IN MEMORIAM

JOHN FOSTER MACPHAIL
On the night of January 31st, 1959, the relatives and friends were shocked and saddened to learn, as the result of an accident, of the sudden passing of John Foster MacPhail of Argyle Shore, at the early age of 41 years.
He was the second oldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm MacPhail, and was a successful farmer on the old homestead at Argyle Shore; a kind husband and father; a good neighbour, ready to lend a helping hand at any time; and to his immediate family a close-knit brother; referred to by his pastor as a "Very lovable chap."
The funeral service was held from the Culliffe Funeral Home and was very largely attended. Rev. J.H. Bishop, of the Free Church of Scotland assisted by Rev. R.A. Patterson of Cornwall conducted the service. Cornwall choir, under the direction of Dr. Peter MacDonald, led in the singing of the hymns, "Unto The Hills" and "The Lord's My Shepherd". Mr. Stephen MacLeod, Bonshaw, sang feelingly a solo, "Will the circle be Unbroken".
He is survived by his sorrowing wife (nee Dorothy Good) of Cornwall, and two daughters, Gayle and Bonnie; also three sisters and three brothers, Vize (Vena) Mrs. Arthur Howard; (Irene) Mrs. Jack MacMillan of Cornwall; (Erma) Mrs. Blair Hackett, Charlottetown, and Gordon, R.C.N. Halifax, Montreal, Toronto, and Colin J. of Cornwall. A brother Chester predeceased him only one year ago. His parents, and one sister Annie May also predeceased him.
The floral tributes were many as were also the messages and expressions of sympathy.
The pall bearers were: Fred MacPhail, Cecil MacPhail, Bert MacPhail, Donald MacPhail, Ken MacPhail, and Waldron Sellars.
He was laid to rest in the family plot at Argyle Shore Cemetery.

MRS. TORQUIL MACNEILL
On February 19th, 1959, after a long and trying illness which was borne with great patience and christian fortitude, Mrs. Torquil MacNeill passed peacefully away at her home in Milton in her 80th year.
The former Adelaide Mitchell Hooper, she was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Hooper of Charlottetown and in 1898 she married Torquil MacNeill of Milton. Last August they celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary.
All her married life was spent in that community where she will long be remembered by her host of friends whom she was always ready to help in time of need, and friends or strangers always found a welcome and a cheery smile.
But it is in the home where the loss of a devoted wife and loving mother and grandmother will be most keenly felt.
Besides a large circle of friends there are left to mourn and cherish her memory her husband who rarely left her bedside during her illness.
The following were the floral tributes.
PILLOW Husband, George and Eleanor MacNeill, Charlottetown, and Charlie and Agnes.
WREATHS Cyrus Venee, Reta and Douglas, Charlie and Agnes.
SPRAYS Neavie, Andrew and family Miriam, Fred and Harvey Reagh and Gladie Harold, Jean and Earl Marjorie, Fred, Lorne and Hilton Thelma, Bettie and Fay Helen, Jack and family Ivan, Lela, Lealand, John Bernard and Helen Ruth, Elmer and Garth Jean Lester MacInnis Mrs. Effie Brehaut Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bernard Dave and Etta Thompson
CUT FLOWERS Terry, Patsy and Roger Carol, Marlene, Douglas, Barry and Miriam Jack and Fulton Thomson Eileen, Omer, Sally and Serieta. Peacefully sleeping, resting at last.
The world's weary troubles and trials are past In silence she suffered, in patience she bore, Till God called her home to suffer no more.
