HASZARD'S GAZETTE.

Saturday, December 8, 1855.

THE BRITISH MAIL unexpectedly arrived at 11 o'clock on Thursday night, and was ready for delivery at the Post Office before 8 o'clock on Friday morning—the H. Ingram performing her trip with the punctuality of a Steamer. The news by this arrival is of an interesting nature.—The successes of the Turks in Asia,—the accession of Sweden, and probably that of Denmark, to the Western Alliance—more than anything that has lately happened, will tend to alarm the Czar and make him anxious for peace,—the destruction of a great quantity of the enemy's stores in the Sea of Azoff,—the likelihood of a speedy fall in all kinds of provisions,—and many other items, which we have copied into this day's paper, will be interesting to our readers.

Sir Charles Napier was duly elected in London, without opposition, for the borough of Southwark.

(For Haszard's Gazette.)

Arithmetical Question, proposed by the Hon. Robert Mooney. "I'm the eldest of six and the youngest of five: How many children had my Mother."

The eldest of six and the youngest of five!
Dear me! in this world, how some families thrive!
There's a question abstruse, which John Murdoch Stark
Could'nt solve, though he cipher'd from daylight to dark
Now the days are so short; but which I, tho' not vain,
With this pen, ink and paper am bound to make plain.
The eldest of six! and the youngest of five!
Two Mooneys in one—sure as Robin's alive!
The man for the people! when voters he sops;
The man for himself! when in office he pops.
Sure 'tis plain, with such union of qualities rare;
Two at least must be counted for Robin Adair!
Well! the answer correct, when properly given
To this question abstruse, is the number Eleven.
Had the twelfth one but perch'd on the family tree
Oh! ye daughters of Eve! what a cluster He'd be!

Pursuant to Notice a general public meeting of the resident householders of the St Eleanor's Church district School, was held on Tuesday the 27th inst, in St. Eleanor's to take into consideration, the best means to counteract the arbitrary proceedings of a majority of the trustees of said School.

The meeting was opened by the chairman, Hon. Jas Craswell with a short, pithy prefatory address, recommending unanimity and concord, between the trustees and House holders.

The following resolutions were passed without a disentient voice:

Moved, by J. J. Fraser, seconded by Mr. F. Cannon.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this meeting, from the years trial they have had of Mr. Josiah Mr. Leod's system of teaching, the extraordinary progress the children have made under his superintendence, and the known good understanding between Master and scholars, that, he is a most valuable acquisition to the district, and the most suitable person to be engaged as teacher.

Moved by N. J. Brown, Esq. seconded by Mr. A. Craswell.

Resolved, That the majority of the Trustees have acted in the most arbitrary and inconsistent manner, inasmuch as they have certified to the Board of Education, that Mr. McLeod has fulfilled his engagement with "Diligence, faithfulness and sobriety." and, at the same time, refused his much desired services.—Unanimously carried.

Proposed by Mr. Anthony Craswell, seconded by Mr. George Gay.

Resolved, That as Mr. George Jones, chairman of said Trustees, has refused to give any reason for not again engaging Mr. McLeod, and as he, and his colleagues, can give no valid reason, they are now called upon to resign their trusteeship. Unanimously carried.

Moved by Mr. Donald Rochford, seconded by Mr. George Bennet.

Resolved, That the resolutions passed be published in all the Island papers.

Moved by Mr. George Gay, seconded by Mr. Jas. J. Fraser.

Resolved That the thanks of the meeting be given to the Hon. Jas. Craswell, for his able and impartial conduct in the Chair.

Resident Householders present, and for the resolutions.

Hon Jas. Craswell,	N. J. Brown, Esq.
Donald Roehford,	Charles Jackson,
Frederick Gay,	Anthony Craswell,
Frederick Cannon,	George Gay,
George Bennet,	Isaac Scales,

POLICE COURT.

Dec. 7.—Michael Morriey, drunk and disorderly; convicted; fined 5s, or be imprisoned 48 hours.

John Sheridan, for assault on Michael Rielly, convicted: fined 60s, with 19s costs, or be imprisoned 50 days.

Thomas M'Gonnel, for alleged assault and battery on John Sheridan, case dismissed each party to pay costs.

These assaults are two of the many results ensuing out of that low-bred practice by far too prevalent in this community viz.: Raffles, where drinking, cursing, swearing, and too often fighting occur, depraving the morals and stirring up all the bad passions of nature. In this instance the aggressor somewhat the worse of liquor, used insulting language to M'Gonnel, when the latter assaulted him and he fell; on getting up it was discovered that he had an open knife in his hand, which three persons in the company endeavoured to take from him, Rielly being one of the three, and though he used no further violence than to hold Sheridan by the collar while the others took the knife, the latter treacherously turned upon Rielly (the oldest and most feeble of the three) some little time after he had been released, struck him a blow on the head which felled him head foremost into a deep hard frozen gutter, causing contusion, and for some days Rielly's life was despaired o —had this resulted in Rielly's death, of what avail would regrets have been! It is to be regretted that the pernicious practice of Raffling cannot be put down till some life is forfeited through it.

☞ WE are requested by the managers of the Mechanics' Institute Soiree to announce that all necessary arrangements and preparations are being made for the entertainment on Tuesday evening next. See Advertisement.
