AN UNEXPLAINED POINT

Peter Lombard points a moral in the English Church Times with this story: "Mrs. Proudie, the excellent wife of the bishop of Copenminster, down in the midlands, does admirable work by going among the poor people and talking to them out of her own experiences and giving them her wholesome advice. She did so the other day at Mudbury, near Copenminster. Next day the rector's daughter at Mudbury said to one of the audience of the other evening, 'Well, Mrs. Proudie, what did you think of Mrs. Proudie's address?' 'Oh, it was very good; but, you see, she only went half way.' 'Whatever do you mean, Mrs. Toddle?' said the young woman. 'Well, miss, she didn't tell us what she does when Mr. Proudie comes home drunk. We should like a little advice on that 'ere point.'"

He Wasn't Left.

Biggs—Quite a rivalry between Tom and Fred.
 Griggs—Yes, I understand they are both seeking the hand of Miss Triffett.
 Biggs—They both called at her house the other evening and at once began the exciting game of trying to outsize each other. Tom had to give it up finally and left Fred in possession.
 Griggs—So Fred got the best of it?
 Biggs—That's the question. It was a rainy night, and Tom did not take away the poorest umbrella when he left the house.—Boston Transcript.

Carries His Hatchet In His Boot Leg.

In some places men carry bowie knives and guns in their boot legs. One may meet in Funchin fish market in this city a man carrying a hatchet in his boot leg, but the hatchet is for peaceful purposes. It is an implement much used in the market for opening and for nailing up boxes and barrels in which fish are packed, and the boot leg seems to be the handiest place to carry it.—New York Sun.

Mme. de Pompadour encouraged fan painting and also collected fine specimens of the work. Greuze, Watteau and other great artists did not disdain to lend their talents to the art. These pictures were done mostly on vellum or chicken skin.

HUMAN SACRIFICES

On the Altar of Diabetes, Saved by Dodd's Kidney Pills, Only.

Hardly a family in the country is free from Diabetes. Great thirst, failing sight, numbness in the thighs, bleeding gums, swollen ankles, emaciation, nervousness, pale or turbid urine, loss of sexual power, decaying teeth, pains in the loins or small of the back, are all positive signs that Diabetes is in the system.

Do you know how it ends? IN DEATH. A premature, horrible, agonized, pitiful death. The victim has no peace, no ease in life. His days are filled with tortures. His nights are waking dreams of agony. He longs to die, yet fears the terrors of his end. He lies, a bloated, fetid, repulsive mass of corruption. That is the only end of unchecked Diabetes. Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure it. They drive it out of the system thoroughly, create new, clean blood, rebuild the diseased kidneys, and restore robust health.

SATAN AT CAMP MEETING

We will call him Bishop Simmons. During the afternoon the younger ministers had listened to him with veneration and respect, and when they came they found him a dignified and careful listener.

The afternoon was delightful and the camp meeting service was a long one. The good bishop was a keen lover of the weed, and after the meeting had closed he strolled off for a smoke. At a little distance he found an abrupt ledge entirely out of the view of the camp grounds, and going down around to the foot of this he lit his cigar and prepared for a quiet half hour.

As it chanced, soon after one of the younger ministers took a walk from the grounds, and finally came to the top of the same ledge, and, looking down, saw the bishop.

For the space of a moment or two he stood with a gleam in his eye, and then, stooping down, he said in a sort of triumphant tone:

"Ah, Father Simmons, I've caught you burning incense to the devil."

The bishop took out his cigar and turned about till he had swung the speaker fully into view, and then added slowly in a deep voice:

"But I didn't know he was so near."

An Example of O'Connell's Wit.

Daniel O'Connell, though brilliant and witty, was darily vulgar when he set out to attack an opponent. At a Dublin election he started to assail Recorder Shaw, who was a very dignified and handsome man, by declaring him a fellow whose visage would frighten a horse from his oats. The lord mayor, who presided, remarked on these amenities and said it might be supposed such a critic, like Hamlet's father, was endowed with Hyperion curls and the front of Jove himself, instead of a wrinkled brow and a scratch wig. As for himself, he would not be unwilling to compete with the demagogue before a jury of ladies if they could only see him as nature made him without the aid of the barber. O'Connell strode to the front of the platform, snatched off his wig and pointing to his naked head covered with a stubble of gray hair, cried, "Ladies, I demand your instant judgment!" Of course he had the laugh and the best of the encounter.—San Francisco Wava.

Hints for Painting

It is very seldom that an amateur painter is thoroughly satisfied with a job of painting after it is finished. The best way, of course, is to employ a particular painter, but where this is impossible, and for touches about the house which it would not pay a painter to call and do, a few hints may be given. First see that the surface is thoroughly prepared, that it is dry, clean and free from grease; if there are any rough spots sandpaper them, and then brush off the dust. On new work shellac knots and putty nail holes. Keep the paint well mixed or stirred while the work is being done; lay the paint on evenly and brush it out well, following the direction of the grain of the wood. Never apply a second coat till the first is perfectly dry and hard. Do not over-change your brush with paint, or replenish before it is exhausted. Begin with the higher part of the work and proceed downward. Then see that you have the right paint. The Sherwin Williams Company prepares a special paint for each class of work and this paint will be found best for that work. For painting houses one kind is prepared, for floors another kind, for small articles about the house still another kind, and on selecting the right kind of paint lies the great secret of a successful job. It stands to reason that a house paint will not look well on a buggy and that a buggy paint would not look good on a barn.

All the purchaser has to do is to tell the dealer what the paint is for and get the can labeled for that purpose. When the house painter is called it is a safe rule to specify that he shall use the Sherwin Williams paints. The name is a guarantee that the painting will last a long time and look well. All the paints bearing this well-known name are mixed by machinery and the highest skill is employed in selecting the ingredients and in seeing that they are exactly right. The proportions are the result of twenty-nine years of successful paint making. A postal card addressed to The Sherwin Williams Company, 21 St Antoine Street, Montreal, will secure a useful book on painting.

FACTS ABOUT HEALTH

It is Easy to Keep Well if We Know How—Some of the Conditions Necessary to Perfect Health.

The importance of maintaining good health is easily understood, and it is really a simple matter if we take a correct view of the conditions required. In perfect health the stomach promptly digests food, and thus prepares nourishment. The blood is employed to carry this nourishment to the organs, nerves, muscles and tissues which need it. The first great essential for good health, therefore, is pure, rich blood. Now it is certainly a fact that no medicine has such a record of cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is literally true that there are hundreds of people alive and well today who would have been in their graves had they not taken Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is depended upon as a family medicine and general regulator of the system by tens of thousands of people. This is because Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure. This is the secret of its great success. Keep your system in good health by keeping your blood pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla, which absolutely cures when other medicines fail to do any good whatever.

Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.
