Nashua And Other Belair Horses On Block Thursday

By JOHN CHANDLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Next Thursday at 11 a. m. a group of men will sit down in a paneled oak office room in Wall Street to dictate the sale of Nashua and bring an end to one of racing's greatest stables.

Passing from the scene will be the famous Belair Stud, fittingly in the offices of the Hanover Bank, which William Woodward, Jr., served many years as president and then chairman of the board. Woodward built up the stable and for more than 30 years saw his horses capture major stakes races here and abroad.

Upon his death two years ago the stable passed on to William Woodward, Jr., who died in a shooting accident Oct. 30.

Sealed bids will be opened and the highest bidder, if acceptable by the executors, will find himself with Nashua, the powerful three-year-old champion and No. 1 horse of 1955. Some say he's worth as much as $1,000,000 dollars. He's insured for $750,000.

IN 4 CATEGORIES

Actually, bidding will be in four categories: (a) Nashua; (b) other race horses and yearlings; (c) broodmares and weanlings; and (d) a packaage deal for Nashua and the entire stable and breeding stock.

This will be a sale unprecedented in thoroughbred racing, for never has an American champion gone on the block at the peak of his career.

More than the mere settlement of a racing estate is involved. Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, the 8 year-old trainer who was part and parcel of the great racing empire for more than a quarter of a century, will go on training for the Wheatley Stable, Ogden Phipps and Whitney Stone. But there must be a vast vacancy in the Fitzsimmons barns.

The elder Woodward saw his horses win the Belmont five times and Nashua made it six for the Belair Stud last June.

Woodward inherited the Belair Stud farm at Bowie, Md., 45 years ago upon the death of his uncle, James T. Woodward. Belair is the oldest stud farm in this country, but the farm itself will noot be involved in the bidding next Thursday.

Gallant Fox, the great Fox of Belair, won the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont Triple also swung the big Triple in 1935. Johnstown won the Derby and Belmont in 1939.

Having won the big races over here, Woodward's next big objective was the Epsom Derby.

WON ST. LEGER

Black Tarquin missed in the 1948 English Derby, but won the St. Leger. Two years later, Woodward's Prince Simon was beaten a head by Galcador in the Epsom classic.

Nashua won the two-year-old championship in 1954, climaxing his sensational season by giving Belair and Mr. Fitz their first futurity at Belmont.

He was upset by Swaps in the big Louisville classic for his first loss this year. He next won the Preakness, the Belmont, Dwyer and Arlington races.

Racing fans set up a clamor for a match race with Swaps, who had gone back to California and was cleaning up for Rex Ellsworth. Young Woodward and Ellsworth finally agreed to a $100,000 winner-take-all match, over the mile and one quarter Derby distance Aug. 31 at Washington Park.

NASHUA BEATS SWAPS

Eddie Arcaro and Nashua defeated Willie Shoemaker and Swaps in one of the great matches in history. The race was the seventh of $100,000 gross value won by Nashua during 1955.

"It had to happen this way," said Mr. Fitz at Hialeah Park when he heard of the impending sale.

"Quite a bunch of girls," he remarked of the Belair broodmares. "It's funny, but I kinda think of them like I do my grandchildren."

As for the price Nashua might bring, Sunny Jim replied:

"I don't know how to answer that. . . . To me, it's like asking a man to put a price on his son."

Beavers Score Four In 3rd To Defeat Moncton

MONCTON (CP) — League-leading Saint John Beavers blasted home four third-period goals here Saturday night to trim Moncton Hawks 5-3 in a fast moving Atlantic Coast Senior Hockey League game.

The Beavers counted the lone first-period goal. Moncton struck for a pair in the second and held a 2-1 advantage entering the final session, but the Beavers quickly wiped out the deficit.

Jim Shirley, the league's leading netminder, stopped 20 shots in the Saint John net. Nick Pidsodny Hawks goalie, was sharp in the first two periods, but faltered in the third and looked bad on a couple of the goals scored. He stopped 29 shots.

Bobo Olson Calls Time-Out For Stock-Taking

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A dejected Carl (Bobo) Olson, knocked out of his middleweight championship at Chicago Friday night, nursed his wounds in seclusion Sunday and took stock of his chances — professional, domestic and financial.

"I sure will try to get that crown back—and quick," was his explosive answer to a reporter's question about his 90-day option for a rematch with three-time champion Sugar Ray Robinson.

But neither fighter's manager seemed to think there would be a rematch very soon. Sugar Ray's manager, George Gainford, said Bobo should "go out and make himself a reputation before he thinks about a rematch."

Sid Flaherty, Olson's manager, said flatly his ex-champ "will fight no more" until he patches up a breach with his wife and gets his affairs straightened around.

TWO SUITS PENDING

On Bobo's personal card of preliminaries are a pending divorce action and a $500,000 breach of contract suit.

The suit, brought by Honolulu dairyman Herbert Campos, is set for trial today in federal court. Campos is trying to collect from Olson and Flaherty one-third of the fighter's net proceeds since June, 1951, the date when he charges Bobo jumped a contract with him to put himself under the Flaherty management in San Francisco.

A bid for part of Olson's $65,000 slice of the Friday night Chicago fight gate also is implicit in the divorce action filed Nov. 17 by Mrs. Dolores Olson. She said her husband had "walked out on her" and blamed "men-chasing women, who prey on men whether they are married or not."

Closed Circuit T.V. Not Convenient For Hockey

MONTREAL (CP)—Operators of the six National League clubs say that closed circuit theatre television for Stanley Cup hockey could not conveniently be applied to hockey for the present at least.

