Never Mind—Re-vitalize

You BET it's warm—the more need than for keeping the vitality up to par.

Vital men resist heat easily. Languid ones are floored. Re-vitalize yourself and you won't mind the weather.

Get new energy in little raisins.

1560 calories of energizing nutriment per pound in Little Sun-Maids. 75 per cent pure fruit sugar.

Wonderful because this sugar doesn't need, and, therefore, doesn't tax digestion and thus heat the blood. Yet energizes almost immediately.

Contain fatigue-resisting food-iron also. Try a box today.

On May 3rd, when Miss Ethel L. McCabe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCabe, Newton was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to John A. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Smith of the same place. The bride, looking charming in a navy dress with dress with hat to match and a small coloured coat and was attended by her sister Anna, while the groom was supported by his cousin, John M. Mullan. After the ceremony the bridal party left by train for Charlottetown returning in the evening to the bride's home, where a number of friends gathered to greet them. The bride was the recipient of many costly and beautiful gifts. The evening was very pleasantly spent in dancing, music, etc. Numerous toasts were tendered the bride and groom after which all repaired to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Smith a long happy and prosperous married life.

Said Uncle Harry To Nephew Jim—

"Jim, I'll put up from $2,000 to $20,000 (any amount you say) to the credit of Betty and the children—if you will just deposit a small rate of interest against it each year. In that way I am willing to help you provide an Estate for them."

"What is more—I'll never ask you to pay the principal—just the interest—and I'll stop even that if you die, and at once deposit the full Estate in your Bank to their credit."

"And again, if you live to old age, and need the money—you can call the deal off—and I'll agree to pay you back all the interest deposits made."

IF YOU WERE JIM—WOULDN'T YOU TAKE HIM UP?

Certainly you would!

The same offer is open to you through a Young Man's Policy in the North American Life Assurance Co. By the payment of 3 to 5% interest each year you create an immediate estate for any sum you name.

Charlottetown Milling Company's Baking Contest for Wives

THREE CASH PRIZES AND BAG OF GOLD BOND FLOUR FOR BEST BREAD

The Charlottetown Milling Company will hold a baking contest for the housewives of Charlottetown, and are offering substantial cash prizes and a bag of flour for competition.

The contest will start right away, but all entries must be in not later than 10 a. m. on the morning of the 28th instant in the Market Building. The particulars of the Contest are as follows:—

Any housewife, woman or girl in the City may compete.

All entries will be received at the Market Building on the morning of June 28th when judging will take place. Each competitor will be required to bring one loaf of bread baked from Gold Bond Flour, and be asked to sign a certificate to that effect, stating also from whom the flour was purchased.

The competitor's name and number will be entered in a book by the Secretary, but the name will not appear on the bread to be judged.

The Judges will be two of the bakers of this city, and one housewife who is not competing, and has proved her judgment of bread by baking from the same flour.

Each competitor will be allowed to remove her exhibit after the Contest, except the prize winners.

The exhibits of the prize winners will be placed on display in one of the prominent store windows, with a card announcing the name and prize according to merit.

All exhibits not removed, from the Market Building, before noon on the 29th will be given to some charitable institution.

The prizes will be as follows:
First—$15.00
Second—$10.00
Third—$5.00
Fourth—24 pound bag of Gold Bond Flour.

NO ENTRANCE FEE WILL BE CHARGED

Ladies: Ask your grocer for Gold Bond Flour, and he doesn't keep it call up the Charlottetown Milling Company, Phone 866.
