

Here's Why You Need Aspirin When You Have A Cold - To Feel Better, Fast!

At the first sign of a cold—before you do anything else—take two ASPIRIN tablets with a full glass of water. Here's why: When you have a cold, it's almost invariably accompanied by a headache, feverish feeling and muscular aches and pains. And it's very important to your well being that you treat these distressing symptoms with a medication that relieves them... relieves them quickly. By taking ASPIRIN at the first sign of a cold, you'll get this important relief.

FEEL BETTER FAST

And when you take ASPIRIN, you'll discover why millions have followed this advice with remarkable results. For ASPIRIN works fast. It actually goes to work in two seconds. And this is one reason why it brings you amazingly quick relief from these painful cold symptoms.

This two-second speed is something you can see with your own eyes by dropping an ASPIRIN tablet in a glass of water and "clocking" its disintegration.

WHAT TO DO FOR SORE THROAT

When your cold causes a sore throat, gargle with three ASPIRIN tablets dissolved in one-third of a glass of water. This makes a potent medicinal gargle that almost instantly soothes tender throat membranes, relieves pain and irritation.

Besides being effective, ASPIRIN is also gentle. Its single active ingredient is so gentle to the system that it is regularly prescribed, even for small children.

Keep ASPIRIN handy. When you buy, get the 100-tablet bottle which gives you ASPIRIN for less than a penny a tablet.

Because no other pain reliever can match its record of use by millions of people, without ill effect, one thing you can take with complete confidence is

St. Chrysostome and Vicinity

Mr. Camilla Arsenault who was employed in N. B. is now back home for some time.

Friends of Mr. Donat Arsenault regret that he is sick with a severe attack of grippe.

Friends of Mrs. Hubert Arsenault were sorry to hear that she is sick with the grippe.

Miss Bernadette Gallant, Summerside, recently visited her sister, Mrs. Donat Arsenault, St. Chrysostome.

Mr. Joseph Arsenault, General Merchant of St. Chrysostome had the misfortune of hurting his hand while working on his car. His friends are glad to see that he is recovering nicely.

Congratulations of this community go out to Mr. and Mrs. Phillip M. Arsenault who recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. All of their children were with them 1 that day except one who was unable to attend. Both of them are still active and enjoying good health in spite of their age.

The sincere sympathy of this community goes out to the family of the late Mrs. Azade Bernard of St. Phillip who passed away at her home on February 11th after a long illness. She leaves to mourn several sons and daughters. One of her sons predeceased her three weeks ago at the Prince County Hospital.

The ladies of St. Chrysostome Altar Society held a recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Alphonse Gallant with seventeen members present. Meeting opened with prayer by Mrs. Gallant. Different committees gave their reports and new ones were appointed for school—Mrs. Philomen Arsenault and Mrs. Gilbert Gallant. For the sick—Mrs. Pacific Gallant and Mrs. Archie Gallant. It was moved and approved to take $3.00 to buy a question book. It was decided that next meeting would be at the home of Mrs. Joseph J. Arsenault. Miss Lucia Arsenault read a very interesting story. A vote of thanks was tendered her by the members and also to Mrs. Gallant for her hospitality. At the next meeting the program will be given by Mrs. Willie and Azade Arsenault. There will be a reading by Mrs. Frank Gallant.

The ladies of St. Chrysostome Study Club held their February meeting at the home of Mrs. Hubert Arsenault with an attendance of ten members. Meeting opened by prayer by Mrs. Donat Arsenault. It was suggested by Mrs. Alyre Arsenault that during the winter months meeting would start at 7:30 P. M. Sick committee reported on sick during the month. New committee for next month will be Mrs. Joseph Arsenault. It was suggested by Miss Doris Arsenault, to buy a book of modern etiquette. A few pages of this book would be read at every meeting. It was also decided to give $5.00 to the St. Chrysostome Altar Society. A very instructive reading was read by Miss Doris Arsenault. Mrs. Hector Arsenault will provide the program for next meeting. The president asked each member a question on Catechism and an arithmetic. A question box was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Stephen Arsenault invited the members to meet at her home next month. Means of making money will be a Bingo. Meeting adjourned. A Chinese auction took place, prize was won by Miss Doris Arsenault. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Donat Arsenault. A vote of thanks was presented to the hostesses for their hospitality.

Albany and Vicinity

Mrs. Erskine Haywood, Charlottetown was guest at the home of Mrs. Reuben Bowness in Montrose during the past week.

Mrs. Fred Leard, Brooklyn, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hardy.

A number of people in this community are suffering from the influenza but all cases to date are reported to be of a mild nature.

Miss Beth Waugh and Mrs. Willard Oulton recently entertained at the home of the latter for Miss Bertha Bowness. The strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Don Campbell, greeted Miss Bowness as she entered the rooms where a number of her friends were assembled. A poem, composed especially for the occasion, was read by Miss Waugh. The guest of honor was then instructed to follow a trail marked out by blue and white streamers. At the end of the trail were two pieces of matching luggage, suitably wrapped and labelled. In a few well chosen words Miss Bowness expressed her appreciation of so beautiful a gift. A share-the-wealth program, conducted by Mrs. J. H. Myrick and Mrs. T. A. Clark, provided merry entertainment. The Oscar was won by Miss Bowness. Dainty refreshments were served.

COLDS SORE THROAT LA GRIPPE

NEW YORK, Feb. 22 (AP)—The Mayor of West Berlin said today that the spirit of resistance in the Soviet zone of Germany "is very good and is growing." The Mayor, Ernest Reuter, arrived at New York International Airport for visits to a number of cities and conferences with Government officials in Washington.

