assistance to immigrants living in their community by inviting them to their homes and social activities. Food, clothing and fuel were supplied when necessary. Several members assisted at parties for new Canadians. $215 was donated to Our Lady's Missionaries and $12.50 to National Immigration Fund.

ORGANIZATION

There are 38 sub-divisions organized in this province with a total membership of 2,535. In addition our Honorary membership consists of 269 Sisters of the Congregation of Notre Dame, St. Martha and Precious Blood.

Although no new sub-divisions were organized this year considerable field work was done which we hope will be fruitful in the near future.

During the year 3 Regional Conferences were held with 241 members in attendance. These meetings have done much to make the League better known and understood. It is hoped that during the months to come every sub-division

Beach Togs Need Suds

By ELEANOR FOSS

Most of us are so busy worrying about how we look in our bathing suits that we sometimes forget that the suit itself is on parade too!

Swim suits are so gay and attractive this year, there is such a tremendous variety in every price range, that it's a pity not to give a suit the care it needs to look its best all summer long. We've all heard that "a swim suit is not a bath!"

SUDSY BATH

Well, that applies to the suit as well as to the wearer. Both need a good sudsy bath after ocean or pool exercise. Salt water, sand, even mud from the lake or pond, going to do that bathing fabric any good. They should be washed away in soap and water as soon as you get home from your swim. Dry the suit at room temperature to protect those elasticized threads.

Take the same care of your beach bag and other equipment.

WASH BEACH BAG

Plastic articles can simply be swabbed off with a soapy cloth, rinsed and wiped dry. Be sure to wash out the inside of the beach bag, too, to remove all sand and soil, which, if neglected, will run not only the fabric itself, but the color, and make this pretty accessory look tired and dingy long before it should.

If there is a wee baby in your household you won't have to worry about a swim suit for him or her just yet. But there's always the play pen to think about, and toys as well. If it stays outdoors in good weather, give it a going over with a sudsy cloth before you put the baby out for an airing.

TOYS AND STROLLER

Swab that plastic mat, and wash off toys, since these have a way of finding a direct route into his mouth.

If carriage or stroller stays outside, wipe it off with a sudsy sponge before putting the baby into it.

One mother we know speeds up this sort of morning clean-up by keeping a lightweight plastic oil, with soap and sponge, in the back hall closet. It saves steps and effort.

Pineapple Crumb Cakes Top Off A Brunch Menu

By Ida Bailey Allen

ARRANGE PINEAPPLE crumb cakes in individual paper cups on a wicker tray. Delicious when hot and spread with a pat of butter.

The American brunch or late breakfast on Sundays and holidays is much like the French déjeuner or second breakfast, observed the Chef.

"However, in France, it is literally luncheon.

"Everyone starts the day just with hot rolls and cafe-au-lait, which means equal parts of hot coffee and heated milk, poured both at the same time into the cup to blend thoroughly.

"For all Americans who serve brunch in the late morning, I suggest providing the little French breakfast in the early morning for a more satisfying day."

"And to top off a brunch menu, Chef, I added, 'I recommend our new pineapple crumb cakes.'

Pineapple Crumb Cakes: Sift together 2 c. already-sifted enriched flour, 3 tsp. baking powder, 1/2 tsp. salt and 1/4 c. sugar.

Manuel MacKinnon Wedding

On July 1 the wedding took place at Murray River, of Mary Pauline, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. MacKinnon to Blois Edwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon S. Manuel of Charlottetown. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. H. W. Trenholm and took place in the garden under an arch flanked by summer flowers and centred by wedding bells.

The bride was attended by Miss Joan MacLean as bridesmaid. Mr. Darrell Worth was best man and the ushers were Messrs. Bryer Llewellyn and Murray MacKinnon, brother-in-law, and brother of the bride.

Mrs. Holden MacLure played the wedding music while Mrs. Trenholm sang "I Love You Truly" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor-length gown of white slipper satin with fingertip lace of Chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

The bridesmaid was gowned in a waltz-length dress of pink tulle with flower headdress. She carried a nosegay of yellow roses.

Mrs. MacKinnon, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue dress with navy and white hat, and a corsage of Pink Delight roses.

Mrs. Manuel, mother of the groom, was attired in a light blue crepe and lace dress with pink accessories. Her corsage was pink roses.

Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served to the guests. The bride's table was centered by a three-tier wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom above which was a large white wedding bell with pink and white streamers.

For travelling the bride wore a pink tweed suit with a small white petal hat, with navy accessories. Her corsage was white carnations.

Immediately following the reception the newly-weds left on a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes.

Dalton-Shortt Wedding

St. Clares Roman Catholic Church, Toronto, Ont., was the scene of a pretty wedding at 10 A. M., Saturday, July 23, when Ann Elaine Doreen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Shortt, of Port Credit, Ont., was united in the holy bonds of marriage to George Peter, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dalton, Burton Lot 7, Rev. Father Kehoe, pastor of St. Clares, performed the marriage ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

The altar was decorated for the occasion with summer flowers. The guest pews were marked with satin bows.

As the organist played the "Wedding March" the bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She was attired in a ballerina-length white satin gown with overlay of lace and net and matching lace jacket. Her finger-tip-veil of tulle illusion fell from a Juliette cap of lace with iridescent sequins and pearls; she carried a white prayer book with a corsage of red and white rosebuds and streamers.

Miss Margaret Ann Kelly was matron of honor and was attired in a ballerina-length gown of mauve satin and net with matching jacket and headdress and carried a nosegay of yellow roses.

Mr. B. O'Halloran was best man. Mr. John Hartford, cousin of the bride, was usher.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Shortt chose a dress of powder blue lace over taffeta with blue and white accessories, and corsage of pink carnations. The mother of the groom was attired in a dress of Rosewood taffeta with navy accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Le Surf Hotel,

NO DECISION YET

OTTAWA (CP)—The Big Four powers are discussing a plan for reunification of Germany but no firm decision has been reached. External Affairs Minister Pearson said Tuesday. He was replying to the Commons to a question by Donald Fleming (PC—Toronto Eglington). He said Canada is being kept informed of progress of the discussions.

Previous to her marriage the bride was a very dirty little girl. "Child, she said, "you're pretty dirty aren't you?" "Yes, I am," replied theurchin "and I'm even prettier clean."
