Variety Show Presented At Summerside
Produced by Alan Wedlock, the annual variety show by the "Mr. and Mrs. Club" of the Trinity United Church was presented last evening in the Summerside High School auditorium. From the opening chorus to the final number the fun was fast and furious, and as each hilarious act followed the other the performers really had them rolling in the aisles. The comedy was clear, original and snappy. The following is the programme. Opening chorus the Mr. and Mrs. Club. Solo: Mrs. Plump. Tap Dance: Roland Sheen. Duet: Vera Matheson and Amanda Wedlock. The Bathing Beauties. The Quints. Summerside High School Magazine Wins Honours
"The Magpie", a magazine published twice yearly by the students of Summerside High School, had brought national attention to their school by placing second in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association's annual contest for student newspapers and magazines. A board of judges made their selections from 1300 entries in picking the best student publications put out by schools from the elementary level up to senior colleges and universities. "The Magpie" from the Summerside High School won second place in the duplicated magazine, business-school division. Schools throughout the United States, Canada, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, the Philippines, Egypt, and several independent schools overseas competed in the contest. The 29th annual one-page, 8 1/2 x 14 inch magazine, was first published in November 1951, and since then has been issued twice yearly. Material for the paper is gathered from each grade or class in the school, with the bulk of the material from grades 11 and 12. In addition to many other school interests the magazine also covers sports, books, and teen-age fashions. The printing is done on the school-owned duplicator machine, and the actual work of printing is handled by the pupils of the commercial department under the instruction of Miss Jessie I. Fraser, who is in charge of the commercial department. For the pupils in the commercial department the experience of preparing this magazine, apart from the valuable practice received, also results in the pride of creating within their own school, a magazine of real interest. It is believed that their recent award marks the first time that a school in this province has been so honored. An important part of affiliation with the C. S. P. A. is that the school magazine is analyzed and suggestions are made on how the work of the students can be improved in the production of their school magazine. The name "Magpie" was chosen for the magazine chiefly because the species of the Jay family of birds known by the name of "Magpie" is a notable chatterer, and as considerable chatter takes place in most schools the name was considered quite apt. The members of the committees in charge are: Editor, Elton Gunning; Sports Editor, Dick Noonan; Book review, John Desroches; George Read; Janet Bell; Grooming, Dorothy Cannon, Mary MacGougian; typing and stencilling, Marina Doyle, Louise Brennan, Doris Heckbert, Jennie Prizzell, Wendell Taylor. Duplicating, Marina Doyle, Doris Heckbert, Morris Burns, Wendell Taylor, and Elton Gunning.

Lennox Island Notes
The Lennox Island hockey team are making arrangements to play a game of hockey in North Sydney, Nova Scotia, for the Maritime Championship in the Indian Series for the Slaver Cup. A horse and sleigh, whilst crossing the ice from Lennox Island to the Mainland on Friday, March 19th had the misfortune to encounter a large crack in the ice, one runner of the sleigh going into the water and also two of the horse's limbs. The occupants of the sleigh leaped to safety. On March 11th, the Lennox Island hockey team journeyed to North River where they played a game of hockey with the Glasgow Road Maple Leafs. On the lineup that former great Charlottetown hockey player "Tarkey" Whitlock who played on a line with "Bucko" Trainer and "Buffer" Worth for that renowned Junior Royal Team of the late thirties in their long to be remembered series with Perth Blue Wings. If it were possible to see a Charlottetown hockey team of the 1930's, it would be found that "Tarkey" was a terrific hockey player who would have reached the N. H. L. along with his line mate, Wes "Bucko" Trainer, only an illness intervened ending his hockey career. "Tarkey" still flashes some of his old form.