The Montreal Star published a review of a survey conducted among the hockey bigwigs. Here are their comments:

James D. Norris of the Chicago Black Hawks: "The only way it can be profitable is by lining up an extensive circuit of theatres. I doubt seriously if a circuit could be lined up for Stanley Cup competition which runs over a period of weeks and is not a one-night event like boxing."

Frank Selke of the Montreal Canadiens: "My first quick view is that hockey belongs to the nation. If the game were confined to theatres our purpose would be defeated."

Walker Brown of the Boston Bruins: "I don't think there would be a demand for it as far as hockey in the United States is concerned, even for the Stanley Cup games. The demand for hockey would be so restricted, I just don't think its feasible."

WOULD CONSIDER

Bruce A. Norris of the Detroit Red Wings: "The suggestion deserves some serious consideration. I will be interested to hear the views of the other owners on this subject."

Conn Smythe of the Toronto Maple Leafs: "We are not giving any thought at the present time to theatre television for Stanley Cup competition. We believe hockey owes something to its fans and the terrific support we have had over the radio, and now from television, has enabled us to get a very fair price for our product through these two mediums."

John Reed Kilpatrick of the New York Rangers: "When a sufficient number of Canadian theatres are equipped for the system the NHL governors will have to weigh the possibility of income from this source against the income received from sponsored home television."

"Duck" MacLeod Playing Great Hockey For B.U.

Charlottetown's gift to Boston University Don MacLeod has been drawing raves lately for his hockey ability.

Tom Gerber, writing in the Boston Traveller headlines his story "Canadians Set Pace In College Hockey" and goes on to write about Don and two other Canadian boys

One of the players is Terry O'Malley who is quite a star for Harvard and the other is John Carruthers of Calgary who plays on the same team as MacLeod.

Both Carruthers and Duck were apparently big surprises to B. U. hockey coach Harry Cleverly. Cleverly knew that MacLeod was a hot baseball prospect but his hockey prowess was apparently unknown until he hit the ice this season and quickly became a star on the team. Cleverly has switched Don from a forward to a defenseman for, as Gerber writes, "MacLeod can play almost any position".

In a recent 5-3 B.U. victory over Yale Gerber describes the parts played by Don and Carruthers this way; ". . . both displayed the kind of ice savvy seldom seen in U. S. College play."

The Rams clinched their first Western Conference title since 1951 Sunday by crushing Green Bay Packers 31-17 as the regular National Football League season came to a close.

The runnerup Chicago Bears did all they could to put pressure on the Rams, tripping Philadelphia Eagles 17-10. But the Bears needed a whopping assist from the Packers and they didn't get it.

Ray Robinson Says Next Move Up To Bobo Olson

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP) — It was after noontime Saturday and Sugar Ray Robinson still lay languidly in bed.

"What a glorious feeling," Robinson yawned. "You wake up one morning still fretting in your mind whether you really are a has-been.

'Then you wake up the next morning and you're middleweight champion of the world again."

Entirely unmarked after his surprising second-round knockout of Bobo Olson at the Chicago Stadium Friday night, Robinson waved at a nearby bed-stand.

"Look at those telegrams. There must be more than 200. A lot of people in there I haven't heard from in a long time.

"One gave me a real charge. It was from Jake Lamotta. He said 'I told all these so-and-so's you would knock this guy silly.' "

Jake was the man Robinson first won the middleweight title from, also at the Chicago Stadium, Feb. 14, 1951. Jake also was knocked silly by Sugar Ray but it took 13 rounds and Lamotta still was on his feet at the end.

PUNCH WAS LEFT

Robinson's manager, George Gainford, scarcely stopped talking —on the telephone, to writers, to Robinson and to anybody who would listen.

"No, it was the left hook, not the right uppercut," George would say. "What do you mean Moore (Archie) softened up Olson? Ray did that when he knocked out Olson the first time."

Sugar Ray and Gainford both agreed Robinson's next step is all up to Olson, who had a 90-day rematch clause in his contract.

"I'll meet my obligation to Olson," was all Robinson said about the man he now has defeated three times.

"Let Bobo go out and get a reputation," snorted Gainford. "What kind of a draw will you get if these two men meet once more with the public having nothing better to remember than that knockout Friday night?"

The federal government had a writ attaching Sugar Ray's $46,439 share of the $110,757 net gate. But Robinson already had been advanced $30,000, it was learned, and the government got its hands only on some $16,000.

Olson, who flew back to San Francisco soon after his quick dethroning, collected $65,014.

PLANS NO CAREER

Asked about the possibility of defending his title against France's Charley Humez, Argentina's Eduardo Lausse, Joe Giambra, just released from the U. S. army, or Ralph (Tiger) Jones, who nearly stopped Robinson's comeback before it started, Robinson replied:

'I acomplished a great personal achievement Friday night. I won back the title when they all said I couldn't do it. At 35, I'm not going to make a career of being champion. Somebody may win it from me, but right now I can't say who I'll fight or when, especially when I don't know what Olson wants to do."

Palladino Gets Heavy Fine And Suspension

AMHERST, (CP)—T. H. Fenety, president of the Atlantic Coast Senior Hockey League, slapped a $100 fine and 10-game suspension on Saint John Beaver forward Vip Palladino Sunday for a stick-swinging attack on Amherst Ramblers' Emmett Kennedy.

Palladino was also ordered to post a $200 bond as guarantee against a repeat of the incident which sent Kennedy from a game last week with a mild concussion.

Dick Andres of Amherst, a league vice-president, said the penalty was "far too lenient" and "it is for the man's own good that he be dealt with more severely."

"His past record is very bad. In Ontario, he was thrown out of a league for the same thing." Andres said.
