Dowling Winner Of Maritime Golf Title

DARTMOUTH, N. S., Aug. 13 — (CP)—Maurice (Mouse) Dowling, lanky Charlottetown and Moncton, N. B. golfer, won the Maritime amateur golf championship at the Brightwood Club here Saturday, defeating A. W. (Pud) Carter of Dartmouth. Play ended on the 36th hole with Dowling two up.

Kas Zabowski of Halifax retained his Maritime professional title with a 72-hole total of 294, five better than his nearest rival, Vince Halsall of Moncton, who carded 299.

Doane Hallett of Halifax won the Maritime junior title earlier with a score of 157 for 36 holes.

The bantam champion is Doug Lewis, 14-year-old from Moncton. Runner-up was Raymond Zabowski, nine-year-old son of the professional champ.

J. Andy Likely, Charlottetown, won the third division defeating H. Pike, Ashburn, 4 and 7.

Keen Yacht Racing Here On Saturday

In one of the keenest sailing meets to be staged thus far this season by the Charlottetown Yacht Club on Saturday afternoon in the local harbor, the Snipe division with six entries came up with a particularly close race right to the finish line to be the feature attraction of the meet.

Skippered by David Wood the Wren was the winning entry, crossing the finish line in a time of 93 minutes, but was only seconds ahead of a closely pressing Scout, Wings and Surf. The Sinbad and Dingbat, finishing fifth and sixth respectively, were also very close behind the rest of the field.

In the Class III division, the Argo, captained by Dr. S. A. MacDonald of Montreal, won out over Mic and Zenith, who finished in that order. The Zenith, owned and skippered by Mac Irwin, has been a consistent winner of the event this season up until Saturday's meet. The fourth entry in the Class III race, the Naiad, skippered by W. K. Sharpe, finished in that position.

The following are the results and the crews:

Snipes

1. Wren—David Wood, skipper; Don Webster, crew.
2. Scout—Ron Smith, skipper; Markie Steckley, crew.
3. Wings—Ian Rankin, skipper; Wayne Watson, crew.
4. Surf—Clive Stewart, skipper; Avon Andrew, crew.
5. Sinbad—Bob MacLeod, skipper.
6. Dingbat—Ralph Dumont, skipper; Gerald Foster, crew.

Winning time—93 minutes.

Class III

1. Argo—Dr. S. A. MacDonald skipper; Mrs. MacDonald and Jack King, crew.
2. Mic—Louis Paoli, skipper; Simon Paoli, crew.
3. Zenith—Mac Irwin, skipper; Jean Munn and Fred Small, crew.
4. Naiad—W. K. Sharpe, skipper; Gwyn Sharpe, crew.

Swimming Tests Held At Rustico

Mrs. H. Cudmore, director of Swimming and Water Safety for P. E. I., was present at Rustico on Friday when the swimming pupils of Pat Gauthier were tested for various swimming skills. Mrs. Cudmore examined the candidates in artificial respiration and also gave an interesting talk on the importance of water safety. Instructors Heather Lantz, Lois Arsenault and Paul Cudmore acted as examiners for the classes. Those successfully completing their tests were:

Intermediate — Phyllis Gallant, Pius Gallant, Maynard Gallant.

Junior—Bernard MacNeil, Eleanor Doucette, Bertha Gallant.

Elementary — Theresa Gallant, Lois Gallant, Amy Johnson, Rose Marie LeClair, Anita Johnson, Anette Blacquiere.

Buddy Clark Winner Of President's Match

Buddy Clark won the President's Match of the Charlottetown Golf Club on Saturday afternoon over the Belvedere course when he scored a net 73 in the final stage for eight points to boost his points total over the four stages to 32½, five points better than runner-up W. A. "Pud" Beer, who carded a net 71 Saturday.

Don MacDonald, who didn't compete in Saturday's fourth stage, finished third in the match with a total of 25½ points picked up in the three preceding stages.

O. C. Craswell was the winner of the fourth stage play itself, carding the lowest net of the day, 68, five and three strokes better than the match winner and runner-up respectively. Craswell's win gave him his only 10 points over the four stages to earn a sixth-place tie with Skippy Sears, who didn't compete Saturday.

Clark, a junior member of the Charlottetown Club, played very consistent golf over the entire four stages for his winning margin.

