Evangelistic Services Begin

Capacity congregations filled the auditorium of Central Christian Church in the opening meetings of the great fall evangelistic meeting. Evangelist Walter E. Strom spoke in the morning on the topic, "No Man Careth for my Soul." "It is required of every Christian to possess a Saviour and the lonely, discouraged and broken hearted person needing a Saviour and a hope," said Evangelist. The evening message "The Best Good News the 20th Century has Ever Heard," stirred the hearts of the large congregation. The Gospel of Redemption is that Good News. Singing Evangelist Weale will lead the meetings in song each night this week and will contribute instrumental selections. The Protestant Orphanage choir will sing tonight.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Elsie B. MacNeill who departed this life Nov. 28, 1943.

You are not forgotten dear sister neither do your memories fade. Sweetest thoughts will always linger around the grave where you are laid.

Ever remembered by Mother, Brothers and Sisters.

In loving memory of our daughter, Thelma Mallett, died Nov. 27th, 1953.

No one knows how much we miss you. No one knows the bitter pain we have suffered since you left us.

Life will never be the same. In our hearts your memory lingers sweetly, tender, fond and true. There is not a day dear Thelma that we do not think of you.

Ever remembered by Father and Mother.

Knights Of Columbus Hold Memorial Service

The memorial service of the Knights of Columbus was held in the Holy Name Hall last night by the members of the Charlottetown Council, who had previously attended a Holy Hour at St. Dunstan's Basilica. This service is held each year in memory of the members of the council who passed away during the year. The following deceased members were remembered in this year's service: Dr. F. C. Dougan, Frank X. Dorsey, Frank Flynn, Charles Bradley, Gordon W. Dawson, Capt. W. J. Sigsworth and Leonard Murphy. The eulogies for the deceased were given by Leo Callaghan, Claude Carroll, Louis Butler, Leo Bradley, C. St. Clair Trainor, Charles Boudreau and Brendan Curran, respectively.

The address "Our Order and Its Dead" was delivered by Rev. T. P. Butler. The service was the direction of Deputy Grand Knight Urban McQuaid, who was assisted by Grand Knight John T. Doyle, Chancellor Rev. James Kelly, Chaplain Rev. P. McMahon, Warden Urban McQuaid and Choir Leader Connie LeClair. At the conclusion of the memorial service, State Deputy John Cameron of Summerside gave a report of the proceedings of the Supreme Convention of the Order, which was held in Philadelphia last August. The meeting was very largely attended by members from Charlottetown and surrounding areas and from Summerside. His Excellency Most Reverend Malcolm MacEachern closed the meeting with a brief address regarding the responsibilities of the Knights.

Returns From Extended Trip

Hon. J. A. Bernard returned on Thursday from an extended visit to Massachusetts and Canadian cities where he renewed friendships of long standing and enjoyed the hospitality of members of his own family. In Boston he took part in celebrating the 50th anniversary of the marriage of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bernard. All members of the family residing in the vicinity of Boston were assembled to do honour to the happy couple. He also spent a week with his daughter Mrs. Dr. Loth, at Rosindale, Mass. At Toronto Hon. Mr. Bernard visited his son-in-law and family, Dr. James Higgins of Charlottetown who is taking an eight-months course in veterinary surgery at Toronto University. While in Toronto he visited the National Exhibition and viewed with de-

Scout Leaders Attend Crapaud Training Course

An enthusiastic group of Scout Leaders returned last night from a week-end training course held at the Anglican Youth Centre Crapaud. The course, which began at eight o'clock Friday evening, included short instruction periods in nearly all phases of the programme for running a boy Scout Troop.

Highlights of the course, which included many outdoor activities, were programme planning, ceremonies, fire laying and lighting, bivouacking, fire-by-friction, compass bearings, estimations and woodcraft. The nightly council fires, with many songs and skits, were enjoyed by all.

On Sunday morning the Rev. George Ebsary conducted Protestant church service at the campsite. Roman Catholic Scouters attended service in Borden. The course was under the direction of Walter B. LePage, Assistant Provincial Commissioner for training. Other staff members were F. A. Driscoll, Dr. Geo. C. Fisher and E.G. Kerr. Course members were Dean Carpenter and Merle Skerry of Alberton; Donald Martin, George Schleyer, William Ives, Fred Large, Q.C., all of Charlottetown; William Wood of Southport; George Ayers and Dean Read of Central Royalty.

G. I. Auxiliary Formed Locally

Mrs. Harriet Winslow, Toronto, Grand Canadian Representative of the G.I.A., arrived in Charlottetown on November 21st. The purpose of her visit was to organize the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. The meeting was held in the Assembly Hall at the C.N.R. Station, on Tuesday November 22nd. The sub-division which was formally known as No. 173 was renamed "Abegweit". G.I.A. pins were presented to the members after which the pledge was taken. Mrs. Willard Coffin was elected as President, those elected to the council were, Mrs. Mitchell MacDonald, Mrs. Gerald Mitchell, Mrs. James Darte, Mrs. John Larabee, Mrs. Jack Harlan, Mrs. Gordon MacPherson and Mrs. Allan Murphy. It was decided that future meetings would be held on the first and third Thursday of each month. The meeting closed with an enjoyable social hour.

Enjoyable Reception At Government House

His Honour Lieutenant Governor or T. W. L. Prowse and Mrs. Prowse entertained at Government House on Saturday evening. Adding a unique note to a delightful reception was the fact that this function was held in honour of their distinguished guest the Hon. J. J. Bowler, Lieutenant Governor of Alberta, who is at present visiting his native Province.

The stately grandeur of the reception hall was enhanced by a floral arrangement of white chrysanthemums and dark green cedar on the centre table.

In the reception rooms, against a background of chrysanthemums in late autumn hues, His Honour the Lieut. Governor and Mrs. Prowse received their guests and presented them to Lieut. Governor Bowler. In attendance were the Aides-de-Camp: Lieut. Col. J. T. Davies, C.D. Wing Commander A. G. MacMillan, Lieut. Commander J. N. Kenny, and Surgeon Commander L. E. Prowse, V.R.D., Private Secretary.

Assisting the host and hostess with their guests were Senator Elsie Inman, Mrs. J. A. MacMillan, Mrs. H. F. MacPhee, Mrs. W. H. V. Dunbar and Mrs. J.A. McMillan. In the dining-room, carnations, in varying shades of pink, artistically arranged in a silver basket and flanked by pink tapers in silver candelabra, formed a charming centre-piece.

Presiding at the urns were Mrs. J. Walter Jones and Mrs. W. J. P. MacMillan. Assisting in the dining-room were Mrs. R. G. Lea, Mrs. Frank MacKinnon, Mrs. W. D. Gillis, Mrs. K. S. Rogers, Mrs. Roy Cudmore, Mrs. J. G. MacDonald, Mrs. G. H. Milligan, Mrs. William Hayward, Mrs. A. W. Gaudet, Mrs. L. E. Wellner, Mrs. M. A. Farmer, Mrs. J. T. Davies, Mrs. K. A. Parker, Mrs. L. F. MacDonald, and Mrs. A. G. MacMillan.

A colourful ceremony took place during the evening when the key to the City of Charlottetown was presented to Lieutenant Governor Bowler by His Worship Mayor J. D. Stewart.

Soft string music under the direction of Albert Blanchard lent a most pleasing background to the enjoyable occasion.
