Grain

WINNIPEG, July 23—(CP)—Oats and barley closed on an easier tone in the Winnipeg Grain Exchange Saturday. The market turned lower during the second half of the session after early upturns influenced by strength in United States markets. When American markets later turned lower, Winnipeg followed. Oats showed a firmer undertone than other coarse grains as a result of fair commercial demand. Rye was mainly local trade and the commodity closed near its low for the day.

Class two wheat, for export to countries other than the United Kingdom was unchanged at $2.07. No export business was reported. Closing Quotes:—Oats: July 1.01 1-4; Oct. 87 3-4; Dec. 82 3-4. Shaw on behalf of his wife and himself, thanked those present for the lovely gifts and also Mr. and Mrs. Jolley for the use of their home. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Wanda MacLean, Mrs. Arnold MacDonald and Mrs. Orville Bird. Mrs. Shaw was formerly Miss Beale Cullen of West Devon. They have the good wishes of many friends for a long and happy wedded life.

W. M. S. MEETS—The reuniting of the O'Leary Auxiliary of the United Church Women's Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. J. M. MacWilliam on July 7th. The worship service was in charge of Mrs. Claude Jelly who was assisted by Mrs. J. M. MacWilliam, and Mrs. George Matthews. Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. John Matthews. Roll call was answered by eleven members. The Treasurer reported a cheque for $146.45 was forwarded to the Presbyterian Treasurer and in addition the C. G. I. T. have contributed $50.00 making a grand total of $196.45 for the second quarter at the end of the half year. The financial statement is $61.89 over the same period for last year. The Baby Band report was excellent; 22 mothers and W. M. S. members and 65 children were present. This included several Mission Band members who had a part in the program. The amount raised was $22.75. Nine visits to bereaved homes were reported. Mrs. John Moreshead led in prayer for the safety of Dr. Florence Murray, medical doctor, in war-torn Korea. Several interesting readings were given. A duet, "Some Golden Daybreak" was feebly sung by Mrs. Edward MacDougal and Mrs. George Matthews. A most instructive talk on Korea was given by Mrs. A. J. Matheson. Prayers of Thanksgiving for Dr. Murray's safety was then offered by several ladies. Mrs. Claude Jelly led the closing worship.

Mr. Percy Mayhew of Shaurvon, Sask. arrived on Tuesday to visit his brother, Alfred Mayhew of Margate.
