

ALLIES ADVANCE CAUTIOUSLY AGAINST LIGHT OPPOSITION

Says Underground In Canada Ready For War

Glance Bay Man Heads Maritime Trade Board

MONCTON, N.B., Nov. 9 — (CP) — Johnston Chew of Glance Bay was elected president of the Maritime Board of Trade today as the two-

Coming Events

Mail your films to Garnham Photo Studio, Charlottetown.

Buying Timothy seed daily. McGowan and Boyle.

Dance, Millview Hall, Friday, November 17th. Millview W. I.

Cleaning and buying Timothy seed daily. John Leard, Crapaud.

Rummage Sale, Salvation Army, Great George Street, Tuesday, November 14th, 1.30-5.00 P.M.

Regular Dance, East Royalty Rink Hall, Friday, Bus leaving Br Terminal 9.30 and 10.00.

See Lutubelle and Scotty in "The Village Dance", Nov. 10th, in Kinkora Hall.

Hot Turkey Supper in Hampton Hall, Remembrance Day, November 11th. Serving 5 to 9.

Rummage Sale, Saturday, November 18th, 6 P. M. to 10 P. M. Hall, Richmond Street.

Dance Saturday night, Nov. 11, North Rustico Hall, Modern and old time, Good music, George Chappell's Orchestra.

Until further notice our Cold Storage will not be opened on Saturday nights. Crapaud Creamery Co. Crapaud.

Armistice Dance, Vernon River Hall, Monday, November 13th. Millview Orchestra. Auspices Legion.

Hunter River Stores will remain open Friday night and close Saturday, November 11th. Armistice Day. Also open Wednesday Day.

Don't miss the L. O. B. A. Variety Concert in Crapaud Hall on Wednesday, November 15th. Fun for all.

Dance, South Melville School, Friday, November 10th. Sale of lunches. Special music. Women's Institute.

Notice—Dingwell and Rosier's store will be closed all day Armistice Day, Nov. 11th. Will remain open Friday night until 10.30.

Drama course conducted by Donald Wetmore at Highfield cabins, commencing Nov. 20. For information contact Mrs. Fred Gates, West Royalty, immediately.

Chicken supper and dance, Murrell Hall, Wednesday, Nov. 15, supper served at 5 o'clock. A cordial welcome will be extended to delegates of the Federation of Agriculture.

Armistice Day Service in Canadian Legion Hall, Mt. Stewart, November 11th, starting at 10.45 A. M. Speakers, Rev. Mr. Mercer, Rev. Father Butler and others. Everybody cordially invited. Parade and wreath placing after service.

Attention all members of Mt. Stewart Branch Canadian Legion. Your annual meeting with election of new slate of officers will be held in Legion Room, Mt. Stewart, November 13th, 1950. Please attend.

A Clothing Drive sponsored by the Unitarian Services of Canada for the needy people of Europe will be conducted by the P. E. I. Women's Institutes, November 13-17. Any clean used clothing will be thankfully received at Women's Institute Office, 117 Queen Street, Charlottetown.

Poultry — Buying live poultry weekly for American and Canadian Markets. Poultry weighed and paid for on farm. Contact Urban McQuaid, Central Egg and Poultry, 230 1/2 Grafton Street, Charlottetown before selling elsewhere. Phone—Day 2626, Night 1581-14.

Tomorrow being REMEMBRANCE DAY and a Public Holiday, the next issue of The Guardian will be Monday, Nov. 13

Former Red Tells Story In Article

TORONTO, Nov. 9 — (CP) — T. G. (Gerry) McManus, former Communist, says a Communist organization stands ready "at an hour's notice" to fight an underground war in Canada against Canadians.

In an article, "The Reds Are Ready To Wage War Inside Canada," to be published tomorrow in Maclean's Magazine, the one-time secretary of the Canadian Seaman's Union and former member of the Communist central committee for Canada says the Communists have already mobilized a carefully-trained organization of several thousand persons.

