FATHER TURBIDE'S DEPARTURE

Presented With a Purse and Several Addresses.

Tignish was, on Sunday last, the scene of a reluctant parting between the parishioners of that large parish and the Reverend Father Turbide, who has labored there for the past three years. Gloom was cast over the entire parish when it was learned that he was to be removed to House Harbor, Magdalen Islands. Notwithstanding the suddenness of the news the people had an opportunity of showing in a practical manner their love for Father Turbide, and right royally did they take advantage of the occasion.

A mass meeting was held in St. Mary's Hall on Sunday afternoon when addresses in English and French and on behalf of the C. M. B. A. accompanied by a purse of $115, were presented. The venerable pastor of the parish, Rev. D. M. McDonald presided, and the hall was packed to the doors. The addresses were read by E. Hackett, Esq., G. I. Bart, Esq., of L'Impartial and Dr. Murphy, respectively. The following is the address presented on behalf of the English-speaking parishioners:

To the Rev. Father Turbide, assistant priest of Tignish parish

REVEREND FATHER,—The English-speaking parishioners of Tignish have learned with the deepest regret that you have been ordered to another part of the diocese. For three years you have labored among us fulfilling to the letter the many requirements of a priest and earning our most profound veneration and undying gratitude. So dimly I trust have you worked, so fitted were you for the exacting work itself, so abundantly did the grace of God fructify your pious endeavours and so intimately did you grow into our lives and affections, that the thought never once entered our minds that the sad hour would approach when we would be deprived of your presence and ministry. If ever we were asked to point to the life of a priest up to the loftiest ideals, assuredly all would with one accord have turned to you and said: There is a model man, a man consumed with holy zeal for God's house, with an inexhaustible love for souls, with the gift of the word of God, with each and every quality which make men beloved and esteemed and respected, and held for the personal sanctity which emanated from you in especial veneration.

This is a parish not easily served. The two national elements in it make a dual language necessary and also necessitate a service more exacting than where all speak one tongue and enjoy the same manners and customs. As the English element we beg leave to testify to the great satisfaction your ministry has been to us, and to say with what gratitude and edification we have seen you seek out in all seasons and under many difficulties the neglected or neglected sinner everywhere. We know that the soul of one of the poorest and humblest amongst us was as dear to you, because redeemed at an infinite price, as that of the richest and most exalted, and that your sacrifices were not made for our commendations. Permit us to remark, however, that the people may readily and quickly appreciate the pastors charges with their spiritual care; in your case the appreciation has ever been an enviable one for any priest.

You are called away to another sphere of labour, and our loss will be others gain. As a necessity of the case we know that our Bishop cannot allow this great and exacting parish to remain for any length of time without another coming in your stead; but while God may have a good priest in store for us, as no doubt He has, we will be permitted to express frankly our thoughts. We shall never again have a priest who will possess the love, respect and reverence of the people more thoroughly and unreservedly than him with whom we part to-day, so sorrowfully.

And what more shall we say in a moment of such supreme regret? We will pray God to have you in His holy keeping. You will pray for us your grateful friends while memory holds its throne.

We ask you to accept this purse, hurriedly gotten together at such short notice, as a small token of our gratitude, and to believe us your humble loving devoted children in our Saviour.

Signed on behalf of the English-speaking Parishioners:

- P. C. MURPHY, M. D.
- EDWD. HACKETT.
- PATR. HOGAN.

- JAMES McGRATH.

We wish him every success.

The Boston Globe says: The funeral of John M. McKay was held at 16 Franklin St. yesterday afternoon and was attended by St. Elmo commandery, Knights of Malta. The services were conducted by Rev. H. O. Hiccox, pastor of the First Baptist church. The Knights of Malta escorted the body to Forestdale cemetery, where the ritual of the Order was recited at the grave.

MEETING AT WOOD ISLANDS.

The meeting at Wood Islands on Wednesday evening was a fine one, and was overwhelmingly in favor of the Conservative candidate. The speakers were A. A. McLean, D. P. Irving, Duncan Crawford, Premier Farquharson and Alex. Martin, M. P.

Mr. Irving spoke for exactly two minutes, and did not even take the platform. The opposition speakers assailed Farquharson on his corruption. The premier asked the speakers to name instances of corruption, and he was given instance after instance. He said he came to Wood Islands to justify the dismissal of Rev. Donald McNeill, and the people fairly howled.

The premier's new policy of borrowing on debentures was received with the greatest astonishment. He thought $600,000 only a trifle. He did not question a figure of the $600,000 odd as given by the opposition speakers.

Three rousing cheers were given for Mr. A. A. McLean. There were no cheers for Farquharson, and about seven responded for Irving.

Farquharson left Wood Islands the most disgusted and unhappy man in the country.

Miss Ruby Rattray's reading and Mr. Stanley's solo were admirably rendered.

4th Prince Edward Island regiment—2nd Lieut. J. P. Leslie resigns his commission.

PROHIBITION.—The prohibitionists of Canada have evidently not lost faith that they have the only effectual remedy for the drink habits of the people. After much counsel and deliberation the Dominion Temperance Alliance is making organized efforts to secure 100,000 pledged voters who will support only candidates in full sympathy with their principles. At present the aim is prohibition for those provinces which gave a favorable majority to the recent plebiscite. Platform meetings will be called and pledges secured as quickly as possible. It is announced that Mr. Duncan Marshall, of Toronto, already well known here as an eloquent speaker, will address meetings in leading communities during the next few weeks, beginning with Charlottetown, Monday evening, November 27.

ST. JAMES HALL.—The patriotic tea given last evening in St. James' hall, by the ladies, in aid of the Boys' Brigade was a grand success and fully sustained the reputation of St. James' in this line of public entertainments. The hall was beautifully decorated with flags and tartans representing the different Scottish clans. After disposing of the good things with which the tables were laden, a very pleasing programme was rendered, consisting of a chorus from five members of the Boys' Brigade, a solo by Mrs. Roome, a reading by Miss Flo McKenzie, piano solo by Miss Jean Stewart, and Highland music by Piper Peter McFadden. The Boys' Brigade paraded at the drill shed at five o'clock, and marched to the hall. Their appearance created a very favorable impression. We hope, very shortly, to see this fine company parade in their Highland costume, which, we understand, is nearing completion.
