LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon Charles Slate, charged with drunkenness, was fined $90 or 90 days. He took the days.

ST. PATRICK'S HALL.—The programme prepared for the concert tonight is a good one and should attract a large audience.

TEMPLARS.—Will members of Charlottetown Lodge kindly be prompt to-night as very important business will come before the meeting. Visiting strangers welcome.

FOUND DEAD.—A Halifax despatch says: Mrs. Marcelle Steele was found dead in bed at her home, Campbell road, this morning. Mrs. Steele has been heard to complain at times of pain in or near the heart.

LOG ROLLING.—The latest issue of the Dominion Bank bills contains as a centre piece a view of lumber men rolling logs. The design is suggestive of the log rolling proclivities of the Government which issued the bill.

THE WORST FEARED.—Advices from Louisburg, C. B., state that quantities of wreckage, consisting of bulwarks, topmasts, hatches, etc., have been coming ashore on the coast near there. As two small schooners were sighted off there just before the gale sprang up on Friday last it is feared they were lost with all hands.

HIS THIRD SET.—Freeman Noyles so well and favorably known here, and who has but three years to live to have attained his three score and ten, is now cutting his third set of teeth. He had his front teeth extracted about ten years ago and is now proud of a new set just appearing.—Sackville Post.

THE NEW GAS COMPANY opened up their uptown office last evening and made a wonderful show. The Auer light illuminated the office brilliantly while the many gas heaters and working appliances caused many favorable comments. The office will be open each afternoon and evening. Friday evening will be reserved for ladies and their escorts only. The crowd last evening prevented ladies from seeing very much.

SAD DEATH.—Mr. Geo. McKenzie, of the Registry Office, died suddenly last evening. We understand that Mr. McKenzie was suspected of appendicitis and that an operation revealed that he had perforation of the bowels presumably as a complication of typhoid fever. All that human skill could do in his case was done and much sympathy is expressed with his wife and family. Mr. McKenzie belonged to New London, and made many friends during his term of office in Charlottetown.

LOST BOTH TRAIN AND LIFE.—A warning to those who run for a train comes from Aylmer, Ont. Mr. A. D. McDonald, a news agent, after dinner ran from the hotel to the station to catch his train, and return to his family in St. Thomas. He was late and ran nearly all the way out, but the train had gone when he got there. He walked back to town and went to the store of Mr. Palmer. Leaning up against a work bench at the back of the store, he remarked to Mr. Palmer and his daughter that he had never ran so hard in his life to catch a train, and expressed regret at missing it. Almost immediately he placed his hand over his heart, saying, "Oh, I've got an awful pain." Those were his last words, as he fell on the floor a corpse.

MARRIAGE AT HUNTER RIVER.

An event of a highly interesting and most important character took place yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. D. McKinnon, station master at Hunter River. The allusion is to the marriage of Mr. McKinnon's daughter Katie A., and Mr. John M. Nicholson, the popular and efficient station agent at Wiltshire. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. Miller, in the presence of the immediate friends of the persons interested. The bride was attended by Miss Jeanette McLeod, of Hunter River, and Mr. H. Bethune, of Charlottetown, supported the groom. The bride was dressed in fawn trimmed with lace to match, and the bridesmaid wore grey. Among the many valuable presents received by the bride was a handsome clock from the choir of the Presbyterian church of which she is a member. The groom was presented with an address of congratulation and also with a very handsome clock, by the members of the Order of Telegraphers in the railway service, to which he repited in fitting terms. A well-prepared supper was served after the marriage ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson have THE EXAMINER'S best wishes.

IT DON'T PAY.

To buy drinks for the boys—it don't pay to buy drinks for yourself. It will pay to quit. But the trouble has been to do this. My Vegetable Cure will absolutely remove all desire for liquor in a couple of days, so you can quit without any self-denial, and nobody need know you are taking medicine. You'll save money and gain in health and self-respect from the start. Medicine is perfectly harmless, is pleasant to taste, steady nerves, and does not interfere with business duties.—Full particulars sealed. Mr. A. Hutton Dixon, No. 40 Park Avenue, Montreal.

The Queen is returning to Windsor and will make final arrangements for the settlement of the Duchess of Teck's estate. The Duke of Teck's income will be heavily reduced by his wife's death, but she left him at least £1000 a year and jewels and plate worth $250,000. These will probably be purchased by the Duchess of York or the Queen, and the Duke will be enabled to remain at White Lodge.
