Women's Institute Meetings

CARLETON W. I.

Carleton Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Ralph MacCaull on Oct. 24th for their regular monthly meeting. The president presided and opened the meeting with the "Ode" and "Creed". Ten members responded to roll call. The minutes were read and approved. Correspondence was read and discussed, and it was moved that thirty-five cents be paid for membership fee for two years, the extra ten cents to be paid to the fund enabling delegates to attend the A.C.W.W. Conference in Ontario.

It was decided to have a Halloween party in the school on Oct. 30th. Lunches and candy will be sold and there will also be a bazaar. Committees then gave their reports.

Mrs. Erle Thomson kindly invited the members to her home TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY SERVICE of North Wiltshire Young Peoples' Union, Sunday, at 3 o'clock. Speaker, Rev. L. M. Murray. Special music.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our Mother, Mrs. Mary Isabel Moase, who departed this life on October 25th, 1947.

Deep in our heart a memory is kept, Of one we loved and can never forget. And though the years be many or few, We will always be thinking dear Mother of you.

Ever Remembered by Her Daughters, Ruth and Jean.

for the next meeting; roll call to be answered with an article for overseas parcel to England. Lunch committee: Mrs. Avalah MacCaull, Mrs. John Myers, Mrs. Morley Muttart. Collection taken, 91 cents. Meeting closed with The King.

Mrs. MacCaull kindly turned her radio on and members welcomed the opportunity of hearing Princess Elizabeth speak from the Chateau Frontenac, Que.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by the committee in charge.

BRACKLEY POINT W. I.

Mrs. Fred Hughes entertained the meeting of Brackley Point Institute on Friday evening, October 5th. The small attendance of members answered the roll call by stating "Something I Am Thankful For".

The treasurer reported that the proceeds from the chicken supper after all bills were paid amounted to $173.00. It was moved and seconded that this money be passed over to the treasurer of the hall to pay expenses for repairs completed during the past year.

A parcel consisting of three 6-lb. tins of meat was sent as a Christmas gift to the adopted Institute in England. Mrs. Howard Cudmore visited the school in September and purchased paper towels and other articles needed. The October visitor, Mrs. Skeffington, was asked to see about buying a kettle.

The sick committee reported one call, with fruit presented to a sick member, and gift to a child in hospital.

A donation of $5.00 was voted to the League of Mercy. $5.00 was passed in from the sale of the booklet, "Early History of Brackley Point".

The matter of shipping old woollens for blankets was brought up, and it was decided the members would prepare their orders so that plans could be made for shipping at the next meeting.

It was agreed that 35 cents annual fees be paid instead of 25 cents for the next two years. This was in response to a suggestion that the extra 10 cents be used to raise a fund to defray expenses of P. E. I. delegate to the A.C.W.W. The payment of fees will be the answer to the roll call at the next meeting, the place of which is open for invitation. Collection was $1.75.

The hostess and committee served lunch, after which the meeting adjourned.

SPRINGFIELD W. I.

The October meeting of Springfield Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. William Haslam with the vice-president, Mrs. Reginald Haslam presiding. Meeting was opened by repeating Creed in unison. Roll call was answered by eight members passing in a Get-Well or sympathy card.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. It was decided to leave orders for cards to Homer

MILO W.I.

A most enjoyable afternoon was spent when the members of Milo W. I. motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Campbell of North River, on Sept. 4, for their regular monthly meeting.

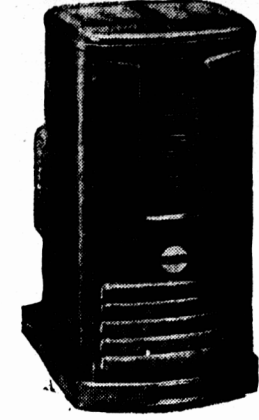

In the absence of the President, the meeting was conducted by the Vice-President, Mrs. Dave MacDonald. The meeting opened in the usual manner and 13 members responded to roll call. A short business period followed. Correspondence was read by the secretary, Mrs. Angus MacLean and committees were heard from and new committees appointed.

It was decided to order 14 boxes of Christmas Cards. Secretary gave a report on the financial returns of the bazaar and ice-cream sale and all bills were ordered paid. Mrs. MacLean also reported the sum of $18.00 had been collected for the Sanatorium Radio Fund.

Full plans were made for a shower to be held in Milo Hall for a newly married couple. Mrs. Walter Wedlock kindly invited the members to her home for next meeting. The business part of the meeting closed with "The King."