The following are the results of Saturday's fourth stage play and the final point standings:—

Quebec Tennis Titles Decided

MONTREAL, Aug. 13 —(CP) — Davis Cupper Brendan Macken and sister Pat Macken, both of Montreal, shared the spotlight Saturday when they won four Quebec provincial tennis championships.

Playing on adjacent courts and at the same time, Brendan and Pat won the men's and women's singles respectively and each shared in the men's and women's doubles titles.

Macken, who captured the Ontario singles crown last week, defeated the defending champion, Henri Rochon of Montreal, 6-2 6-2, 7-5, in the men's singles.

Meanwhile, sister Pat got her revenge over Barbara Knapp of Birmingham, England, 0-6, 7-5, 6-3 in the women's singles. Last week the two fought it out in the Ontario women's singles final, when Miss Knapp came out on top.

Macken and Jack Spencer of Montreal won the men's doubles championship with a 5-7, 6-4, 6-2 6-2, victory over Edgar Lanthier and Gordon MacNeil, of Montreal.

Miss Macken teamed up with Elaine Fildes to win the women's doubles event by defeating Miss Knapp and Helen Strenstrom, 6-2, 6-2.

In the mixed doubles, Bill Tully of New York and Miss Knapp defeated Lanthier and Francoise of Montreal, 6-4, 6-3.

Aussies Advance To Cup Finals

RYE, N. Y., Aug. 13—(AP)—The Australians barged on today into the Davis Cup challenge round, as expected, but not until they had again felt the sting of Sweden's brilliant young star, Lennart Bergelin.

Victory over Frank Sedgman Friday in what was regarded as an upset, the blonde Swede repeated the dose today at the expense of veteran John Bromwich to carry the series down to the fifth and final match and make it the most closely-fought interzone title since before the war.

116-YEAR WAR

The Hundred Years' War between France and England lasted from 1337 to 1453.

Local sporting fans witnessed a variety of top-notch entertainment over the week-end in horseracing, tennis, golf and baseball, which were the leading features held here on Saturday and Sunday on the sporting agenda.

* * *

Some of the keenest track battles of the season was the highlight feature of the regular Saturday night racing program over the Provincial Exhibition Raceway, the finest harness racing oval in Canada. With ten big dash events witnessed there, every one of them was a dead ringer for exciting duels at every stage of the mile distance that brought tightly packed fields to the wire in driving photo finishes that gave the large crowd in attendance plenty of excitement and action for their money.

* * *

The first event of the night saw an eight-horse field battling strenuously for positions from wire to wire with the lead changing hands three times before the winner was decided. Going out in front at the first turn, Belle Budlong was on top until the first half was reached when Layton Pettigrew took his Norine Grattan into a lead that held until the three-quarter pole. It was a powerful drive by Yankee Dale at the upper turn that overtook her, Dale coming down the rail a winner in a photo finish with Belle on the outside and Miss Playfair, the latter driving down the centre for third position when the photo was consulted.

* * *

The second event was much the same with Chocolate Dip out in front for the first half with Marjory Budlong a close trail for second, only to see Miss Donna Mae put on a powerful drive down the half stretch to go out on top and stay there for the remaining half mile, although challenged repeatedly by Hilda Mac, Marjory and Abegweit Milady, who all finished in a tight bunch, in that order at the finish.

* * *

It was like that in the events all through the card to finish with a startling performance by Valley Long in the tenth and final dash on the program. After taking only a fourth place against the same field in the seventh dash behind winner Billy Conn, and second and third place horses Lil Frisco and Bee Budlong, Valley put on a terrific burst of speed down the home stretch from fourth position to nip Billy at the wire by a whisker after he had led the field over the entire route.

* * *

Tennis enthusiasts who gathered at the Charlottetown Tennis Club courts over the week-end to witness play in the Provincial Closed tourney, certainly got plenty of what they went there to witness—smart tennis and keen competition. Although there were some smart matches witnessed on Saturday the best matches were seen on Sunday when the ladies and men's singles titles were decided.

* * *

Helen Larter and Audrey DeBlois, who had both battled their way through some tough matches earlier in the week to finally reach the finals, staged one of the finest matches played during the entire tourney, before Miss Larter emerged the P. E. I. ladies singles champion.

* * *

Both girls, who have a wealth of experience and hard driving styles, came up with some terrific rallies and smart placements in a rigorous match that was forced to three sets. Miss DeBlois, a former title holder, took the first set 5-7 in a rugged twelve game encounter, but in the remaining sets, the steady, cross court driving of Larter gave her the final decisions 6-2, 6-3, although DeBlois contested every point and game.

