OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

FRIDAY

The annual Sunday School picnic of St. James Church was held on the river shore of the farm of Mr. Robert Rhynes, Dunstaffnage on Saturday afternoon. Boating, bathing, softball, racing and other games were greatly enjoyed by the large number of Sunday School students and members of the congregation. Refreshments were served in the evening at the conclusion of the sports and prizes to the successful contestants awarded. Music during the afternoon was supplied by Piper Percy Groom.

MAYOR OF WALTHAM VISITS HERE—Dr. Frederick L. MacDonald, Mayor of Waltham, Mass., and a native of New Glasgow, Prince Edward Island, arrived in Charlottetown by motor yesterday. Accompanying him are Messrs. Frank Gallagher, Frank Curtin and Joseph P. Morissey, all city officials of Waltham. They will remain in the province. They are here on a holiday trip and will remain in the province for a few days. Dr. MacDonald, who has been twice elected Mayor of Waltham, left Prince Edward Island at the age of thirteen. He graduated from medical college in 1907 and has been practicing medicine for twenty-seven years.

The P. E. I Highlanders under command of Lt.-Col. C. C. Thompson and the 28th Field Ambulance under command of Lt.-Col. J. J. Blake sailed from Charlottetown yesterday afternoon on the S. S. "Hochelaga" for Pictou en route for Aldershot, N.S. where they will undergo a ten day training session.

The units were piped on board the ship by the P. E. I. Highlanders Pipe Band. A large number of people gathered at the dock to see the boys off. On arrival at Pictou the troops were to be transferred by buses to Stellarton to be joined by several Nova Scotia units and entrain for Aldershot where they were due to arrive early this morning.

Capt. A. R. Cooper left by motor via the Hochelaga to Pictou for the Aldershot Camp where he will be paymaster.

On July 3rd the 2nd Signal Company, under command of Major F. B. Conrad, will leave for Sussex where they will underso their annual training. The P. E. I. Light Horse, under command of Lt.-Col. L. T. Lowther, will go under canvas in Charlottetown in August.

On Friday evening the Tryon United Church was filled to capacity on the occasion of the farewell to Rev. J. L. Lund and family, who are leaving next week to take up their new pastorate at La Have, N. S. Mr. George McKay presided and after the singing of the hymn, "Christ is Made the Sure Foundation," beautifully worded addresses were read and presentation of gifts made as follows:

To Miss Luella Lund from the Young People's Union, address by Leah Lord, presentation by Alice Jewell.

To Mrs. Lund, address by Mrs. Charles Lord, presentation by Mrs. Albert Callbeck.

To Mr. Lund, address by Dr. L. M. Callbeck, presentation by Messrs. Albert Callbeck and Fred Leard.

To Mr. Lund from the Cape Traverse congregation, address by Mrs. John Haslam, presentation by Miss Jean Muttart.

Mr. and Mrs. Lund and Miss Luella responded with sincere words of thanks.

Dr. Genge, pastor of the Tryon Presbyterian Church and Rev. T. DeWolfe of the Baptist Church spoke of the extremely pleasant relations existing between Mr. Lund and themselves. Miss Mary Muttart sang very beautifully "The Day Without a Cloud," and the service closed with the singing of "Blest be the Tie that Bands," following which the congregation adjourned to the vestry and the lawn where a delicious treat of ice cream and cake was served.—D

