

Rice Culture.

Messrs. Dan Talmage's Sons & Co. Annual Review of the Rice Culture in Louisiana, dated New Orleans, October 13th, supplies the following:—

Kind Treatment of Animals.

No animal appreciates kind treatment more than a heifer. Naturally gentle, it is only by neglect that the acquirements harmful to herself and annoying to her owner.

Personal—Gossip.

In the Argentine Republic many Irishmen have made great fortunes as sheep farmers. Senator Pendleton's new house in Washington has golden sunflowers on the tops of the lightning rods.

London Truth's fashion writer finds that a modish honeymoon must extend over three months or last only a day or two, anything between the two being hopelessly antiquated.

M. Chevreul, the French scientist, is now in his ninety-sixth year, and yet spends eight hours daily in his laboratory, besides doing much literary work.

The Boston Journal discovers that men who are terribly particular about civilized food, and the manner of its preparation, will eat any kind of wild abomination that is attached to the sacred name of "game."

Philadelphia Chronicle-Herald:—"Among the recent arrivals in this city is a gorilla preserved in alcohol. Although dead the animal is in excellent spirits."

London Truth:—"I fear that overdressing is a constitutional defect in America; it is glaringly vulgar when imported to England. When Sara Bernhardt visited that country we heard far more about her wardrobe than her talent."

London World, speaking of Mr. Gladstone's matchless powers of casuistry, remarks that the Englishmen are, in their way, proud of the "hair-splitter of Hawarden" as the Americans were of the "rail-splitter of Ohio."

The Great French Remedy, Dr. LeDuc's Periodical Pills.

A test of over thirty years in France, and throughout the continent of Europe, has established the fact that these Pills positively cure suppression of the Menes produced by cold, Nervous shock, Anemia, General Debility, &c., in every instance.

DR. McEACHRAN, of Montreal, chief inspector of quarantine stations, reports the cattle plague in Pictou County as being almost stamped out. All the cattle known to be infected have been slaughtered, and others likely to have caught the disease have been placed in quarantine.
