A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL.

INSTALLATION.—Victoria Division S. of T., will install their new officers on New Year's night, in Wright's hall.

THE MAILS.—The foreign mail will be transferred to the Charlottetown-Pictou route on Monday.

SONG SERVICE at the Gospel meeting in Prowse's new block tomorrow afternoon at 3.45. Strangers always welcome.

WATCH NIGHT SERVICE.—Tomorrow night at 11 o'clock there will be a watch night service in the First Methodist Church.

DIPHTHERIA.—Another case of diphtheria has developed in the family of Mr. Henry Fitzgerald. The cases previously reported are doing very well.

EVERYTHING that goes to make up a first-class entertainment is contained in Mr. Earle's excellent programme for his concert next Tuesday evening.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON.—That beautiful Scotch Gospel solo "I am far from my home," will be sung at the Gospel meeting in Prowse's new block tomorrow afternoon.

THE NEW OFFICERS.—The officers of the Railway Men's Gospel meeting for the ensuing year are as follows: President—Harry Craswell; Vice Presidents—John Dalziel, John McPherson; Secretary—John J. Chappell; Room Committee—Charles J. Clarke, Wm. Turner, Horace McEwen, F. Damarell, R. Corbett, John Rose, Henry Coffin, John McLean, T. L. Aitkin.

SPLENDID instrumental music, splendid acting, splendid solos, splendid choruses, splendid dancing and other specialties at Mr. Earle's grand concert in the Opera House next Tuesday evening.

WEST END RANGERS.—A new hockey team has been established in Charlottetown as follows:—J. Mills, captain; A. Mills, S. Mills, G. Mills, A. Ryan, E. Byers, H. McNeil, R. Stanley, B. Shephard, G. Byers, T. Mills, president. Open to junior teams.

SCHOOL CONCERT.—The Opera House was well filled last evening upon the occasion of the Prince Street school concert. That the concert was one of the best of the kind ever given in Charlottetown is freely admitted, and all concerned are to be congratulated upon the success which attended their efforts. The tableaux were all good, the arrangement being of the best and the electrical efforts most pleasing. The drills were also excellently performed. A similar remark applies to the cantata, "The Little Gypsy," the principal parts in which were taken by Gypsies N. Eaton, Winnie Hölbrook, Pearl Hunter, Victor Anderson and Gower and Walter McLean. Little Hilda Senter re-cited Kipling's "Absent Minded Beggar" in a highly creditable manner; and Master Harry Smith's rendering of "Tommy Atkins" earned for him the first encore of the evening. Master Victor Anderson well sustained his reputation as a vocalist, his songs being rapturously encored. Miss Edna Chappell played a piano solo with much skill. There were also two duets on the same instrument, the performers being Misses Bessie Vinnicombe and Cora Paton and Helen Palmer and May Cotton, all of whom played excellently. Miss Maud Bremner acted as musical director to the satisfaction of all. The performance is being repeated at the Opera House this afternoon.

New Year's gifts will be seasonable and acceptable all next week. Can we show you any of our nice jewelry for silver goods to send to distant friends?

Traveller Talks.

J. H. Ireland, the Well-known Commercial Traveller, Interviewed at the Queen Hotel, Halifax.

In Excellent Health and Spirits—Back no Longer Bothers Him—Speaks Highly of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 29.—When Mr. J. H. Ireland comes to Halifax he generally stops at the Queen Hotel, and there the reporter found him.

Mr. Ireland is one of the oldest travellers on the road and is known from one end of Canada to the other. The many friends Mr. Ireland has made in his journeying will be glad to learn that that genial gentleman is no longer troubled with his back as formerly.

"I am entirely free of all that," said Mr. Ireland, when asked about it.

"How did you get rid of it," asked the reporter.

"Well," said Mr. Ireland, "On my trip to the Maritime Provinces last winter, I was complaining everywhere of Backache and one day somebody advised me to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. It was the one medicine that struck me as a specific for the disease and I got some. The pain in my back was severe and it had been with me some time. Well, I didn't have to take one box before I was completely cured."

"The first dose seemed to go right to the spot," said Mr. Ireland. "The trouble up to date has not, and I think will not return. Dodd's Kidney Pills cure to stay cured."

"Then you think Dodd's Kidney Pills will do what they are advertised to do?"

