

NEWS of the WORLD in PICTURES

STRANGLING, THEN FIRE — Charged with the killing of Fred J. Busza, 39, and his pregnant wife and three children in their East Greenwich, R.I., farmhouse, Edwin Reynolds, 27 (right), who boarded with the family, is taken into custody by a Rhode Island State Police officer. The victims were left strangled when the house was set afire.

FOLLOWS MALIK — Great Britain's chief delegate to the U.N. Sir Gladwyn Jebb, is the new man in the president's chair at the Security Council, where for a month Soviet delegate Jacob Malik presided in stately fashion.

Canadians in Korean waters are Lieut.-Cmdr. P. C. Benson, of Winnipeg, who is aboard the Slou; Lieut.-Cmdr. C. R. Parker, Toronto, Cayuga, and Lieut.-Cmdr. T. S. R. Peacock, Quebec, of the Athabaskan. They are executive officers aboard the three Canadian ships.

Only female member of the three-ship Canadian destroyer division in Korean waters is "Wren" Alice, the bright and lively mascot aboard the Cayuga.

THREE ON A HORSE—When troopers of the First Cavalry Division found a horse in the Waegwan area, they abandoned their jeep for a cavalryman's first love—the horse. With two men aboard, a third man tries to mount the animal which they call "Wigwam" for his Korean home. Said one trooper: "As long as we have just one horse, we ain't just another bunch of dogfaces." (Exclusive photo by NEA-Acme staff photographer Stanley Tretick.)

JOHN MATETICH

Court in Hamilton, Ont., hearing the charge of attempted murder and attempted suicide against John Matetich, was told by witness Betty Albert that accused held her and her friend, Anne Boyko, at gun point in a closed car rapidly filling with monoxide fumes. Miss Albert, long-time friend of Mate-

ANNE BOYKO

BETTY ALBERT

tich, said that when the car ran out of gasoline, Matetich threw the bullets from the gun into a field and let both girls go.

CRASH VICTIM — Everett Moore Baker, 49, of Wellesley Hills, Mass., Dean of Students at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, was among 55 killed in a TWA plane crash near Cairo, Egypt.

Miss Germany of 1949, Inge Lowenstein, is seen at London airport on her way to Baden Baden where she was crowned Miss Germany of 1950. She has been working as a passenger service girl at an airways office in New York.

CATTY CORNERED—Mickey, the fox terrier, thought he had Tuffy, his neighbor at Laurence Harbor, N. J., cornered, but puss's paws gave the pooch pause. He kept right on going.

It may not seem right to trade the carefree holidays, when you were free to run and jump and shout . . .

New York's Mayor William O'Dwyer observing his final day at City Hall before leaving to be the nation's Ambassador to Mexico, waves to crowds parading in his honor. City Council President Vincent Impellitteri, who temporarily succeeds O'Dwyer in office, watches at right.

STILL ROLLING ALONG—Making good his promise to skate on his 82nd birthday, noted health culturist and publisher Bernarr MacFadden takes a spin on the Dansville, N. Y., rink. Three-and-one-half-year-old Audrea Purdy is his pretty companion.

A seriously ill native woman reaches Goose Bay after a mercy flight by an R.C.A.F. crew to an Indian village. Among men are: Group Captain L. J. Birchall, St. Catharines; L.A.C. C. D. McLaughlin, Staynee; Flt.-Lieut. D. R. Cuthbertson.

The official flag of the United Nations, now flying with national banners over the U.N. armed forces in action to restore the peace in Korea, is shown in this photograph. The background color of the flag is the light blue associated with U.N. since its early days, while the official United Nations seal in its center is in white.

Nearly drowned, two fliers were hauled out of Lake Ontario when their motor stopped and they were forced to put the craft down in the water a short distance from the Island Airport, Toronto. Light plane is seen being salvaged. Lifesavers picked up Robert Taylor, flying instructor, and his pupil, D. Monahan, both uninjured.

... for a school desk where a fella has to listen to the teacher. But that's the way it is. And anyway, school isn't so bad!