One of the happiest functions held in Prince Edward Island during the week of the Orange Grand Lodge meetings was that held at Kingston on Friday evening when King William L.O.L 1166 and Queen Mary L.O.B.A. held a joint social hour in honor of Bro W. W. MacPhee, County Master of the County Orange Lodge of Toronto, who was a delegate to the two Grand Lodge meetings, the L.O.L. and the L.O.B.A. and took advantage of the opportunity to visit his many friends in Charlottetown, Murray River, Kingston, and other parts of his native province. It was in Kingston that Mr. MacPhee attended public school, and he said that the very warm welcome he received by his old school chums of the L.O.L. and the L.O.B.A. at Kingston, made this one of the happiest evenings of his life. Musical entertainment was provided by Mrs. Everett Holmes and Mr. Davis Ward, refreshments were served, and remarks were made in keeping with the happy occasion by Allison Auld, County Master of Queen's County; Burgess Newton, Miss Newson, Grand Secretary of the L.O.B.A.; G. F. Younker, Reuben S. Barrett, John Colwell, Golding Barrett, Mrs. John Colwell, Benjamin Ward, G. H. Beer and others.

Prior to the joint social affair, a special meeting of King William Lodge was held at which Wilson Stewart, W. M., presided and the visiting graduate of Kingston School was given an official Orange reception by the lodge in which his father, the late James MacPhee, was initiated and was also invited to preside over the Lodge meeting and occupy the chair in which his father presided as W. Master of King William Lodge many years ago.

After spending the night with friends at Kingston, Mr. MacPhee left for Toronto Saturday morning.

Mrs. J. J. Trainor of Bedford Station, Prince Edward Island, was the winner of the Chevrolet car, grand prize at the five-day bazaar in aid of the Charlottetown Hospital, which closed Saturday night.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Duncan and Mr. Alva Jelley, both of Unionvale, took place Tuesday, June 16th. Rev. Archdeacon White performed the ceremony. The happy young couple will reside in Unionvale.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, June 17th, at the United Church, Bloomfield. Miss Elizabeth Hunter and Mr. Edward MacAusland were united in marriage and immediately after the ceremony left to tour the Island.

—VISITING IN CHESTER, N.S.—Mrs. J. J. Gaudet, and Mrs. Leo Wood left by motor on Saturday morning for Chester, N. S. for a short visit. They were accompanied by Mrs. Owen Zinck who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Gaudet at her pretty new home in Summerside.—S

ARANMORE IN PORT—The C. G. S. Aranmore, Capt. J. C. McDonald, arrived in port Saturday morning after supplying the lighthouses along the coast of Belle Isle. The steamer is now loading further supplies and will leave next Saturday, July 4th, to continue the work. The C. G. S. Brant, Capt. Kelly also arrived in port Saturday after supplying light houses along the Nova Scotia coast.

—MAKES RESCUE — A girl whose name could not be learned was saved from drowning at Miminigash Run Friday night by Henry Gallant of Summerside. Gallant dove into Miminigash Harbor and pulled her from the black waters after she had fallen off a waterfront wharf there. Unable to swim, the girl was struggling helplessly when the Summerside man made the rescue.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of the late John M. Jenkins took place on Wednesday, June 24th at 3 o'clock from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Roland E. Harper, 31 Victory Ave., to Birch Hill Cemetery and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. Ewen McDougall, assisted by Rev. Hugh Miller. The pallbearers were Messrs. Henry Mutlow, James Rankin, Bruce Stewart, Artemas Ferguson and John Rankin.

PRESENTED WITH BOUQUET—At a regular meeting of Memorial Lodge of the L. O. B. A. at Charlottetown on Friday evening Sister Louise Bonnell, R. W. Grand Mistress of P. E. Island was presented by her sisters with a beautiful bouquet of roses in honor of her election to the office of Most Worshipful Grand Lecturer of the L. O. B. A. of British America. Sister Bonnell is the first and only member on the Island to have the honor of being an officer in this Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of British America.

COAL OFFICE IS ENTERED — Burglars who forced their entrance into the office of W. D. Gillis and Co. on lower Water Street during the week-end had little to repay them for their efforts. They found no money in the office. A passer-by last evening about five o'clock saw the door partly open. He notified the City Police who investigated and found that the door of the office had been forced open. Nothing inside had been disturbed, however. The door was secured with a Yale lock and part of the door frame had been broken in forcing the entrance.

