

FINANCIAL AID

By Pam Clark:

Spring is almost here... It seems hardly a time to be thinking about the fall, but it could be well worth your while to do so, at least in terms of financial aid.

Several scholarships are available and many have deadlines in the summer months and the early fall. Now is the time to check and see if you are eligible for ones in your area of study.

I would be glad to explore sources with you. My hours are:

Monday, Wednesday, and Friday 11:30-1:30
Tuesday and Thursday 1:00-3:00

I am located in student services first floor main building.

Below are some scholarships which might be of interest.

University of Moncton

CO-ED FLOOR

Co-Ed Floor - Bernadine Hall 1982-83

Beginning in September a Co-Ed quiet floor will be available to the following people: Senior students, junior students, and students of mature years. Preference will be given to those who now live on campus.

Following are some of the regulations that will be followed:

- a) 24 hours, 7 days a week, quiet floor.
- b) No group gatherings in rooms or hallways.
- c) only stereos with headphones allowed.
- d) there will be no resident assistant on this floor.
- e) the students on this floor will form a committee to look after the needs and wants of the floor.

Failure to comply with the regulations will result in immediate dismissal from the floor.

Although the regulations seem rigid they are meant to be, as we feel there is a great need for an area in residence for certain individuals who display a need for such living accommodations.

Those who wish to apply for this floor please do so before April 10, 1982. An application form does not necessarily mean a place on this floor.
