

Patrick: Richter, Roussel, Fitzpatrick, Vanbiesbrouck
Smythe: McLean, Ranford

But look at these Norris goaltenders: Potvin, Belfour, Cheveldae, Fuhr, Joseph, Joblonski, Casey. Why are they all in the Norris?

The hockey Panthers scored another convincing win against the Mount Allison Mounties last Friday night in Sackville. The Panthers won the game 7 - 3; Max Mazur scored two goals. Mazur seems to be more offensively oriented this season. He used his size to get to the net behind other teams' defense; his physique makes it difficult for opposing players to move him. This year marks the end of an era for hockey card collectors. O-Pee-Chee has decided to stop including gum with its cards. When we were kids, my brother and I collected cards for two reasons: for the fun of it, and because the gum was so good. Card collecting back then was just for fun; this is why my Ray Bourque rookie card has a tack-hole through his head. Because of expensive sets and fancy cards like Upper Deck and Score, O.P.C. cannot afford to lose customers because of the gum stains on Joe Sakic's rookie card. Card collection has moved into new times. Sigh. Now if only O.P.C. could do something about the wax stains.

I really like the O.P.C. set this year; the insert cards are re-issues of the best rookie cards for the past twenty-five years. Check it out. It is momentarily disconcerting to see a Gretzky or Parent or Lemieux rookie card in a '92-'93 pack of cards. The regular cards look really good; last year's blue backs and lighter paper made them difficult to separate or store. Now they have better paper, but no gum. Is it worth it?

See you at the Civic Center on the 25th, 28th, and 29th for the last Panther games of the semester. ■