Tyne Valley Notes

Miss Jean Wagner, Poplar Grove spent a few days recently with her aunt, Mrs. Thomas Skerry.

Mrs. Erle Williams is confined to her bed with the flu. Friends hope she will soon be well again.

Mrs. George Ellis has returned to her home after having spent the past week visiting in N. B.

Miss Theresa Milligan, Brae, has returned home after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Marchbanks.

Mr. Edison Williams and Mr. Melvin Marchbanks were visitors to Amherst on Monday.

Mr. Henry Mooney returned to Tyne Valley after spending some time visiting friends in Enmore and Mt. Pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Maynard, Mrs. Charles Newcombe and Mr. Leigh Maynard motored to Mt. Royal on Sunday to visit with Mrs. Sergeant Phillips and son Erland.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Peter McDonald who has had to enter the Prince County Hospital again for treatment.

Mr. Charles Williams, P. W. C. student at Charlottetown is confined to his home this week with the flu.

Miss Eleanor Birch and Miss Myra McArthur telephone operators are both sick with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Edison Williams were visitors to Fernwood on Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McParlane.

The ice carnival that was put on for the "Stewart Memorial Nursing Centre" on Tuesday evening in the rink at Mt. Pleasant was a huge success. The costumes were both beautiful and amusing. The prizes were all donations from the following—Mr. L. A. Burchell and Mr. P. M. McCull, Ellerslie. Thos. Nisbet and C. I. Lidstone in Tyne Valley. Louis Cann, Northam and the Tyne Valley Women's Institute and were presented by Donald McLean to the winners as follows—Eunice Enman, Sycinghill (Queen of Hearts) Charles McDougall, Tyne Valley (Donald Duck). Combination—The Frost Sisters Springhill (Jack Spratt and his wife) Adula—Mrs. Preston McCull Ellerslie (Robin Hood). Mr. Alton Raynor Cascumpec (Pied Piper). Mr. Laurie Birch, Port Hill as the most original representing "Spud Island." Mr. Charles Caseley, Coleman, for the funniest man on the ice and Mr. Ralph Adams as the "Country Cousin." Combination prize to Miss Gertrude McNevin and Mrs. Horace Lidstone as Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rabbit. A mock boxing match between Charles Caseley and the country cousin caused much merriment and laughter. Lunches and home made candy was sold. The large sum of two hundred and fifty-nine dollars was cleared after all expenses were paid. The large building in which the rink is built, is certainly an ideal place for a recreation centre. Much credit is due Mr. Kayser stationed at the Mt. Pleasant airport for his help in securing tables and auctioning of the cakes.

The monthly meeting of the Hazelbrook W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Jones on February 7th. In the absence of the president, the Vice President, Mrs. Henry Jenkins presided. Meeting opened by singing hymn "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning" followed by Psalm 23 repeated in unison. Devotional period was led by Mildred Paynter and Lilla Jones. Hymn "Jesus, Keep Me Near The Cross" was sung and Psalm 19 was read responsively. Scripture reading was taken from Matthew 7:24-29. Mildred Paynter led in prayer. A poem "Another Year with Jesus" was read by Lilla Jones. Hymn "More about Jesus." The fourth chapter of the history of the Baptist Women's Missionary Union was read, followed by readings "The child by the wayside" by Sue Jones, "The Golden Fields of Rome" by Queenie MacKinnon and "A Bunch of Keys" by Alice Jones. Hymn "Sweet Hour of Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer" closed the Devotional period. Roll call was answered with a verse of scripture by eleven members.

HAZELBROOK W. M. S.

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Mrs. Stanley Sanford thanked members for treat sent to her when sick. Offering amounted to $4.20. Plans were made for World Day of Prayer to be held at Alexandra. Devotional leaders and lunch committee were appointed and the meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

CORNWALL W. M. S.

Cornwall W. M. S. met on Feb. 12 at the home of Mrs. Hazen Howard. In the absence of Mrs. Earl Moore, the Worship theme, "His Silent Presence," was led by Mrs. Watson Livingstone, with Mrs. Earl Lowther assisting, and included Kagawa's poem, "Silence," the 23rd Psalm in unison and the prayer hymn, "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind."

For our Study, Mrs. M. K. Charman chose Chapter four of "Japan Begins again," and very capably portrayed the early life of its Protestant missions which had their beginning when at a meeting in Brooklyn, Mass., 125 years ago, a collection was taken towards sending the first missionary to Japan.

Hoping to merge all denominations into one great church, the first church was and still is known as the "Church of Christ in Japan." The first scripture translated into Japanese was the Gospel of St. John.

Separation of church and state, modern postal service and the adoption of our Western calendar were some of the reforms adopted. Christians were later elected to become chaplains in the army.

Mrs. Collin Murray, 1st vice-president, conducted the business period. The roll call showed an attendance of 24 members and two visitors. Reports of secretaries were heard. The treasurer, having been absent from the January meeting, gave her yearly report, which showed an increase in givings over the previous year.

The report of Presbyterial was given by Mrs. Hazen Howard, our newly-elected Presbyterial President, in her usual capable manner.

Mrs. G. R. Bain displayed a quilt top which she had pieced and Mrs. R. Drake donated flour bags for the lining. A quilting "Bee" is in the offing.

Following the closing prayers and benediction by Mrs. Murray attractive remnants of print cotton, the gift of the Robert Simpson Co. Ltd., were sold in aid of the Mission Band.