—MacGREGOR—BRIERLY NUPTIALS—Island friends will be interested in the marriage of Miss Phyllis Rosella Brierley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Brierly of St. Andrews, Man. to Mr. Hilton MacGregor, son of Mrs. A. MacGregor of St. Andrews. The groom's mother is a sister of Mrs. G. Shelton Sharp and Mr. Oliver MacNeill of Tyne Valley, P. E. Island. The marriage took place on Monday, June 1st in St. John's Cathedral, St. Andrews, at 7 p.m. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon J. O. Murray. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ensemble of powder blue silk crepe with accessories of white. Her corsage bouquet was of butterfly roses. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. MacGregor left by motor for points south.—S

In the passing of Kenneth Forbes Ellis, whose death occurred on Saturday about 7 p. m. Summerside has lost one of its most esteemed citizens. Mr. Ellis was the son of the late Captain John Ellis and was born on the old Ellis homestead at the east end of Summerside. He was 82 years of age.

In early life Mr. Ellis had been to sea with his father and had travelled extensively. Later he was connected with the business activities of Summerside and his fairness and integrity had won for him the confidence and esteem of his associates. He was a delightful conversationalist and his companionship will be missed by a large circle of friends.

He leaves to cherish his memory his widow, one son, Reginald E. Ellis of Summerside, and five daughters, Miss Lorna Ellis, R. N.; Mrs. B. Graham Rogers; Mrs. H. M. Baker, " home; Mrs. Chester Haen of Rhineback, New York, at present at home and Miss Myra Ellis of Morristown, N. J., also two sisters, Mrs. Netus Stanlake and Mrs. Robert Romcke to all of whom much sympathy is extended.

The funeral is taking place this afternoon at [illegible] from his late residence

—VISITING PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND — Colonel Green and his son, Mr. John Green, of Detroit, arrived in Summerside aboard their trim auxiliary "Anyac" commanded by Captain Johnson of San Francisco on Friday. They were entertained by Senator MacArthur at his Lodge at Foxley River and by Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bradshaw, who drove them to some of the beauty spots on the North Shore. This was their first visit to the Island, and they were charmed with the scenery. They left on Monday on their way back to Detroit and will make several calls on their way.—S.

RETURN FROM DELIGHTFUL TRIP—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Murley returned to Charlottetown last night after a delightful visit to Boston and New York. En route to the United States Mr. Murley attended the district convention of Rotary at Moncton, N. B., and then went to Atlantic City where he was present at the sessions of Rotary International. There were 10,000 in attendance at the conference one of the highlights of which was the British Empire dinner. While in New York Mr. and Mrs. Murley were extended an invitation to attend an exclusive Major Bowes' concert through the courtesy of the New York American.

SUCCESSFUL STUDENT — Mr. Robert R. Hogg, third year medical student at Trinity University, Dublin, Ireland, arrived home on Saturday to spend his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hogg, Brighton. Mr. Hogg in his exams obtained 1st class honors in Materia Medica and Therapeutics, missing a $50.00 prize by the narrow margin of two marks. It is interesting to note that Trinity University founded by Queen Elizabeth, built in the 16th Century forms a triumvirate with Oxford and Cambridge. While in Dublin Mr. Hogg had the pleasure of spending some time with Rev. Elliott McGuigan, one of the Island's former premier athletes, a son of Dr. J. D. MacGuigan, who will next month be ordained a priest in the Order of Jesuits.

—BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWERED—Friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Walker at New Annan on Friday evening to tender a shower to Miss Ernestine Marchbank, one of this week's brides. The rooms were tastefully decorated with roses and ferns. As the bride entered the room Miss Pauline Callbeck played the Wedding March. The bride-to-be received some very lovely pieces of silver, china and linen. Assisting the hostess in her duties were Miss Margaret Pillman, Miss Myrtle Taylor, Miss Margaret Marchbank, Miss Anna Jardine, Miss Evelyn Ramsay and Miss Margaret Townshend. The evening passed quickly in music and games. After the hostess had served refreshments the guests departed, wishing Miss Marchbank much happiness in the future. S.

