

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

See Beer Bros. bargain corner. NAVAL.—There are five warships in port at Halifax. They are the Blake, Mohawk, Tartar, Magicienne and Pelican.

USE OF THE RESULTS.—"An ungrateful rotundity of the back" is one of the results of bicycling, says the London Medical Press.

SHOOTING MATCH.—No. 5 Company's annual Rifle Match will take place on the 21st inst., at Brookfield, commencing at 9 a. m.—A. Boston Capt.

LAWYERS FROM CHICAGO.—The St. John Sun reports J. Kimball & Son have received two cartons of suits from Chicago. There are about 6,000 suits in the lot.

Y. M. C. A.—A meeting to organize a literary and scientific society will be held in the Y. M. C. A. parlors this evening at 8 o'clock. All interested in the formation of such a society will please attend.

SCARLET FEVER.—The Telegraph states that scarlet fever is very prevalent at St. John, North End. A few days ago two children in one household died within a few hours of each other with the disease.

ROSES AND APPLE BLOSSOMS.—The beautiful weather of the past few days has warmed the flowers to life again. Roses and apple blossoms were picked this morning in the garden of the Conolly House.

ROBBERY.—The Customs Examining Warehouse was broken into last night and fourteen cases of haberdashery seized by the "King Fisher" and stored in the warehouse, were taken. None of the dutiable liquors or goods were taken.

THE MARKET.—The attendance at the market today was not very large, and the supply also was small. The prices of articles, except eggs and turkeys, were unchanged. Eggs were sold at from 14 to 16 cents per dozen, and turkeys advanced from 80 cents to $1.20.

SUCCESSFUL EXHIBITORS.—Among the successful exhibitors at the World's Fair were F. M. McAvity & Sons, St. John, N. B., for an exhibit of cocks, nozzles, steam valves, safety whistles, large pumps, etc., and the Robt. Engineering Company, Anselmet, N. S., for high speed engine.

FATALITY INJURED.—At Boston on Friday last, Frederick G. Brown, a shoe manufacturer, jumped in front of a train to save the life of a pet poodle which ran upon the track. He was struck by the engine, his left arm was crushed and he received other injuries which will result fatally. The poodle escaped.

THE YACHT RACE.—The American papers admit that the Valkyrie would have won the race on Friday if it had not been for her spinnaker splitting, which deprived her of the use of that powerful sail in the latter part of the struggle. As was the margin of the American boat was so narrow as to deprive the victor of most of its value.

TURNING TO HOME.—A man named Frederick P. Frost is lying at his residence at Ashland, Mass., slowly dying of ossification of the joints and trunk. His entire body with the exception of one forearm has been converted into bone by the gradual hardening of the tissues and he is unable to move without assistance. He is a practical example of life in death.

MOTIVE.—This was the title of the paper read last evening by Mr. John A. Matheson before the Epworth League. The paper was one of the many excellent literary productions of the late Thomas A. LePage. It was learned, thoughtful and essentially good, and it contained many characteristic touches, descriptive of the various motives of human action. On the motion of Mr. G. F. Beer, seconded by Mr. H. Boswell and supported by the Rev. W. W. Brewer, an unanimous vote of thanks was conveyed to Mr. Matheson. Mr. Henry Smith occupied the chair.

A DEVIL IN A COW.—Mr. J. D. Bell of Montague, had a very exciting time in his yard yesterday evening with a Jersey cow which he purchased recently. It appears that the cow got loose in the stable and burst the door open. Mr. Bell his family and hired man attempted to put her back again, but found it impossible to manage her, when he had to call in the assistance of D. P. Smith and George Stewart. After an exciting fight with her, upwards of half an hour, during which Mr. Smith was slightly injured and others had narrow escapes, they finally overpowered her and got her back into the stable. It seemed for a time as though she had become possessed of an evil spirit, as she had always been quiet before and seems all right again this morning.

FUNERALS TO-DAY.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Fitzgerald took place this forenoon from the residence of her son, R. E. Fitzgerald, Esq., Mount Edward Road. The pallbearers were Judge Hensley, William Doak, Frederick C. Brecken, T. H. Haviland, D. I. M. Hooper, and L. C. Owen. The services at the house were conducted by Rev. Messrs. Hamlyn and Brewer, at St. Paul's Church by Rev. Mr. Hamlyn, and at the grave by Rev. Mr. Hamlyn and Rev. Mr. Brewer.

The funeral of the late Isaac Wellington Richards, son of James Richards, Esq., is taking place as we go to press. As the deceased was an esteemed member of No. 2 Battery, Garrison Artillery, the funeral is being conducted with military honors. Mr. and Mrs. Richards have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

TWO MORE GOLD MEDALS.—It must be gratifying to the manufacturer of "Sunlight" Soap to find their goods so splendidly appreciated in the Canadian market, and it must be pleasing to them to receive the highest recognition at Canadian exhibitions for the superior quality of their soap. At the recent Fall Show held at London and Ottawa, "Sunlight" was awarded a Gold Medal, which brings their gold medal list up to 14. Added to this grand record is the important fact that "Sunlight" is used in Windsor Castle and in the Royal Laundry, and owing to the excellence of their soap, the manufacturers have been specially appointed soap makers to the Queen.

PLAIN TALK FOR PLAIN PEOPLE: If you were buying butter, would you look at the size of the discount or the quality, make and freshness of it? If you were buying a horse, would you look at the size of the discount or the soundness, style, age and value of the animal? If you were buying chickens, would you buy last year's chickens at the value of them. Don't imagine that a big discount means a big bargain. The big discount trick is a very simple trick—anyone can do it.

A gentleman visiting our city says that he has been in New York and Boston, and has the principal cities in Canada, and also had clothing made by the leading merchant tailors, paying as high as $75 for a single garment. He decided to take a souvenir from P. E. Island a suit of clothes made by our leading clothier, D. A. Bruce, and he declares that he got better satisfaction there than from any other tailoring establishment in his travels. He intends to send here in future for his clothing, and has likewise taken a supply with him.
