MR. J. CARMODY wishes to inform the public that he is prepared to supply any quantity of fresh Oysters, fished by himself every day. House on Dorchester Street (east.) 3i

CAPTAIN EVANS, formerly of the St. Lawrence, is among the visitors to the Island. He took a trip over to Pictou yesterday and will return this evening. He is registered at the Osborne.

PARTIES who would like to have their Feather Beds and Pillows Cleaned and Renovated, will please send them in at once, as the Renovator is going West in a few days. All work warranted or no pay.—W. F. Carter, Sole Agent for P. E. Island.

THERE will be preaching in the BaptistChurch to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock and evening at 6.30 o'clock by Rev. Edward Whitman, pastor. Subject in the morning: "Thoughts suggested by the late exhibition;" in the evening: "The supreme duty of the hour." Strangers always welcome.

THE steamer M. A. Starr, Capt. Ferguson, arrived from Halifax via intermediate ports at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, having been delayed by storm and fog. She brought the usual miscellaneous cargo and four passengers—Hon. Mr. LeBlanc and three ladies. She sailed on return about midnight.

REVIEWING Professor Buell's exhibition, the Quebec Chronicle says:—"The evening's entertainment concluded with statuary chosen among the principal works of the great masters. The change of light from red to blue and green, produced the grandest effects we have ever witnessed, and the entranced spectators showed their delight by thunders of applause."

MR. DENNIS McCARTHY, for many years past mate of the steamer St. Lawrence, and for about twenty years in the employ of the Steam Navigation Company, left for Boston to join his family who preceeded him, yesterday morning. In Mr. McCarthy the St. Lawrence loses a popular officer and Charlottetown a good citizen. We wish him success in his future home.

To Dr. Johnson, Statistical Officer, we are indebted for the following mortuary statistics for the month of September:—Number of deaths, September, 1887, 13; 1886, 14; 1885, 15; 1884, 16; 1883, 11. Causes—Cholera infantum, 6; typhoed fever, 1; congestion of lungs, 1; inflammation of bowels, 1; consumption, 1; dropsy, 1; cancer, 1; general debility, 1. Age at death—Under 1 year, 7; under 5 years, 8; between 38 and 70, 5. Average age at death, 24 years. Sex—Male, 9; female, 4. Religion—Protestants, 10; Catholics, 3. Nationality—English, 7; Scotch, 3; Irish, 3.

BALABREGA'S Modern Miracle Company will commence a short season in the Lyceum on Monday evening next. An exchange thus speaks of the performance:—"The prestidigitation, the cabinet business, the educated canaries, second sight, the mesmerism, and in fact everything on the bill was superexcellent, and kept the audience vibrating between wonder and mirth. The mesmerism exhibition convulsed everybody, making the hall ring with laughter until everybody was sore. Taken altogether there has been nothing seen in this city of a similar character to equal it."

THE topsail-schooner Jane Ainslie, Captan James, arrived here from Newfoundland yesterday morning and is now lying at Queen's wharf. The Captain reports that on Wednesday morning last, while off Shediac, a passenger named Michael Crawford, who was somewhat weak-minded, became alarmed at the rough weather the ship was experiencing, and in his fright jumped overboard and was drowned. The vessel was at once "laid to" and every effort was made to rescue the unfortunate man, but he must have sank immediately after jumping, as not a trace of him could be seen. Crawford belonged to Labrador.

FOUR drunks, a sailor, a laborer and two Indians, occupied special apartments in the Police Station last night. During the evening they amused themselves in various ways, greatly to the annoyance of the people residing in the neighborhood. The sailor expatiated upon his abilities as a navigator, collar-and-elbow wrestler and piano player, and regretted that he was not a member of the Police force. The laborer, who was an occupant of the opposite row, took exception to the sailor's boasting, and at a 2.10 rate threatened to polish him off if ever he got his hands on him. The two Indians, who were in the same quarters as the laborer, encouraged that worthy to "whoop her up," and he did so for all he was worth; his remarks being interspersed with songs and war dances by the sons of the forest. This morning the quartette, blear-eyed and repentant, appeared before the Stipendiary Magistrate. The sailor was disposed of for $1, the laborer for $2, and the two "braves" were remanded until Monday.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind mar17 eod & wky

MARRIED.

At the parsonage, Oct. 6th, by the Rev. W. Harrison, Mr. Malcolm Albert Shaw, of Brackley Point, to Miss Martha M. McEwen, of Charlottetown.

At Alma, Albert Co., N. B., Oct. 1, Eva, daughter of Rev. A. E. LePage, aged 6 years.

At St Catherines, on Wednesday, Oct. 5th, Mary Catherine, dearly beloved wife of Donald James McDonald, and daughter of John McDonald, Head of Hillsboro, aged 34 years. She leaves a sorrowing husband and three small children, also a father, three sisters and four brothers to mourn their irreparable loss. She was followed to her last resting place in St. Andrew's cemetery, on Friday morning, by a procession of over ninety carriages. May she rest in peace.

Long, long shall we miss thee, Catherine,
Long, long days for thee we'll weep.
And through many years of sadness,
Memory will her vigils keep.