In the passing of Mrs. William H. Scott at an early hour in the City Hospital Sunday morning, charitable organizations in this city have lost a valuable member and worker.

Taken ill about six weeks ago, Mrs. Scott entered the Hospital, where everything possible was done to restore her to her wonted vigor. When it was found there was no response to treatment her son William of Duluth, Minn. was sent for and arrived before her passing.

The late Mrs. Scott was for a number of years a member of St. Joseph's Sodality in which she took an active part; a member of the Altar Society, of St. Dunstan's Basilica, and was at all times identified with any charitable work in the parish.

In addition to a sorrowing husband, she leaves two sons, Wm. barrister of Duluth, Minn., and Guy Scott, clerk at the Queen Hotel, to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother —RETURNED HOME — Mrs. Thomas E. Ramsay, Miss Zilpha MacQuarrie and Mr. Lee Linkletter have returned to their homes in Summerside after a pleasant motor trip through Cape Breton. They followed the Cabot Trail and were delighted with the scenery. They also visited the Moose River mines and Louisburg. S.

—INJURED IN CAR ACCIDENT—Mr. Napoleon Arsenault of Mont Carmel was returning from the eastern end of the Island on Saturday night in company with his son, who was driving and who in making the turn for Linkletter Road took it too quickly, overturning the car. Mr. Arsenault received severe cuts about the face and was taken to the Prince County Hospital, where he received treatment. S.

—DREDGE ARRIVES—The dredge, General Kerr, Captain Goldridge of the Federal Dredging Co., St. John, N. B. has arrived in Summerside from Chatham, N. B. The dredge with her two scows were brought from Chatham by the tugs, G. M. Sterns of Chatham and the Sampson of Halifax. After the dredge had docked the Sampson left for Halifax. The Sterns will remain here as a tender for the dredge.—S.

—ENJOYABLE MOTOR TRIP—Mr. Wright Leard, Mr. and Mrs. Prince Leard, Mrs. W. N. Jenkins and Mrs. A. W. Schurman, all of Bedeque, returned last week from a most enjoyable two weeks motor trip to Boston, Lexington and other places in Massachusetts. During the course of their travels, they motored over the White Mountains. While in Watertown Mrs. Schurman visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Caldwell, formerly of Kensington, P. E. I.—B.

—FUNERAL OF K. F. ELLIS—The funeral services for Mr. Kenneth Forbes Ellis, which took place from his late residence on Belmont Street, Summerside, yesterday afternoon, were very largely attended in spite of the downpour of rain. Rev. Walter MacCleary officiated at the house and grave. The pall bearers were, Messrs. E. H. Foley, Donald Baker, E. E. Parkman, P. T. Colvin, Percy Crosby and Heath Strong. Interment was in the Peoples Cemetery.—S.

On Wednesday afternoon, June 17th, the members of the Kensington School Improvement Society held a picnic at French River Harbor with Mrs. J. Edward Warren as guest of honor, previous to her departure from Kensington.

A large number were present and a happy hour was spent on the beach before supper was served in the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. James Jardine, which was graciously placed at their disposal.

After supper Mr. John Thompson acted as chairman, and Mrs. William MacLean read an address and Miss Mary Ready presented Mrs. Warren with a beautiful leather travelling case.

—PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER — A pre-nuptial shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Jardine, Kensington, Monday evening, June 22nd, in honor of their niece, Miss Adelaide Humphrey. The rooms were tastefully decorated in pink and white and with a profusion of flowers. The bride-to-be was escorted to the chair of honor by Mrs. (Dr.) I. W. Jardine, while Mrs. Harold Laird played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The heavily laden baskets of parcels were carried in by little Norma and Andrew Humphrey, niece and nephew of the bride. The gifts were opened by Miss Doris Jardine, of Freetown, while Mrs. Myron MacArthur and Miss Margaret Curtis read the verses. Miss Humphrey gracefully thanked her friends for the many beautiful gifts. A number of musical selections were given by Miss LePage, also a vocal solo by Miss Dorothy MacKenzie. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

On Thursday, June 25th, some 100 members of the congregation of the Kensington United Church gathered at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Laird, Kelvin Grove, for a social evening in honour of Mrs. J. Edward Warren and her son Lloyd on the eve of their departure from Kensington. Dr. A. A. Lockhart acted as chairman and in a few well-chosen remarks, expressed pleasure at the large number present and explained the reason for the gathering.

Mrs. Patterson Walker was called upon to read the address, while Mrs. Preston Kennedy made a presentation of a nice purse to Mrs. Warren on behalf of those present. Mrs. Warren made gracious acknowledgment of the gift and the good will expressed.

The following short programme was then rendered: Piano selections by Mrs. Irvin Jay; a vocal duet by Messrs. Harry Brown and Ernest Dunning; a humorous reading by Mrs. W. C. MacLeod, and a vocal solo "Star of Love", from the Operetta "Chonitra", by Mr. Arnold Taylor.

After a substantial lunch, a sing song, led by the gentlemen present and accompanied by Mrs. Jay at the piano, was very much enjoyed by all.

THURSDAY

Among the visitors to Prince Edward Island Monday night were Mrs. Dr. James Farley and her two young daughters from New York. They will spend the summer at her father's home, Neil S. Ross of Fortune Head.

A happy event of more than passing importance took place in New Argyle on the evening of June 16th when relatives and friends assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry MacNevin to celebrate the 25th anniversary of their wedding.

The death occurred at the City Hospital shortly before midnight on Tuesday, at the early age of 20 years, of Stephen Raymond Duffy, youngest son of Mrs. Sarah Anne Duffy, widow of the late Stephen P. Duffy, Charlottetown.

—DELIVERED ADDRESS — In the account of the social evening spent at Mr. Harold Laird's, Kelvin Grove, in honor of Mrs. J. E. Warren, it was inadvertently omitted that the pastor of the United Church, Rev. B. C. Salter, was present and delivered an interesting address appropriate to the occasion. B.

Brother V. Andrew, a member of the Brothers of the Christian Schools of San Francisco, California, arrived on the Island recently. He is accompanied by Bernard J. McDonald, his cousin from San Anselmo, California, who is visiting his relatives at Gowan Brae, Little Pond and New Zealand.

An enjoyable function under the auspices of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of Zion Church was held last evening in the Church hall in honor of Rev. G. Carlyle Webster and Mrs. Webster who yesterday celebrated the 20th anniversary of their wedding.

The stage was attractively decorated with a profusion of cut flowers, while streamers of white were everywhere in evidence. Mr. Reg. McNutt presided and read a complimentary address to the guests of honor while Mr. Murdock Ross, on behalf of the Society graciously presented Mr. and Mrs. Webster with a handsome Aynsley china coffee set.

On Wednesday evening, June 17, 1936 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Jay, Midgell, P. E. I. a quiet and pretty wedding took place in the presence of immediate friends and neighbors, when their daughter, Mary Alice was united in marriage to Mr. George MacLean, Bangor, P. E. I. The bride is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay, while the groom is the foster son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Grant, Bangor.

The marriage took place in the evening at 7.30 o'clock, Mr. MacLean was supported by Mr. Roy Jay a brother of the bride; while the bridesmaid was Miss Violet Lutz of Midgell. The bride wore a gown of white silk crepe with wedding veil, and carried a pretty white bouquet; and the bridesmaid was dressed in royal blue silk crepe with a bouquet of colored flowers.

This last award to Miss Strong is a correction of a previous announcement in which it was erroneously awarded to another student, but on a closer examination of results Miss Strong was found to be the winner.