McManus, who broke with the party four months ago over its Korea policy, says that, in the event of war between Canada and Russia, the Communists will launch a two-pronged attack — on production lines and, within the armed forces, on the convictions and morale of Canadian service men.

McManus said his "contact man" was Harry Binder. Binder had told him that, if war seemed certain and anything happened to Binder, his place as my contact man would be taken by Pierre Coleman, editor of the Quebec Communist paper, "Le Combat."

In the whole Dominion-wide Communist apparatus, McManus says, "even a relatively senior man like me would know the whereabouts and activities of not more than seven others."

"If Tim Buck, the underground army's generalissimo, succeeded in remaining at large (in the event of war), even he would deliberately isolate himself from contact with any knowledge of what the 10 other members of the political bureau.

The whole Stanley Ryerson, No. 2 man to Buck; William Kaestlin, Leslie Morris, Becky Bayuh J.B. Salsberg, Norman Penner Charles Sims, Norman Fred Stewart Smith and Doris Nelson."

Other committees elected were the Nominating committee and Constitution. The former includes: Mrs. Parnell MacMann, Charlottetown. Mrs. F. Murphy, Summerside. Lieut.-Col. A. W. Rogers, Summerside. Major T. E. MacNutt, Charlottetown. Mrs. Malcolm MacLeod, Lorne Valley. Major A. Nicholson, Charlottetown. and Mr. L. Driscoll, Summerside.

On the Constitution committee are Messrs. Donald MacKinnon, Somerside Trainer, Hon. A. W. Matheson, and J. Trainor, all of Charlottetown. These committees were asked to bring in reports at the next meeting which will be held in the L. P. U. hall on November 17.

In opening the meeting Rev. Mr. Webster reviewed the history of the Charlottetown and Summerside Children's Aid Societies and stated that after a survey made by Mr. F. MacKinnon, Director of Child Welfare in Nova Scotia, a report was heard which stated that there was a definite need for a Provincial Society in Prince Edward Island.

Supporting this statement, Major A. Nicholson told the meeting that he considered there to be at least one thousand children in the Province who need the assistance which such a Society can offer.

Notes of thanks were extended to the L. P. U. organizations for their wholehearted support of the movement, and to Major A. Nicholson and his committee who had planned the meeting.

To Launch Campaign For PEI Aid Society

The campaign for funds by the Provincial Children's Aid Society will be held from November 20 to 30. It was decided at an organization meeting held at the Charlottetown Y. P. U. hall last evening.

Rev. G. C. Webster, President of the present Charlottetown Children's Aid Society, presided over the meeting which was attended by almost one hundred representatives from many organizations and communities throughout the Province.

Information as to the usual operation of a Provincial Society was given by Mr. Glen Allan, Supervisor of Child Welfare in Nova Scotia, who has been loaned by his government for three or four weeks, or for such time as it will take to get the new organization functioning.

In answer to questions, Mr. Allan suggested that because of the shortage of time before the Christmas season it would be a good plan for the newly appointed campaign committee to know the dates in mind for the drive.

Elected to this committee were Mrs. M. MacGowan, Montague. Messrs. Peter Pate, O'Leary, J. R. MacLean, Souris, Dr. George Irman, Montague. Hon. J. A. Bernard, Tignish; L. W. Hancock, Summerside. Mrs. E. E. MacKinnon, Ulgie; J. E. Green, Charlottetown; Gerald Foster, Charlottetown; A. E. Gormley, Charlottetown; Mr. E. C. Johnstone, Charlottetown; W. Smith, Charlottetown.

The new flag draped Non-Commissioned Officers Mess was officially opened at the local garage, 1000 Highway 100, on Friday.

But present were all the high ranking officers of the local garrison who thoroughly enjoyed the occasion where no speeches were made and none were called for.

