Bristol and Vicinity

Mrs. George Deveaux left recently for Montreal, to attend the wedding of her daughter, Catherine, to Raymond O'Brien of that city. Both the bride and groom are former Bristol residents who have resided in the big city for some years now.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. O'Brien and family are taking up residence in their summer home here this week, coming more than a month earlier than other years owing to the fine spring weather.

Some of the fishermen who are fishing at Nufrage have already gone to the harbour to get their fleet of gear in readiness for the big day. May 1st. No herring are reported as being taken here yet.

Miss Lottie Hughes is having a new fence put up around her summer home here and everything put in readiness, although she won't be here until August. Mr. P. R. Sinnott is doing the job.

A mighty shade tree that adorned the lawn of Mabel O'Brien for fifty years and grew to be a monster tree was cut down recently as it was feared the giant might fall and do damage to the house or kill someone.

Mrs. Earl Drake who spent the winter months in Montreal with her daughter has arrived back in Charlottetown, where she will remain until June when the schools close, as she has one girl attending school in the City. They will come to the old home for the summer at least.

Mr. Edward Rossiter who was in the Charlottetown Hospital for several weeks has returned home and hopes to be able to attend to his spring work.

Some loose horses have been allowed on the highway here day and night for some time now. It is recalled that a year ago a valuable horse was killed by a car and the car damaged very badly.

The Jordan Pond is a sorry sight now since the sluice broke away. There is hardly a tiny stream and on the opening day some fishermen were noticed standing looking so sad at the deep canyon where the trout were plentiful a year ago, and ducks hatched and fed during the summer.

MONTAGUE W. I.

The Women's Institute of the Montague Branch met at the home of Mrs. Gordon Coffin with the vice-president, Mrs. Spencer Llewellyn, in the chair. The meeting opened with the singing of "The Women's Institute Carol". The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Lester MacLeod, and were approved as read. Roll call was answered by eight members, and there was one visitor present.

Mrs. William MacLean reported for the Red Cross committee and also read a letter asking the members to help finish towels and face cloths for relief work in Holland. It was decided that the institute would be responsible for the completion of two hundred towels. The sick committee reported that two members were convalescing satisfactorily after their recent illnesses.

The correspondence was read and discussed. A discussion took place regarding buying furniture for the teacher's room in the new school and it was decided to leave arrangements to be finalized by the executive.

In the absence of the teacher, Mrs. Lyle Boehner, the financial report was read by Mrs. MacLeod. Mrs. Coffin was appointed on the program committee for next meeting.

At the close of the meeting two contests were presented by Mrs. MacLeod with the prize being awarded Mrs. John Ballam. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. MacLeod.

There is no "overnight cure" for irregularity

But there is a simple, natural answer to the common problem of irregularity due to lack of bulk

There are men and women (perhaps you're one of them) who won't let "nature take its course". THEY TRY TO SUBSTITUTE UNNATURAL "FORCING ACTION" FOR THE NATURAL REGULARITY WHICH SENSIBLE DAILY HABITS AND SUFFICIENT BULK IN THE DIET COULD PROBABLY MAINTAIN.

Many fall into the habit of using laxatives in a way laxative makers never intended. They take "big doses" "willy-nilly" without even reading the directions on the label. Naturally, such overdoing—with products intended only for overnight relief of a temporary stoppage—exerts upon the delicate digestive system an unnatural strain.

There's nothing wrong, of course, with taking laxatives occasionally. If you feel you have to take a laxative, just be sure you take it wisely—in an accurate, recommended dose.

BUT THERE IS A WAY TO AVOID TAKING DRUG-TYPE LAXATIVES AND TO PLACE YOUR DEPENDENCE ON NATURE, IF LACK OF BULK IN THE DIET IS YOUR TROUBLE.

In many natural foods—such as certain vegetables, fruits, and grains—nature grows abundant natural bulk which normally and naturally aids the rhythmic process of elimination.

In no other natural food is natural bulk so ideally found as in the outer layers of the whole wheat kernel, known generally as bran.

Bran is nature's "laxative food instead of a medicine". When properly processed and shredded, whole wheat bran yields smooth natural bulk that the digestive system can handle in a natural way.

husband? Have I grounds for divorce, since he deserted me? Will I have to file suit? LAURA W.

ANSWER: To iron out your difficulties, you need legal aid at once. Divorce proceedings can become very tangled and difficult, and in your case time is of the essence. Depending upon the state in which you live, the divorce may be granted quickly or not at all.

DEAR MISS DIX: We are a group of girls in an office, and for the last few months have been distressed to see one of our finest co-workers falling for a man who is utterly worthless. She is 30, and he is close to 50. We'd like nothing better than to see his charming manner exposed, before the lady is completely taken in. What can we do? FOUR MUSKETEERS

ANSWER: There isn't much you can do. When a person sets out to be gullible, a ready victim for any charmer, her friends are quite helpless. The lady is 30, and should be old enough to know gold from dross. Of course, you can tell her what you know against the man—first being sensible enough to have proof of your charges—but I doubt if she'll even listen to you. Better leave her alone and hope her good sense finally will prevail.

Miss Nissen cannot reply personally to readers but will answer problems of general interest through this column.