The 69th annual association of the Island Baptist Churches, convened with the East Point Baptist Church on June 25th, to June 28th. A large number of delegates were present and all sessions taxed the seating capacity of the church. The sessions were in charge of Rev. H. L. Denton, Charlottetown, as Moderator and Rev. J. B. Wilson, Summerside as Clerk. The digest of church letters and reports of the different organizations of church work showed a great increase in the membership and the interest in all departments of the work of the denomination. Despite the trying economic conditions facing many of the rural fields, these churches are more than holding their own both materially and spiritually. The work of the educational institutional at Wolfville was represented by the Field Sect., Rev. E. A. Kinley. The British and Foreign Bible Society by Rev. J. M. Murcheson. The Maritime Baptist report was presented by Lic. Kenneth Eaton, O'Leary; the Grande Ligne Mission, which is celebrating its centenary this year was ably represented by Rev. L. E. Therrien, Principle of Pellar Institute. The Foreign Mission and Home Mission Boards represented by Rev. Dr. Glendenning and Rev. Dr. Mason. The Western Mission Board was represented by Rev. H. R. Bell, East Point

—VERY HIGH MARKS—Master Billy Durant son of Mr. Neil Durant, town clerk and Mrs. Durant, received a special prize from his teacher, Mrs. Bertha Wood, for having made 99.6 for the year's work. Mrs. Wood stated that this was the highest average ever obtained in Grade V., and was deserving of special recognition.—S

MR. MALCOLM MCINNIS

The people of Pleasant Valley and surrounding communities were deeply grieved and shocked when it became known that Mr. Malcolm McInnis had quietly and peacefully passed away on June 13th at the age of 74. He had been under medical treatment for years.

MRS. JOHN A. MACDONALD

The sudden and unexpected passing of Mrs. John A. Macdonald (nee Flora Isabella McSwain) of Greek River on May 15th, 1936 in her 63rd year, came as a shock to this community especially to the members of her family and the many relatives and friends with whom she was so intimately associated.

Mr. John B. Roper of Royalty was elected President at the annual meeting of the P. E. Island Silver Fox Breeders and Exhibitors Association, which was held in Summerside on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Samuel Johnson of Fortune Bridge was elected Vice-president.

There was a very large representation of fox breeders from all over the Province, and important matters relating to feeds and fox ranching in general were discussed.

—GOLD MEDALLIST—Raymond Farrell, son of Dr. Donald and Mrs. Farrell of Summerside was especially congratulated by Mayor Robinson on Tuesday at the closing exercises of the High School, on his having won the distinction of receiving the Governor Geeral's Medal for this year. Mayor Robinson had an especial interest in the boy, as his father was a comrade of Mayor Robinson in the World War. Mrs. Farrell is a native of Belgium and it is gratifying to feel that her son has been awarded this honour, said Mayor Robinson.—S

A recommendation that the jail be established on Falconwood property and thus give prisoners an opportunity to work on the farm was contained in the report of the Grand Jury submitted at the term of the Supreme Court which opened in Charlottetown Tuesday. "We feel that this would be a decided improvement and tend to raise the moral and physical condition of the prisoners" the report continued. The Jury inspected the Infirmary and Falconwood Hospital and reported that both institutions were being conducted in a very satisfactory manner. The report contained a number of recommendations several of which pertained to highway traffic in the province.

True bills were found against Russell Abbott and William E. Phillips, each separately charged with manslaughter and Alfred Clinton, Cyrene Kelly and Fred Phillips charged with robbery with violence. The three accused will be arraigned this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

MONDAY

ACCIDENT VICTIM RECOVERING—The sailors of the "Talaralite" who were recent victims of a highway accident at Fredericton, and who have since been patients in the P. E. I. and Charlottetown hospitals, wish to thank most sincerely the doctors and nursing staffs of both hospitals, also Mr. Frank Cutliff, Fredericton, who rendered valuable assistance at the time of the accident, and Mrs. F. W. Luque, Crapaud, for her thoughtful gift of flowers. Of the four men who entered hospital, three have now been discharged and the fourth, who sustained a fractured pelvis, is recovering satisfactorily.

