CHURCH SOLD.—The Church known as the Protestant Union Church, at Serris West, which has not been regularly occupied for some time past, was recently sold at public auction, and purchased by the people of Rollo Bay Parish, who have had it removed to their Church grounds, where they are fitting it up for a Hall and Library. It is pleasing to note that though this Church has passed out of the hands of its original owners, it is still to be used for religious purposes.

He has disposed of the lot, and now returns to purchase double as many as he did last time. The class of horses he now requires is heavy and medium-sized workers, for which he will pay their true value. Those having the right kind of horses to suit Mr. Keegan should give him a call at the Rankin.

THAT portion of Grafton Street between Beale's Corner and the Athenaeum is nightly infested with a gang of lawless characters whose actions and language are most disgusting. Particularly is this noticeable at the alleyway next the Union office. Cannot something be done to rid the community of this invertebrate nuisance. Seldom, if ever, the police pass that way, and when they happen to come near these rowdies their only ejaculation is "Move on, boys." A more severe "rebuke" is necessary. These ruffians must be taught a lesson.

The demand for "Myrtle Navy" tobacco is still on the increase, and from every quarter the firm who make it are receiving unsolicited testimonies of its growth in public favor. A gentleman from one of the mining islands of Lake Huron writes: "Your 'Myrtle Navy' is an invaluable cologne to the loneliness of the miners life. I don't know how our men would get along without it. If their stock ran out they would risk swimming to the mainland to replenish it, heedless of danger, and I believe they would cross the ice in winter on the same errand if it was not more than an inch thick. No other tobacco will satisfy them."

Sudden Rise in Oil.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN THE NEW YORK PETROLEUM EXCHANGE.

The New York Telegram of Oct. 20th says:—Oil took another bound at the opening of the Consolidated Petroleum and Stock Exchange to-day, and before the close of the first quarter of an hour the price of pipe line certificates touched $1.10.

This sudden rise caused great excitement among the speculators, and the scene about the pit was the liveliest that had been witnessed in a long time. Men were swinging their arms like windmills, and shouting themselves hoarse.

It was evident that the bears were being hard pushed. They struggled to give the market a downward turn, but the bulls were for the time being all powerful.

At noon, pipe line certificates were quoted 1.10, and the excitement on change was increasing. It was reported that two or three leading bears were crippled, and that they would be compelled to suspend before the close of the day.

The bears claimed, however, that they would be able to struggle through with their troubles.

IN Toronto several prominent citizens of moderate views on the liquor question recently organized a society called the Liberal Temperance Union, having for its platform doing away with the sale of strong drink, such as whiskey and brandy and allowing only the sale of beer and light wines.

Professor Goldwin Smith is president, and several clergymen are known to be in sympathy with the movement. They have been fighting the Scott Act in one or two counties where it has been recently submitted without success, but since then they have obtained large and influential accessions to their ranks, and have just issued a manifesto declaring war to the knife against prohibition. In view of the early submission of the Scott Act in Toronto, they are making active preparations to defeat it in appointing canvassers and getting literature bearing upon their views printed and distributed broadcast.

Scott Act people have been for months back actively canvassing, and when the vote is taken in January next, a bitter and lively contest between the two parties is looked for.

DEATH OF F. H. BAKER.—Mr. F. H. Baker, well known in Halifax, died at Hull, Mass., on Thursday. Mr. Baker came to Nova Scotia something over twenty years ago, and for a time conducted the business of lobster canning on a large scale, and was supposed to be possessed of considerable means. During the last few years of his residence in Halifax he conducted the Mayflower newspaper with considerable ability. He was a man of a good deal of cleverness, but of a peculiar and eccentric character, which led him to show a conspicuous indifference to ordinary ideas of propriety. Since leaving Halifax he has resided in Boston, from which place he contributed a number of characteristic letters to the Chronicle.