Highlighting the evening was the presence of the two Brigadiers now attached to local units of Canada's expanding Reserve Army. They were Brig. W. W. Reid and Brig. G. K. Peake. Accompanying them was a galaxy of officers from the various units as well as from Brigade headquarters.

The beautiful new N.C.O.'s Mess with its two-toned panelled walls and wide draped windows to match the flooring is the work almost entirely of the members themselves. All of the designing and much of the labor was put in by the N.C.O.'s who knew what they wanted. Among those who did so much for the new

Cardinal McGuigan Received By Pope Pius

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 9 — (AP) — Pope Pius today received James Cardinal McGuigan, Archbishop of Toronto, in private audience. He came here for the proclamation of the assumption dogma last week.

Provincial and civic dignitaries, business and professional men joined last night in paying tribute to Mr. R. S. P. Jardine, recently retired manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Charlottetown. The function took the form of a complimentary dinner at the Charlottetown Hotel. Lt.-Col. J. D. Stewart, D.S.O., presided. The main dining room was crowded with guests.

In his introductory remarks, Col. Stewart traced briefly the banking history of Mr. Jardine on his first joining the Canadian Bank of Commerce in 1909. He had been with the Bank steadily from that time with the exception of a period during the first World War when he was in special government employment. He had served in almost every Province and had been manager at both Summerside and Charlottetown.

The chairman recalled outstanding public services performed by Mr. Jardine and the many activities to which he lent his time and talents. He served on the Board of the Prince Edward Island Hospital, the executive of the Provincial Council of the Boy Scouts Association, as President of the Prince Edward Island Curling Association, and as an Elder in St. James Presbyterian Church. He is an ardent sportsman, and in addition to curling, is an enthusiastic fisherman and gunner.

His Honour, Lieutenant Governor T. W. L. Prowse, on being called upon to make a presentation to the honoured guest, stated that Mr. Jardine had served a long period with the Bank and that although he was sorry to see him retire, he was glad to learn that he was to continue his residence in the City. His Honour referred to Mr. Jardine's curling exploits and to his banking career which was climaxed by his becoming a very popular bank manager in Charlottetown. It was a very pleasant duty for him to present to Mr. Jardine, on behalf of the gathering, a beautiful silver tray.

In replying, Mr. Jardine expressed his thanks for this "unwarranted appreciation." He had enjoyed the whole of his banking career and now, on retirement, had decided to remain in Charlottetown. He was pleased to lend a

New Oil Station To Be Built On Euston And Elm

One of the oldest residences in Charlottetown will be demolished to make way for an up-to-date service station which will be erected on the corner of Elm Avenue and Euston Street by Canadian Oil Companies, Ltd.

The new filling station will be erected next year on the site occupied by numbers 6 and 8 Elm Avenue, both of which are now vacant. Number 6 is a brick and frame dwelling which fronts on Elm Avenue and has a side entrance on Euston Street. This structure was built in the early 19th century, and was formerly part of the Ernest Heartz estate.

It was acquired along with the adjoining property by Canadian Oil Companies, Ltd., in 1945, in connection with the purchase of a service station on the site. The joint properties comprise a frontage on Elm Avenue of sixty feet, and approximately one hundred feet on Euston Street.

New N.C.O.'s Mess Officially Opened

The new flag draped Non-Commissioned Officers Mess was officially opened at the local garage, 1000 Highway 100, on Friday.

But present were all the high ranking officers of the local garrison who thoroughly enjoyed the occasion where no speeches were made and none were called for.

Highlighting the evening was the presence of the two Brigadiers now attached to local units of Canada's expanding Reserve Army. They were Brig. W. W. Reid and Brig. G. K. Peake. Accompanying them was a galaxy of officers from the various units as well as from Brigade headquarters.

Urge Federal Aid To Potato Growers; Oppose Floor Price

MONCTON, N.B., Nov. 9 — (CP) — The Maritime Board of Trade tonight passed a resolution urging "that the Federal Government provide suitable financial assistance to potato growers in view of the depressed condition of the industry."

