Springfield-O'Leary Baptists Hold Church Fellowship Meal

O'LEARY — One of the highlights in the history of the Baptist Church took place Thursday evening in the United Church Christian Education Centre in O'Leary where over 260 Baptist people sat down together to a church fellowship meal. Graciously served by the ladies of the United Church the tables were appetizingly decorated with spring flowers and hand stencilled menus placed in front of each setting as souvenirs of the loyalty dinner.

Master of ceremonies for the evening was the pastor of the church Rev. Ross A. Howard with Deacon Earle Jelley, chairman of the outreach stewardship campaign extending words of welcome to those who had made the evening of fellowship possible.

A solo entitled "It Took a Miracle", was rendered by Mrs. Watson Silliker with the organist, Mrs. Melvin Ellis accompanying.

Following the solo Mrs. A. A. MacLeod and Raynal MacNeill gave words of personal testimony.

members of the committee and appreciation was expressed to over a hundred people in the congregation who are giving leadership in the stewardship outreach program.

A religious film, "Where your heart is there is your treasure also" was shown followed by a few remarks of dedication prayer for all present with special mention of the canvass visitors who go out next week to give all the opportunity to share in the work of the church.

The evening of fellowship and praise was brought to a close by a men's chorus singing "Have Thine Own Way Lord" followed by "Blest Be The Tie That Binds" and benediction by former pastor Rev. C. O. Howlett, Summerside.

O'Leary Baptists Hold Service

O'LEARY — The second anniversary of the United Baptist Church of O'Leary was held in the Church Sunday morning. Rev. Ross Howard conducting the service.

The service opened with the hymn "Tell Me The Stories of Jesus."

Anniversary Hymn "The Church's One Foundation," was sung by the congregation (the anthem) "Stand up For Jesus," was sung by the choir.

Stewardship testimonials were given by Mrs. Earle Jelley and Ralph Adams, after which the Sunday school teachers and children joined in singing a number of choruses this was followed by a service of dedication of memorial painting of Sallman's Head of Christ given to the church to be used in a center of worship for the Sunday school auditorium it was given in memory of a former beloved pastor of this church Rev. A. A. MacLeod by his wife and son Archie.

A dedication service of the newly completed class-rooms and basement Auditorium followed which consists of seven class-rooms, Laboratory furnace room, main auditorium and "kitchen finished with built in cupboards, running water.

The minister took as his Text: Anniversary Meditation. "Build Christ Grow Thou in Me."

Other officers include: Miss Mabel Adams, treasurer; Mrs. John P. Nicholson, recording secretary and Mrs. W. G. Hogg, Jr. corresponding secretary.

Mrs. J. A. Lawson, eastern vice-president of the national association, told the group that C. A.C. has presented a brief on every tariff question brought before the tariff board during the last 18 months. She pointed out the association was becoming an important voice for the consumers of Canada.