It was with sincere regret that a wide circle of relatives and friends learned of the death of Mrs. James W. Taylor, highly esteemed and beloved by all. Her passing, at the comparatively early age of sixty leaves a great vacancy in the home and community. Mrs. Taylor was formerly Sophia Burdett, daughter of the late Thomas and Mary Burdett of Fairview. Not being in good health, she decided a visit to her sister, Mrs. James Smith. While there she became seriously ill. Realizing her illness was beyond human aid, she commended her spirit to God and put her trust in him, bearing her cross with great patience, comforted to the end by visits from Rev. Carlyle Webster, Rev. D. K. Ross, and Rev. James Robertson.

WEDDING BELLS — Malpeque United Church Manse was the scene of a quiet and pretty marriage at 10 a.m. on June 30th. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. Murray. The contracting parties were Marion Ruth Simpson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Simpson, Malpeque, to William Ellsworth Bagnall, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pope Bagnall, Hunter River. The bride looked charming in a white silk crepe suit, with hat and accessories to match, carrying a bouquet of pink roses and maiden hair fern. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Jean Simpson, who wore a maize silk crepe suit and white accessories. The groom was ably supported by Winston J. Mayne, B. Sc., M.A., of Emerald. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to Summerside and Borden where they took the noon boat for a motor trip through the Maritimes; on their return they will be entertained to a reception at the home of the bride for the immediate relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Bagnall will reside in Hunter River. Many friends wish them bon voyage through life.

—RETUENED FROM ENGLAND—Mrs. Hugh Brown and little son, Donald, returned last week from London, England, and are at present visiting Mrs. Brown's parents, Captain Fred Peters and Mrs. Peters. Mr. Brown was one of the teachers from Winnipeg chosen to represent that City under the Empire Teachers Exchange. They went over to London last September. Mr. Brown taught in several schools in the Metropolis. Mr. Brown is making a tour of continental cities.—S.

Wheatley River district suffered a severe and sudden loss in the recent death of Norman Ling, aged 68. Although he had been in more or less indifferent health for some years, Mr. Ling was enjoying the outside activities of his home and farm on the day of his death. He was a successful farmer, had lived all his life in the one house. He belonged to the Order of Foresters, served as a Trustee of the School Board, was interested in politics and in the general well-being of the community. He was a loyal supporter of the United Church. He was the father of nine children, all living, and grandfather of eight. As a father and husband he was the essence of kindliness.

The son of John Stanford Ling and Mary MacRae Ling, he married Alice Matheson, who still survives him.

—FORTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—There was a happy family celebration last Sunday, June 28th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. MacIvor, Kinkora, on the occasion of their 40th wedding anniversary. All the family were present and a number of grandchildren. Many letters and messages of congratulations were received from friends from far and near. The sons and daughters are, Mrs. J. A. Brown, Bayside, Lot 16; Charles McIvor, Summerside; Harold MacIvor, Summerside; Miss Blanche MacIvor, teaching school at Borden; Mrs. J. E. Kelly, Kinkora; Emmett MacIvor, Kinkora; John D. MacIvor, Newton; and Miss Mary MacIvor from Dorchester, Mass.—S.

CARPENTERS TO INVESTIGATE—Investigation into charges that the city of Charlottetown was "not meeting requirements" of Charlottetown Carpenters' Union in civic projects employing carpenters will be made by the city joiners organization, it was decided at a meeting last night. A committee appointed by the Carpenters Union to study possibility of organizing a Trades and Labor Union for the city reported "good progress" was being made in their efforts to bring together under one organization all Charlottetown trades employees and laborers. Harold Bernard is chairman of the committee, Mr. Roy Wood, president, was in the chair last night.