The Board of Trade, at a final session of its annual convention, passed the resolution after turning down a previous resolution that suggested the body support a floor price for spuds.

Complimentary Dinner Tendered To Mr. Jardine

Provincial and civic dignitaries, business and professional men joined last night in paying tribute to Mr. R. S. P. Jardine, recently retired manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Charlottetown. The function took the form of a complimentary dinner at the Charlottetown Hotel. Lt.-Col. J. D. Stewart, D.S.O., presided. The main dining room was crowded with guests.

In his introductory remarks, Col. Stewart traced briefly the banking history of Mr. Jardine on his first joining the Canadian Bank of Commerce in 1909. He had been with the Bank steadily from that time with the exception of a period during the first World War when he was in special government employment. He had served in almost every Province and had been manager at both Summerside and Charlottetown.

The chairman recalled outstanding public services performed by Mr. Jardine and the many activities to which he lent his time and talents. He served on the Board of the Prince Edward Island Hospital, the executive of the Provincial Council of the Boy Scouts Association, as President of the Prince Edward Island Curling Association, and as an Elder in St. James Presbyterian Church. He is an ardent sportsman, and in addition to curling, is an enthusiastic fisherman and gunner.

His Honour, Lieutenant Governor T. W. L. Prowse, on being called upon to make a presentation to the honoured guest, stated that Mr. Jardine had served a long period with the Bank and that although he was sorry to see him retire, he was glad to learn that he was to continue his residence in the City. His Honour referred to Mr. Jardine's curling exploits and to his banking career which was climaxed by his becoming a very popular bank manager in Charlottetown. It was a very pleasant duty for him to present to Mr. Jardine, on behalf of the gathering, a beautiful silver tray.

In replying, Mr. Jardine expressed his thanks for this "unwarranted appreciation." He had enjoyed the whole of his banking career and now, on retirement, had decided to remain in Charlottetown. He was pleased to lend a

Carrier Planes Strike Heavily At Communications

SEOUL, Korea, Nov. 9 — (AP) — Allied ground forces probed forward cautiously against light opposition and carrier-based bombers struck heavily at communications facilities in North Korea today.

Otherwise the war appeared to be marking time while diplomats over the world pondered the delicate international situation.

Communist China has been requested to explain to the United Nations Security Council the presence of her troops in North Korea. A spokesman for Gen. MacArthur estimated these forces at 60,000, with a like number in reserve just across the Yalu River boundary in Manchuria.

One high ranking U. S. Eighth Army staff officer estimated Nov. 4 that Chinese Communist reserves along the Manchurian-Korean border probably number 300,000. He added that two or three times that number—perhaps 1,000,000—were within "committing distance."

In Taipei, Formosa, Chinese Nationalist Intelligence officials Thursday placed the number of Chinese Red reserves in Manchuria at 150,000. These, they said, are Russian equipped and are the elite of Gen. Lin Piao's Fourth Field Army.

The presence of Chinese Red soldiers in North Korea now is conceded even by the Peiping Government—which called them "volunteers."

Thus, U. N. observers concluded the ominous pull in fighting fronts was due to indecision rather than any lack of manpower on the part of the Communists.

A U. S. Eighth Army staff officer said Thursday, "the war is now in a strange phase, in which diplomatic moves perhaps are as important as military ones."

In weather generally good despite a chilly overcast which disrupted winter's approach, Superforts and carrier-based craft bit Red communication lines and supply centres. Fighters shot down a Red jet and two propeller-driven Yaks.

Urge Federal Aid To Potato Growers; Oppose Floor Price

MONCTON, N.B., Nov. 9 — (CP) — The Maritime Board of Trade tonight passed a resolution urging "that the Federal Government provide suitable financial assistance to potato growers in view of the depressed condition of the industry."

The Board of Trade, at a final session of its annual convention, passed the resolution after turning down a previous resolution that suggested the body support a floor price for spuds.

