

STRANGE BUT TRUE

By F. H. MacArthur

Believe it or not, but there are some 1,155,000 divorced women in the United States. But against this, 5,800,000 women are happily married.

According to the Highways safety council report one out of every four automobiles in use are dangerously defective.

24 rubber tubes placed side by side form the roof and walls of a new house built for the air force for use in the Arctic.

Moths don't eat clothes as many persons think. It's the worm or larva that does the eating. Besides clothes, the worm will eat anything made of hair, wool, feathers or fur.

It took only one hour and twenty-five minutes for the Chicago Cubs to beat the Detroit Tigers on Oct. 14, 1908. The score was 2-0 and that, incidentally was the shortest time in which a world series game has ever been played.

Married couples may have their problems, but most of them are little ones - not mental. The unmarried of both sexes are more apt to become victims of mental disorders than are persons who are wedded. And statistics indicate that marriage is a better mental health protection for men than for women.

Did you know that sounds travel farther in cold weather than in summer? It's true.

In the Arctic one can hear the blows of an axe against wood 12 miles away. When it's 80 below the human voice carries almost one mile.

Frequent polishing will lengthen the life of shoes.

Even back in the Stone Age, when women wrote down their names and ages, they were chiseling.

There are better things than curfews to keep kids off the street at night: A mother singing in the kitchen and a father whistling around the house.

Machines and men replace home baking. Today men do nearly all the baking women used to do. Baking is a $4,000,000,000 a year industry, and more than 40,000,000 loaves come from the bakery ovens every day. The bread knife now lies buried with the high-top and the curling iron. Slicers are now used which can slice up to 3,000,000 loaves before the steel hands need re-grinding.

In some parts of Arizona, turkeys may only be hunted with bows and arrow.

By crossbreeding various strains of domestic hens with the chickens of Chile, it is now possible to get eggs with fancy-colored shells.

Some types of seaweed in the Pacific Ocean grow to a height of 300 feet.

The peel is the best part of an orange for flavoring. A few drops of Orange oil made from orange peel are enough to give an orange flavor to 80 gallons of water.

OTTAWA (CP)—Industrial employment in Canada remained at a record level Oct. 4. A few drops of strikes in motor vehicle plants and layoffs in seasonal industries.
