Farms Boost Equipment Purchasing

OTTAWA (CP)—Sales of new farm equipment, including parts for repairs, had a wholesale value of $426,966,661 during 1965 compared with $380,132,800 the previous year.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics said Thursday repair-part sales were worth $55,642,883 during the year as against $53,154,394 in 1964.

Provincial totals for 1965 with 1964 amounts in brackets: Atlantic provinces $10,966,000 ($9,788,964); Quebec $38,307,718 ($36,438,117); Ontario $96,451,576 ($81,124,787); Manitoba $98,087,506 ($85,107,648); Saskatchewan $138,266,618 ($110,985,209); Alberta $82,532,404 ($76,884,181); British Columbia $9,144,833 ($8,902,881).

Cohen said in a general way he tries to increase trade between China and Britain and Canada. Embargo of strategic materials was not as strict as present as in the past.

"I'm planning another visit to Canada but I'm not sure when I'll be there for Expo '67. Certainly I still use a Canadian passport. Why not? Have I ever done anything wrong to my country?"

A boyhood emigrant to Canada—he lived mostly in the Calgary-Edmonton area—Cohen went to China as aide-de-camp to Sun and remained there between the two great wars.

He admitted with a smile that there are many wild tales of how he got the tag Two-Gun.

"The real story is that I was a liaison officer between the southern regime of Dr. Sun and Hong Kong. I had to have a gun license to carry a weapon into Hong Kong. I got two licenses because I carried two guns, one in a very handy place."

Visits China often
 "I met all the fountain heads of government," said Cohen, adding that he has visited the Chinese mainland every year but was in the last 11 years. "I met Mao but didn't have a conversation with him this time because he was terribly busy."

A living legend of Far East derring-do and intrigue, Cohen stays at a posh hotel when he comes to London these days. Far behind are the harum-scarum boyhood days when he slugged it out with the best of them in east-end Stepney and tangled with the police.

Traces of the old pugacity showed when he was questioned about his politics, in view of his admiration of Red China.

"Anyone who knows me, knows I'm not a Communist," he said. He was still a member of the revolutionary committee of the Kuomintang, the party founded by Sun.

The bidding:
 East South West North
 Pass 1NT Pass 3NT

Opening lead—three of hearts. In most hands you don't have to do anything spectacular to get the best possible result. All you need to do is keep on making the right bid or the right play whenever it's your turn and nature will take care of the rest.

For example, take this deal which occurred in a Life Master's pair championship. It was easy enough to make three no-trump the trick was to make four against the normal heart lead by West. The extra 30 points would certainly mean very little in the ordinary rubber bridge game, but, in duplicate, an extra trick is frequently worth its weight in gold. These declarers who exercised proper technique were rewarded with a good match point score for making four notrump. They ducked the heart lead when East played the queen, and won the return with the ace. When they now played a low spade to the queen, East generally ducked, and when South returned to his hand with a diamond and led another spade to the king, East took it with the ace and returned his last heart to the king.

Declarer next cashed the jack of spades, hoping for a 3-3 division, but West showed out. Three more rounds of diamonds, ending in dummy, permitted declarer to throw East into the lead with a spade and force a club return away from the king. As a result, South made four notrump.

Note that if South wins the first heart lead West can later overtake East's heart return and shift to a club to destroy the potential endplay.

Note also South's method of dealing with the spades by leading low twice towards dummy. This play made no difference in the actual hand, but it might very well have gained the extra trick without the endplay if West had been dealt the A-x of spades.