Complimentary Dinner Tendered To Mr. Jardine

Provincial and civic dignitaries, business and professional men joined last night in paying tribute to Mr. R. S. P. Jardine, recently retired manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in Charlottetown. The function took the form of a complimentary dinner at the Charlottetown Hotel. Lt.-Col. J. D. Stewart, D.S.O., presided. The main dining room was crowded with guests.

In his introductory remarks, Col. Stewart traced briefly the banking history of Mr. Jardine on his first joining the Canadian Bank of Commerce in 1909. He had been with the Bank steadily from that time with the exception of a period during the first World War when he was in special government employment. He had served in almost every Province and had been manager at both Summerside and Charlottetown.

The chairman recalled outstanding public services performed by Mr. Jardine and the many activities to which he lent his time and talents. He served on the Board of the Prince Edward Island Hospital, the executive of the Provincial Council of the Boy Scouts Association, as President of the Prince Edward Island Curling Association, and as an Elder in St. James Presbyterian Church. He is an ardent sportsman, and in addition to curling, is an enthusiastic fisherman and gunner.

His Honour, Lieutenant Governor T. W. L. Prowse, on being called upon to make a presentation to the honoured guest, stated that Mr. Jardine had served a long period with the Bank and that although he was sorry to see him retire, he was glad to learn that he was to continue his residence in the City. His Honour referred to Mr. Jardine's curling exploits and to his banking career which was climaxed by his becoming a very popular bank manager in Charlottetown. It was a very pleasant duty for him to present to Mr. Jardine, on behalf of the gathering, a beautiful silver tray.

In replying, Mr. Jardine expressed his thanks for this "unwarranted appreciation." He had enjoyed the whole of his banking career and now, on retirement, had decided to remain in Charlottetown. He was pleased to lend a

P. E. I. Exhibitors En Route Home After Huge Success At Winter Fair

Island livestock men, having won well over $3,000 and the majority of the top winnings at the Maritime Winter Fair, reloaded their prize animals on a livestock special early last night and headed for home.

Cattle, sheep and swine breeders alone won approximately $2925.00 during the four days they were in the ring. Fox show earnings were not available but twenty two firsts, Ernest Mill, sixteenth and Roy Woodside, Malpeque about the same number. Island horses also had high placings and must have won between three and four hundred dollars.

Lewis Bros. Top Winners

Top money winners in the Holstein breeders were Lewis Brothers of York with $323.00 stated Mr. Ralph McCunn, Secretary of the Winter Fair. Lewis Bros. have been the highest Holstein money winners at the Fair for the past number of years but their 1950 total was the highest they ever received.

Premier J. Walter Jones herd ten first placings against Lewis Bros. seven but the York herd of the Lewis men had nine seconds against the premier's four.

S. C. Stewart and Sons of Dunstaffnage, who won the majority of the honors in the swine competitions, really took home the bacon by earning $100. They won $270 on the swine and $130 on the sheep.

George Boswell of Frenchfort had $125 in prize money from Ayshire cattle and sheep. Col. F. I. Andrew, East Royalty won $112 and John W. Lewis, Freetown with one entry earned $17. Almon Wood, York earned $76.

The well fitted Falconwood Farm Holsteins managed by Unsworth had $125 in prize money but were unable to accept prize money as government owned animals are ineligible for prizes at the Maritime Winter Fair.

Almon Boswell of Marshfield was well rewarded for his showings as he earned about $311 from swine and sheep. His swine winnings amounted to $131 and the sheep prizes to $180.

A. MacRae and Sons, the leading Ayshire exhibitors won $318 by virtue of their winning nine firsts, eight seconds and a large number of other high placings. Keith Boswell of Victoria won fourteen good placings to his credit was second high Island Ayshire man with $165.

Miller Sanderson of North River topped the Hereford men with winnings amounting to $280. Fulton Sanderson was third high in this breed with a total of $154 after showing only eight white faces.

