Wanted Man Described as Good Father, Husband

QUEBEC (CP) — Frederick Lester, 35, who surrendered to authorities in Southern Rhode Island, is wanted for two armed hold-ups in America, was described here by his wife Celina as a "good father and a kind husband."

He married her under the family name of Lester, and her and their two young daughters last November. She operates a grocery store here. "I can't understand why he should behave like this," said Celina in an interview, breaking into tears.

UBC Law Student Respected PC Student Group

OTTAWA (CP) — Joe Clark, 25-year-old law student from the University of British Columbia, was re-elected president of the Progressive Conservative Student Federation. He was unopposed.

Rescued Man Is Through With Work Underground

ATIKOKAN, Ont. (CP) — Miner Greg Eggers, freed from an underground trap that held him for 17 hours, says he "went on again."

Conservatives Name Officers

OTTAWA (CP) — All elections were unanimous Tuesday in the Progressive Conservative Association of Canada chose its executive for the coming year. The new state follows:

CONTRACT BRIDGE By B. JAY BECKER

Here is such a case. South is playing in a rubber and West leads a diamond. Since a diamond loss is inevitable, South's only problem is to avoid losing three trump tricks. This may be impossible to accomplish if the opponents' cards are distributed unfavorably, but South should play on the basis that the East-West cards are so divided that he will lose only two trump tricks.
