GREASER NIGHT

DATING GAME-- UPEI's 2nd Dating Game will be held Tuesday night at The Barn. Last year's proved to be funny and interesting. A lot of couples won free dinners out of it. The Dating Game is set up similar to the Dating Game that is seen on T.V. There is one person asking a group of three contestants (of the opposite sex, which they cannot see). The person then picks the person they feel they would like to have a date with. If you are interested, please leave your name at The Barn. You can enter as a group of three, or by yourself, or just two of you and we will fix up the groups. The M.C. (mistress, that is) for this year's Dating Game is Shelly Pepler (yes, the one and only!) So get out and enter, we need contestants. See you at The Barn Tuesday night. (who knows, you might find yourself a good date??)