Allison Profit, Freetown, had every animal in the money and one of them in first place to win $114.00 with a comparatively small entry in the large Holstein class. Colby Lewis, Freetown, under similar conditions, made a good showing to win $107.

John and Mary DuPaquier of Forest Hill showed only five shorthorns last Saturday but won $80. A. H. Mutch, Earncliffe and Aihol Roberts, Southport, won $30 on three entries, one of them Aihol Roberts' grand fema champion.

George Boswell of Frenchfort had $125 in prize money from Ayshire cattle and sheep. Col. F. I. Andrew, East Royalty won $112 and John W. Lewis, Freetown with one entry earned $17. Almon Wood, York earned $76.

The well fitted Falconwood Farm Holsteins managed by Unsworth had $125 in prize money but were unable to accept prize money as government owned animals are ineligible for prizes at the Maritime Winter Fair.

Almon Boswell of Marshfield was well rewarded for his showings as he earned about $311 from swine and sheep. His swine winnings amounted to $131 and the sheep prizes to $180.

A. MacRae and Sons, the leading Ayshire exhibitors won $318 by virtue of their winning nine firsts, eight seconds and a large number of other high placings. Keith Boswell of Victoria won fourteen good placings to his credit was second high Island Ayshire man with $165.

Miller Sanderson of North River topped the Hereford men with winnings amounting to $280. Fulton Sanderson was third high in this breed with a total of $154 after showing only eight white faces.

Allison Profit, Freetown, had every animal in the money and one of them in first place to win $114.00 with a comparatively small entry in the large Holstein class. Colby Lewis, Freetown, under similar conditions, made a good showing to win $107.

John and Mary DuPaquier of Forest Hill showed only five shorthorns last Saturday but won $80. A. H. Mutch, Earncliffe and Aihol Roberts, Southport, won $30 on three entries, one of them Aihol Roberts' grand fema champion.

George Boswell of Frenchfort had $125 in prize money from Ayshire cattle and sheep. Col. F. I. Andrew, East Royalty won $112 and John W. Lewis, Freetown with one entry earned $17. Almon Wood, York earned $76.

The well fitted Falconwood Farm Holsteins managed by Unsworth had $125 in prize money but were unable to accept prize money as government owned animals are ineligible for prizes at the Maritime Winter Fair.

Almon Boswell of Marshfield was well rewarded for his showings as he earned about $311 from swine and sheep. His swine winnings amounted to $131 and the sheep prizes to $180.

A. MacRae and Sons, the leading Ayshire exhibitors won $318 by virtue of their winning nine firsts, eight seconds and a large number of other high placings. Keith Boswell of Victoria won fourteen good placings to his credit was second high Island Ayshire man with $165.

Miller Sanderson of North River topped the Hereford men with winnings amounting to $280. Fulton Sanderson was third high in this breed with a total of $154 after showing only eight white faces.

Allison Profit, Freetown, had every animal in the money and one of them in first place to win $114.00 with a comparatively small entry in the large Holstein class. Colby Lewis, Freetown, under similar conditions, made a good showing to win $107.

John and Mary DuPaquier of Forest Hill showed only five shorthorns last Saturday but won $80. A. H. Mutch, Earncliffe and Aihol Roberts, Southport, won $30 on three entries, one of them Aihol Roberts' grand fema champion.

George Boswell of Frenchfort had $125 in prize money from Ayshire cattle and sheep. Col. F. I. Andrew, East Royalty won $112 and John W. Lewis, Freetown with one entry earned $17. Almon Wood, York earned $76.

The well fitted Falconwood Farm Holsteins managed by Unsworth had $125 in prize money but were unable to accept prize money as government owned animals are ineligible for prizes at the Maritime Winter Fair.

Almon Boswell of Marshfield was well rewarded for his showings as he earned about $311 from swine and sheep. His swine winnings amounted to $131 and the sheep prizes to $180.