* * *

It was another dogged battle between Earl Smith of Summerside and Jim Palmer of the local club in the men's singles in the afternoon, that saw Smith take the first of five-game match in straight sets. But it was not without plenty of opposition from Palmer, who stroked beautifully and coming up with powerful backline drives that forced Smith to the limit in the first and third sets before he won with identical scores of 7-5. Smith was more superior in the middle session when he lobbed and drove his way to a 6-2 victory, and it was his steady, unruffled style, for which he is noted, that saw him through as the Provincial men's singles tennis champion for 1950.

Keen Racing At Local Track Saturday Night

It was a smart racing card that was witnessed by a large crowd of racing fans at the Exhibition raceway on Saturday night when mainland racing stables captured four of the ten dash events and Island entries took top honors in the remaining six events.

Ma Cherie from Mrs. Eloise Milton's Moncton, N. B. stables, was the one double event winner during the night's racing when she paced her way to victories in the second and sixth dashes over an eight horse field with H. Cormier handling the ribbons. Indiana Boy, owned by Robert Brown of Woodstock, N. B., and driven by Tom Etter, making his first performance here this season, paced away to a win in the third event. Miss Knox, competing in the same field in the eighth, was piloted to a win by Len O'Meara.

Lorne Letcher's Miss Donna Mae and Jennie Kalmuck dominated the fifth event when Letcher himself drove Donna to a first and Mr. O'Donnell reined Jennie in a very close second. Both horses are from Letcher's Springhill, N. S., stables.

One of the Island's leading reinsmen, Willard Kelly, drove two of his own horses to victory during the night's program, bringing Nell Kalmuck under the wire ahead of Jennie Kalmuck in the ninth and winning the fourth event with Miss Playfair over an eight-horse field. Yankee Dale, also owned by Kelly, competing against Miss Playfair and the same field in the opening dash on the card, topped them all to the wire with Claude O'Brien doing the winning driving.

Indiana Boy and Nell Kalmuck chalked up the fastest times of the meet, both covering the mile in 2:12 2-5.

With a field of nine horses competing in the seventh and tenth dash events, Valley Long pulled the big upset of the night in the final dash when he topped out Billy Conn in a driving finish to the wire to pay off at the pari-mutuel $23.10 for a $2 ticket. Billy Conn, driven by owner Ensor Bowness of Summerside, won the seventh over Lil Frisco. A. Lorie drove Valley Long to the upset victory in the tenth.

Junior Free-For-All Is Featured Event In Racing Card Tonight

The stage is set for the opening tonight of Old Home Week and the Provincial Exhibition. The ceremony marking the opening will take place before the main grandstand at 7.30 p.m. with the Hon. J. Walter Jones officially launching the week-long program. It is the diamond jubilee of the big event and from the record entry lists in the varied program it promises to be the best on record. It is a far cry from 1890 when the Exhibition first came into being, but its success down through the years has resulted in it being looked upon as an institution.

The opening race card this evening features three classes: Prowse Bros. Classified Pace, DeBlois Bros. Classified Trot, and Hughes Drug. Co. Junior Free-For-All Pace. There are seven entries in each class—all well-known horses on both the Island and other Maritime tracks.

While there should be close finishes in all classes, the Junior Free-For-All should provide the real thrills of the night. Entries such as Lock Hanover, Gay Law, A. G. Scott and Josedale Clipper will be battling it out to the wire. There could be plenty of upsets, but suffice it to say the card is a "bang-up" one for an opener.

Sport Briefs

SHREVEPORT, La., Aug. 13 — (AP) — Pat McGlothin pitched a brilliant no-hitter here Saturday night against Shreveport as Fort Worth won the Texas League game 2-1. Two first-inning Fort Worth errors marred his effort and permitted the Sports one unearned run. McGlothin, 27-year-old right-hander, retired 26 men in rotation from the first inning on and walked only one man.

AKRON, O., Aug. 13 — (AP) — Harold D. Williamson, 15-year-old Charleston, W. Va., youth, today won the 13th annual all-American soap box derby championship.

David Musallem of Haney, B. C., was eliminated in the first round when he ran third in his heat.

The 12-year-old Musallem won the British Columbia soap box title at Mission City, June 5. This was the first year he has raced.