WEDDING BELLS—A wedding of much interest took place in Rollo Bay, Wednesday, June 24th at 8 o'clock when Miss Mary Mallard daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Mallard, was united in marriage to Mr. Peter Fisher of Charlottetown. The bride wore a pretty suit of blue beige with accessories to match and white hat. She was attended by her sister Miss Lillian Mallard, who was very winsome in a blue silk dress Mr. William Mallard, jr. brother of the bride ably supported the groom. After the ceremony the wedding party drove to New Zealand where a dainty breakfast was served at the home of the bride. The wedding guests then motored to Charlottetown for dinner. In the evening supper was served to about one hundred guests at the bride's home, followed by a dance. The bride and groom are very popular in the neighbourhood and received many lovely gifts previous to their marriage. They will make their future home in Charlottetown.

DIES FROM INJURIES—Brought to Prince Edward Island from the Magdalene Islands for treatment for severe leg injuries suffered when he was caught by a schooner's power winch, Alexandre Richard, 63-year-old Grindstone seaman, died in hospital yesterday. Richard was injured Wednesday while he was working on a vessel at Grindstone. Accompanied by a nurse who gave him first aid for a badly lacerated leg, he was brought to Souris, P. E. I., Wednesday night by a speedy motor boat and was rushed from the Eastern island port to the Charlottetown Hospital by a waiting ambulance. Physicians were unable to amputate the injured limb because of Richard's weakened condition following the long boat and motor trip to Charlottetown. The body will be returned to Grindstone for burial.

A contingent of Boy Scouts, one hundred strong, the largest number in recent years, went under canvas at Brudenell Point, "Camp DeRoma", yesterday. Coming from all sections of the province the boys arrived at noon and by evening were all comfortably situated to begin their ten days outdoor training course. The camp is up-to-date in every way adhering strictly to the rules and regulations as laid down by the Scout Association.

President L. D. Murray of the Provincial Association and Commissioner J. J. Morris were on hand the opening day and expressed themselves delighted with the camp and prospects for the practical application of Scout work. The camp is under the direction of Field Commissioner William Warren, Camp Chief, and Assistant-Field Commissioner Fred Driscoll, Assistant Camp Chief, and Mr. R. C. Parent, Provincial Secretary. Alison Rogers, second year medical student at McGill, is camp Medical Officer, and Ralph Smith, Camp Quartermaster.

The camp was divided into eight patrols under the following Patrol Leaders, Tanton MacNeill, Roland Oatway, Herbert Murray, Miller MacDonald, Jack McCarville, Lawrence Doyle, Vincent King, John Dooley.

HARRY LAUDER'S PIPER—There were no fewer than 17 pipers at the Caledonian Club Scottish Gathering at Ugg, one of them being Mr. George A. Martin Belmont, Mass., a member of the Boston St. Andrew's Society. He is a native of Union Road, Kings County, and a brother of Dr. Herbert A. Martin, Iowa. Mr. Martin has a magnificent record as a piper and judge of pipe playing and when Harry Lauder last visited the U. S. A. accompanied him as piper.

On Tuesday evening, June 16th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank MacKay, Darnley, was the scene of an interesting event when their daughter Muriel became the bride of Mr. Roy Crozier, son of Mr. W. S. Crozier, also of Darnley. Rev. George Murray of Malpeque United Church was the officiating clergymen. The bride looked very winsome attired in pink georgette with veil and orange blossoms and carried a bridal bouquet. She entered the parlor on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Robert Cousins. Her small sister Esther made a charming flower girl. Following the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served to the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Crozier left the following morning for a trip to the mainland. The bride's travelling suit was brown wool crepe with hat and accessories to match. They are to reside in Darnley where the groom is a prosperous farmer. Hosts of friends wish them many years of happiness.