A. MacRae and Sons, the leading Ayshire exhibitors won $318 by virtue of their winning nine firsts, eight seconds and a large number of other high placings. Keith Boswell of Victoria won fourteen good placings to his credit was second high Island Ayshire man with $165.

Miller Sanderson of North River topped the Hereford men with winnings amounting to $280. Fulton Sanderson was third high in this breed with a total of $154 after showing only eight white faces.

Allison Profit, Freetown, had every animal in the money and one of them in first place to win $114.00 with a comparatively small entry in the large Holstein class. Colby Lewis, Freetown, under similar conditions, made a good showing to win $107.

John and Mary DuPaquier of Forest Hill showed only five shorthorns last Saturday but won $80. A. H. Mutch, Earncliffe and Aihol Roberts, Southport, won $30 on three entries, one of them Aihol Roberts' grand fema champion.

George Boswell of Frenchfort had $125 in prize money from Ayshire cattle and sheep. Col. F. I. Andrew, East Royalty won $112 and John W. Lewis, Freetown with one entry earned $17. Almon Wood, York earned $76.

The well fitted Falconwood Farm Holsteins managed by Unsworth had $125 in prize money but were unable to accept prize money as government owned animals are ineligible for prizes at the Maritime Winter Fair.

Almon Boswell of Marshfield was well rewarded for his showings as he earned about $311 from swine and sheep. His swine winnings amounted to $131 and the sheep prizes to $180.

A. MacRae and Sons, the leading Ayshire exhibitors won $318 by virtue of their winning nine firsts, eight seconds and a large number of other high placings. Keith Boswell of Victoria won fourteen good placings to his credit was second high Island Ayshire man with $165.

Miller Sanderson of North River topped the Hereford men with winnings amounting to $280. Fulton Sanderson was third high in this breed with a total of $154 after showing only eight white faces.

Allison Profit, Freetown, had every animal in the money and one of them in first place to win $114.00 with a comparatively small entry in the large Holstein class. Colby Lewis, Freetown, under similar conditions, made a good showing to win $107.

John and Mary DuPaquier of Forest Hill showed only five shorthorns last Saturday but won $80. A. H. Mutch, Earncliffe and Aihol Roberts, Southport, won $30 on three entries, one of them Aihol Roberts' grand fema champion.

George Boswell of Frenchfort had $125 in prize money from Ayshire cattle and sheep. Col. F. I. Andrew, East Royalty won $112 and John W. Lewis, Freetown with one entry earned $17. Almon Wood, York earned $76.

The well fitted Falconwood Farm Holsteins managed by Unsworth had $125 in prize money but were unable to accept prize money as government owned animals are ineligible for prizes at the Maritime Winter Fair.

Almon Boswell of Marshfield was well rewarded for his showings as he earned about $311 from swine and sheep. His swine winnings amounted to $131 and the sheep prizes to $180.

Ceremony Marks Opening Of Royal Carpet Display

More than seventeen hundred persons viewed the internationally famous Queen Mary carpet when it went on display yesterday in the Federation Chamber in Charlottetown. Five hundred of the visitors were school children, and it is expected that more children and an even larger number of adults will visit the historic chamber today to see this unique exhibit of Royal handiwork.

On display here for its final day

"See 'The Great Mike' at Hunter's River tonight at 8.00.

"Abegweit, R. B. P. Kingston, Friday, November 10th.

"See 'The Great Mike' at Bonshaw Saturday night, November 11th, at 8.30.

"Murray Harbor Starch Factory will close for the season, Wednesday, November 15th.

"Trucking Hogs for Canada Packers every Tuesday. Clifford Chandler, North Milton.

"Memorial Service, Vernon River Hall, November 11th, commencing at 10.45 A. M. Everyone welcome. Note change of time.

"Remembrance Service, Victoria Hall, 11 a.m., November 11th. Everybody welcome.</