"Well, as for Bright's Disease, Diabetes Rheumatism, Urinary and Bladder Complaints, Heart Disease, and all those other forms of Kidney Disease, for which Dodd's Kidney Pills are recommended I can't say authoritatively, not having had any personal experience. But judging from the way they cure Backache it is entirely likely they will do exactly as advertised. In my own mind there is not the least doubt of it," concluded Mr. Ireland.

FOR THE PARIS EXHIBITION.—Today Mr. Jeremiah Clarke is completing the grain exhibit of P. E. Island for the Paris Exhibition. He has been somewhat rushed, and at a request from Dr. Saunders will send the grains to Ottawa sooner than he expected. Many farmers who wished to exhibit were unable to do so as Mr. Clarke could not inspect their grain.

THE MONTH'S RECORD.—There were thirty-three cases disposed of at the police court during the month of December. There were 25 convictions for drunkenness, 3 for larceny and 1 each for breaches of the Lord's Day Act and the Liquor Regulation Act. One summons charging a violation of the Liquor Regulation Act was dismissed, also a summons charging larceny and another charging drunkenness. The receipts amounted to $228.19.

As a small appropriate New Year's gift you couldn't get anything nicer than one of those Transvaal souvenir booklets. Anyone will appreciate such a reminder of our boys now in South Africa. For sale at all the bookstores and at R. H. Mason's news stand. Price 10 cents.

and other authorities say that Canadians do not appreciate Canadian Literature. You should endeavor to show that this is not true, at least of P. E. Island.

One way to do this is to buy and read one of those

TRANSVAAL SOUVENIR BOOKLETS written by MR. A. M. BELDING, of St. John, N. B., which are for sale at all the bookstores, and at R. H. Mason's Newsstand, or will be sent postpaid to any address, on receipt of price in stamps or silver, by Robert L. Cotton, P. O. Box 84, Charlottetown.

PRICE 10 cents.

FOR THE CONTINGENT.—It has been decided that hay and oats for the record contingent shall be bought in the maritime provinces.

LOYAL CRUSADERS.—Installation of new officers on Monday, New Year's evening, at 6.30. Parents and friends are invited to be present.

THANKS.—Mr. J. K. Ross, Provincial Manager of the North American Life Insurance Company, has THE EXAMINER'S thanks for a diary and pocket calendar for the incoming year.

GOSPEL MEETING.—Remember the Gospel Meeting in Prowse's New Block, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Strangers always welcome. Lesson, Isaiah 38:1. "Set thine house in order, for thou shalt die, and not live."

THE POST OFFICE.—It is suggested that the general delivery be opened for an hour or two either in the afternoon or evening of New Year's Day. The forenoon hours prevent those who attend church from getting their mail matter.

MIDNIGHT MASS.—The special New Year's service in St. Dunstan's Cathedral, will begin about 11.45 o'clock on Sunday night. An orchestra will assist in the musical portion of the service. A collection will be taken up.

Y. M. C. A.—Remember the afternoon meeting at Y. M. C. A. Hall on Sabbath afternoon at four o'clock. Those meetings are growing in interest, and being the last meeting in this year the Hall should be packed. Your presence is necessary, young man, so don't disappoint us.

VALUABLE PUBLICATION.—The Prince Edward Island, Almanac and Miscellaneous Directory for 1900 has been issued from the press of Murley & Garburn. It contains a great deal of valuable information, and everyone should have a copy. The price is only 15 cents.

DEATH AT PROVIDENCE.—A telegram received in Charlottetown yesterday afternoon by Mr. Henry Edmonds brought the sad intelligence of the death at Providence, R. I., that morning, of Mr. David Williams. Mr. Williams was twenty-two years of age, and was a young man of excellent character and good ability. He visited Charlottetown a few years ago, and had many friends here by whom his death will be deeply regretted. His parents and other relatives have our sympathy.

BIG BOSTON FAILURE.—It is announced from Boston that the John P. Lovell Arms Co. and John P. Lovell Co. have made an assignment for the benefit of their creditors. The house of the John P. Lovell Arms Co. was founded in 1841 by John P. Lovell and was at first engaged solely in the manufacture of guns. It soon branched out into the sporting line of business and has grown to be one of the largest concerns of the kind in New England, there being scarcely an article used by a sportsman that was not carried in its stock.
