Montreal Stocks
MONTREAL (CP)—The stock market closed with a weak undertone Tuesday, following a firm opening. Declines ranged to about three points in extremes as trading slackened to its slowest pace in weeks. Papers, buoyant at the outset, gave ground as the session progressed and closed considerably softer. Utilities were mixed in the fractional range with the exception of Shawinigan, off a point at 65. Noranda was weak in the base metals. Other issues showed minor changes both ways. McColl led the senior oils narrowly easier. Banks were unchanged to slightly lower. Stocks in pattern. Constructions slumped. There were a few price variations in the carriers and rail equipments. Mines were generally lower in a few cents range with the bulk of activity concentrated in a few senior grade speculative issues. Western oils declined fractionally. Western oils were trendless in quiet trade.
