LEWIS-CHARLTON WEDDING

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Howard Park United Church, Toronto, on July 19th, 1939, at four o'clock when Wilhelmina Louise, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bismark Cousins of Bradal, and P. E. Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Lewis of Winnipeg, the pastor of the church performed the ceremony. The bride, who entered the church on the arm of the groom's father, looked charming in a gown of pale blue georgette crepe, with white satin train flowing behind her. She carried a beautiful bouquet of red roses and maiden hair fern. The groom was in a tuxedo. The bride's bridesmaids were Misses Margaret and Dorothy Cousins, and Misses Moore and Charlotte P. E. Island. The groom was supported by Bert Smith of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, parents of the groom, came on from Winnipeg for the wedding. Mrs. Lewis wore a gown of turquoise blue with navy red-trimmed coat and white hat. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Winrow, Grenadier Rd., Toronto. Immediately after the happy couple left by motor for a tour through the United States, accompanied by the best wishes of their many relatives and friends here for a long and happy wedded life.
