SILVESTER McDONALD AGAIN.

Great Excitement in Dartmouth Over His Wonderful Cures.

There is considerable talk in Dartmouth just now about a man named McDonald who is credited with some wonderful cures of pains and aches by laying on of hands. The incredulity and nonconfidence of some of the most obdurate disbelievers in this sort of spiritualism has been shaken by reports of the stranger's doings in Dartmouth. An Evening Mail reporter talked with several well known citizens who declared positively that McDonald had caused members of their families to get up and walk in an instant, after being laid up for years. The most extravagant stories are told and believed of the man's wonderful power. McDonald is being sought after to restore impaired sight, to cause cancers to disappear, to straighten crooked and deformed limbs, to make sciatica and headache vanish, and in short to make the blind to see, the lame to walk and the dumb to speak. It is no fairy tale, but an actual fact that these things are happening in Dartmouth and the strangest part of it is the reported wonderful cures are apparently beyond question, in several cases investigated by the reporter, and the trouble is to account for them. McDonald charges nothing for his services and his attendance is as efficacious without as with presents. His own statement of his alleged extraordinary power is that he knows nothing more than anybody else. He says he is an agent only. A barber by trade, a few years ago he received a call one night and a voice said to him, "Go do my work, and you shall not want." McDonald was three times inspired by the vision, and left his trade and pursued his present avocation. He says he does not know what works the cures. He lays on his hands and the thing is done. He is pronounced a humbug by many people, but there is great excitement about the matter in Dartmouth.—Halifax Mail.

[McDonald lived in Charlottetown for many years, and kept a barber shop on Queen Street. He did not show any wonderful power while here, and the report is to be taken with a large grain of salt.]

One satisfaction in giving Johnson's Emulsion to children, is they never object to it.
The fact is, they soon become fond of it. Another satisfaction is, because it will make them plump and give them growth and prosperity. WEEKS.

MOUNT STEWART NOTES.

The S. P. A. of Mount Stewart intended holding their annual reunion on the 28th ult., but owing to unfavorable weather were obliged to postpone it until further notice. Several gentlemen members who came from Charlottetown that evening were disappointed as regards the meeting, but were amply consoled by a goose-supper at the house of R. Farquharson, Esq.

Mr. A. W. Pigot is doing an extensive smelt business this season. A smelt captured by him last week measured about 12 inches in length.

As opposition is the soul of trade, we are glad to see that our hustling young citizen, Mr. Clark, has opened a furniture establishment, dealing extensively in house furniture, coffins, etc., this business being formerly monopolized by Messrs. Douglass, LaBlanche & Co.

Some of the local flyers tested their powers of speed on Hillsboro ice on Monday evening. Mr. G. B. McEachern's filly, Lizzie K, took first place, followed closely by Mr. W. L. McLaren's Daisy. The challenge trot arranged to take place between Lubby Man, owned by J. J. Dunn, and Mr. G. Manson's Vitality, did not take place, owing to the unavoidable absence of Mr. Dunn.

Mr. Jack Egan has arrived home from Fredericton, N. B., where he has been taking a course of military instruction at the Royal School of Infantry. We welcome our young friend back to Mount Stewart.

Mr. Stevens, of the Central Creamery, Charlottetown, and his friend, Mr. H. Duchemin; are visiting friends here.

The young men of Mount Stewart have reorganized the Farce and Comedy Co They intend playing the popular farce, "How He amused the Baby," on the evening of February 15th.
