

Campus Roundup: Lose Your Sanity - Let - 'er - rip !!!

As you may have noticed, this issue of the Cadre is devoted to the Winter Carnival. All of us here really hope to see a good time in the upcoming festivities. Of course the age-old law of life will still hold true, in that you get out of something what you put into it. So put yourself into a carnival space and let-'er-rip; you've only got your sanity to lose. Remember, mental hygiene begins with beer at the Barn.

Since all the fun is forecast in other articles, Campus Chatter will devote a few lines to the events not usually exposed to the entire student body. Speaking of student body, the Carnival Queen has promised to come when the faculty holds their open-house party. With a luminosity in his eye of untold brightness, a noted professor stated, "all students should come together, but I'll be sure the Carnival Queen makes it." This event will surely close the gap between student-teacher relationships. Dress is not important.

Another daring event will be the pot puffing party at Peter's place. Peter and Puff (of magic dragon fame), are opening their doors to all the pot puffers at U.P.E.I. Peter has informed us that to avoid ambiguity we should mention that "pot puffing" is simply another term for a Tupperware display. It seems that the last event of the same nature attracted a large crowd from Memorial Hall. The disappointed crew returned home with only plastic strainers to show for their adventure.

The highlight of the Carnival could very well be the bash at Baker's pad. Pres. Baker is holding this party as a salute to Student Affairs. He hopes everyone will attend and subtly added "perhaps this will take the public eye off my affairs." When questioned on the inevitable high cost and destruction of personal property he stated, "from the money I've made here I can afford a few drinks, besides, I'm leaving this shack soon anyway." Well put, Ron, see you there; (is there nothing sacred?)

The cafeteria will also coordinate a carnival feast. The normal lavish entertainment will be provided as well as a special banquet fit for a student. This gastronomic orgy will consist of tantalizing fish, buttery, mouth-watering chips and succulent frozen green peas. In order to supplement vitamin intake the health center suggested the cafeteria use edible styrofoam plates.

Another source of carnival entertainment will be the drip-catching contest in the Robertson Library. Fifty five buckets will be provided to catch the water leaking from the roof. This event will be held in conjunction with the "count the cracks" contest. Both these attractions will be held on the first rainy day. The first prize is a book entitled Architectural Rip-offs: A Regional Study.

Well, that's it for Campus Chatter this week. Next week we'll look at more important issues and remember, our facts are as good as yours.

Countdown to the Carnival You'll Never Forget!

Well, gang this is it. This is the Winter Carnival issue of the Cadre. Hope everybody is ready for Carnival. The Committee has put a lot of work into it and they feel it is going to be a roaring success. I am happy to report, that following last week-ends mix ups, the Carnival Committee executive has settled all internal problems and are once again working together.

Pre-sale of tickets began early this week. They are selling fast. I would advise everyone to buy their tickets as soon as possible if they want to be sure of getting into all events and also if they want to avoid the line-ups. Students holding advance tickets will be able to enter the gym through the side door. That is the door closest to the rink, and will be opened each night until 9:30. If you have an advance ticket and want to avoid the line up, just remember the side door will open until 9:30 PM.

Carnival buttons '77, arrived early this week. They are selling like hot-cakes. Cost of buttons are $50 each. If you are wearing a Carnival Button on Wed. night when you show up for the pub in the Barn, after the Moncton game at the forum, you will be admitted free of charge.

Each class is responsible for looking after the events of a certain day. Freshmen are responsible for Wed. the 9th, Sophomore, Thurs. 10, Junior Friday the 11th, and Seniors Saturday the 12th. If you are interested in working on the carnival committee you may either drop into Carnival Headquarters in the Basement of Memorial or contact your class Pres. In case you don't know who your class Pres. is:

- Freshmen-Chris Campaigne Bernadine Hall
- Sophomore-Doug McKay Blanchard Hall
- Junior-Brian McKenna Blanchard Hall
- Senior-Kevin Newman Rodd Motor Inn.

Each class has been working on the events they are responsible for, and most classes have already chosen their Carnival Princess. The Princesses are:

- Freshman-Cynthia MacLeod
 - Sophomore-Betty Brown
 - Junior-Jeanette MacAuley
 - Senior-Betty Graham
- The Carnival Committee HAS approached the faculty Assoc. and has also sent a memo to all Prof. requesting that no exam be scheduled for Carnival week.

The residents of Bernadine, are happy to announce that there will be an extension of both Room and Lounge hours for Carnival Week. The hours to be posted on Bulletin Board by Main Desk.

The Snow Sculptures (if there is any snow) are to be divided into two categories this year.

1. The sculptures, whatever you want to build, have to have a registered team (maximum 8 people) and a registered location on

AFS means Atlantic Unity

On Wednesday, the 23rd of February, there will be a referendum vote taken to determine whether or not U.P.E.I. will become a member of the Atlantic Federation of Students.

Since very few students know much about AFS, we will try to fill you in a bit. AFS is an organization of post-secondary institutions who hope, with cooperation between themselves, to deal with the problems of students in the Atlantic area. Since they are a relatively new organization it is necessary to push for new members. Without new members the organization will not have the financial or personal student involvement needed to back their demands. It should be noted that such things as student unemployment are definitely more severe in this area. With AFS we will be able to try to help with a unified, rather than a single voice.

There are many more good things that can be said about AFS. If you have anything to say for or against U.P.E.I. joining this organization, please send in your comments in the form of a letter to the Cadre.

2. The largest Snowman contest. Prizes will be given for: A. largest B. tallest C. Best looking, etc.

The Scavenger hunt on Friday should also be a lot of fun. The list comprises of some 40 articles to be found on campus. Prizes include passes for Friday night, free beer tickets 4 gift certificate. Only two people per team.
